

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. XIII.

WILMINGTON, N. C. THURSDAY, MAY 2, 1889.

NO 104.

The German Schutzenfest for 1888 opened at Charleston yesterday.

The quarantine regulations went into effect at Charleston yesterday.

There were several casualties in New York during the big parade, among them a number of officials who tumbled from their horses. This way of putting on horseback on a show day men who were never in the saddle before is very reprehensible.

There were high old jinks at the Centennial ball in New York after the Presidential party had left. There were lots of people who got disgracefully drunk and some of these were women—called in New York ladies.

The following exceedingly witty article appeared in the editorial columns of yesterday's New York Herald:

The Governor of North Carolina and the Governor of South Carolina are in the city, and the police courts will witness this morning that there was no honest occasion for remarks between the two distinguished statesmen.

Let us laugh!

Brother Boscow, of the Goldsboro Headlight, is exceedingly wrathful over Mr. Cleveland's letter to Mr. Oldham, of the Charleston World. After stating pretty plainly that he believes the Cleveland letter to the World was made up in the office of that paper, Mr. Boscow goes on to say:

Can the ex-President deny that he told us "that my public life was at an end?" Can he deny that he gave us to understand that he is out of the race for the Presidency? Can he deny that he attributed his recent defeat "not to the tariff, but to the bribery and corruption of the Republican party leaders?" Can he deny that he charged the New York World with not being a Democratic paper? Can he deny it that he asked us if there is any foundation in the rumor that Mrs. Harrison has discharged all colored servants from the White House? Can he deny not asking us concerning McDow, the murderer of Capt. Dawson, and the public sentiment in Charleston? Can he deny it that he told us that his future life will be devoted entirely to the practice of law in New York? No, he cannot. He is too honorable a man to be guilty of denying his own words! By the solicitations of friends, Mr. Cleveland may have lately changed his mind regarding "not being in the race any more," but that doesn't release him of the words he uttered in our presence. In conclusion we must say that we were, and are always will be a Cleveland man, notwithstanding this little episode.

There is undoubtedly a mistake somewhere. Mr. Boscow must have mistaken some of Mr. Cleveland's utterances. That is the only way in which we can account for some things contained in the interview, as published.

The L'Arioso German Club gave a very pleasant German at Concordia Hall last night. Mr. E. P. Boatwright led.

Everything which belongs to pure, healthy blood is imparted by Hood's Sarsaparilla. A trial will convince you of its merit.

Canary and mocking bird cages. A full line of above are now being shown by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Mr. John F. Garrell has another attractive ad. in this issue. He says that he will show to-morrow and Saturday the finest beef that has been on this market in ten years.

Nor. barque Emma, Andersen, cleared to day for Hamburg, with 2,412 barrels rosin and 200 casks spirits, valued at $6,972.02, shipped by Messrs. Paterson, Downing & Co.

Still in the Field.

The Wilmington Shirt Factory, No. 123 Market st., has now on hand a full line of gent's heavy jean drawers, the very thing for the season, at 50 cents a pair, worth 75 cents.

J. ELSBACH, Prop'r.

Mr. James Spruntsailed from New York yesterday for Liverpool on the Steamer City of New York.

The wind got around to the North-east last night and it has been cold, wet, rainy and disagreeable to day.

Overcoats on the second day of May; who ever heard of such a thing before? And yet this is a fact. Fires, too, were comfortable to day.

Mr. Wm. A. Willson, City Clerk and Treasurer, gives notice that the listing of city taxes will begin June 1st at the City Hall.

Make your house secure by putting burglar proof locks on your blinds and windows. For sale by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Ready mixed paints and stains, white lead, oil and varnishes. For low prices and good reliable goods go to the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Mr. D. G. Proctor, General Superintendent of the Proctor Screen Company, is in the city to day. A preliminary meeting of the stockholders of this company was held last night and another meeting will be held to-morrow.

There is a real work of art on exhibition at Mr. Maunders' marble yard, on North Front street. It is a child angel, cut out of white marble, and intended as a monument. It is the best thing of the kind we ever saw. It was done in Carrara, Italy, and imported into this country.

Young's Cough Balsam is a remedy that is selling entirely upon its merits and is guaranteed to relieve and cure all chronic and acute Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis and Consumption. For sale wholesale and retail by Munds Brothers.

Truck in the New York Market. Strawberries have dropped in New York. Choice sell for 20 cents a quart, but some inferior lots bring but 12½ and 15 cents. Peas sell for $1.50 a crate; asparagus $2.50 to $4 per dozen, and cabbage from $2 to $3.50 per barrel. These were the ruling prices on the 30th.

Entitled to the Best. All are entitled to the best that their money will buy, so every family should have, at once, a bottle of the best family remedy, Syrup of Figs, to cleanse the system when costive or bilious. For sale in 50c and $1.00 bottles by all leading druggists.

Not Quite Right. It is not the Ladies' Memorial Association, as we had it yesterday, that has purchased a new plat in Oakdale, but the association officers of the North Carolina Infantry. The plan is to inter there the dead of their regiment who now rest in the public ground, and to erect a monument over their remains.

The Lutheran Synod. Rev. F. W. E. Peschauer and Mr. W. H. Strauss left to day on the Carolina Central railroad, as delegates from St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church of this city to the Lutheran Synod, to be held at St. John's Church near Concord, Cabarrus county. The Synod will open to-morrow.

Prof. Bellezza's Academy. The present session of Prof. Bellezza's dancing academy will close with a soiree and german at Germania Hall to-morrow night. There will be a number of fancy dances during the evening and it promises to be an unusually brilliant event. The Professor proposes to have one more session here this season, the new classes to open on Monday afternoon for ladies and Monday night for gentlemen.

City Court. Archie Johnson, disorderly conduct, not guilty discharged. Bella McGriene, disorderly conduct, not guilty. W. T. Moore, disorderly conduct, judgment suspended on the payment of costs, amounting to $2.75. Rose Cole, disorderly conduct, $20 or 30 days. Linder Moseley, disorderly conduct, $20 or 30 days. Lanie Moore, disorderly conduct, $5 or 10 days.

A SAD STORY. The child coughed. The mother ran. No remedy was near. Before morning the poor little sufferer was dead. Moral: Always keep Dr. Acker's English Remedy at hand.—Munds Bros., druggists.

Indications. For North Carolina fair, except on the coast, local showers and stationary temperature.

The "Little Tycoons" had a very successful meeting on Tuesday night and it is said that they will treat us to an operatic entertainment at an early day.

At a meeting of the congregation of St. Paul's P. E. Church, held last night, it was decided to add two more to the Vestry of that church and Messrs. B. T. French and L. J. Poisson were elected.

A W. & W. R. R. shifting engine turned a somersault yesterday at the freight depot in this city. She was running on a track over some new made ground when the sand beneath the track gave way and the engine fell from the track and turned over on its side. No one hurt.

The oyster has gone on his vacation. He will take a rest until next September. There is no "r" in May; hence these tears. This is for the city. At the sound many of the old-timers say that notwithstanding the lack of an "r" in May the oyster is at his best for a roast during all of this month.

The Delaware. The steamship Delaware arrived here yesterday from Fernandina and sailed to day for New York. She brought 35 passengers from the former city and left here with six more, from this city. These latter are Mrs. Janie Gillespie, D. W. Williams, C. R. Skinner, James Davis, James Freeman and J. H. Hill. The last named three are steerage passengers.

District Court. The U. S. District Court met according to adjournment at 10 o'clock this morning, when the following cases were disposed of: U. S. vs. Hood Council, charged with stealing from the U. S. mails. Found guilty and sentenced to two years' imprisonment in the Juvenile Reformatory at Cheltenham, Md., he being under 16 years of age. J. T. Harper et al. vs. English steamship Gaboon. Libel for salvage. Argued by counsel, Hon. D. L. Russell and Ricard & Weil for plaintiffs; Hon. George Davis and Messrs. Junius Davis and Thos. Evans for defendants. The Court took the papers.

The case of C. P. Moore vs. steamer Delta and owners, libel, is being heard this afternoon.

The grand and petty jurors have been discharged for the term.

The Disaster at Warsaw. A most destructive wind and hail storm, which developed into a tornado, visited Warsaw, a town on the W. & W. R. R. 54 miles from this city, yesterday afternoon, about 4:15 o'clock. The storm came from the Northwest and its path seems to have been about one half mile in width, North and South of the town. The destruction to property was great, although we hear of no one as having been seriously injured. Two churches were prostrated, the handsome Presbyterian Church and the colored Methodist Church. Other houses were blown over or otherwise damaged, trees uprooted and fences prostrated. The storm was of short duration but very violent. Hail fell to the depth of two inches and the truck gardens in its path are ruined. The prospects are now poor for further shipments of truck thence this season. The loss, it is estimated, will amount to $12,000 and is proportioned as follows: G. J. Lambert, truck and buildings, $2,000; W. L. Hill, truck and tenant houses, $2,000; O. P. Midleton, $500; Dr. W. P. Kennedy, loss of dwelling, $200; C. W. West, building and truck farm, $250; L. R. Carroll, $250; I. O. Herring, $500; J. M. Blanchard, $100; W. H. Murray, $500; J. K. Smith, $250; Dr. Hussey, $100; Blackburn Bros., $1,000; A. W. Bell, $400; H. J. Carlton, $400; D. J. Morrissey, $300; D. J. Aaron, $200; J. B. Winders, $200. The Presbyterian Church, valued at $2,250, is completely demolished as is also the colored Methodist Church.

A Reward of $500 is offered by the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy for a case of catarrh which they cannot cure. The mild, soothing, cleansing and healing properties of this remedy are irresistible. 50 cents by druggists.
