Prof. Austin Flint, of Bellevue (New York) college, says: "The judicious use of alcoholic stimulants is one of the striking characteristies of progress in the practice of medicine during the last half century."
The celebrated Dr. J. M. Carnwall Says: "I am most happy to say, after a very thorough test, that for persons suffering with nervous and general debility or any wasting disease, or for delicate persons or invalids, Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is the best tonic and purest stimulant with which I am acquainted."

There are no higher scientific authorities than these and they speak volumes. Beware of all bottled whiskies which may be offered you, excedt Duffy's. It has stood the test of time and is absolutely pure.

Fashion has rung the death-knell of what was once the comfort of long and thin necked women. Half of the smart women of Paris have Luther Lutz" Thus write W. C. Hamgiven up collars altogether, and wear their gowns cut closely around the neck: The effect at first is very odd, after the tall collars and rather showy neckwear which have been worn with tailor made gowns during the past three or four years. But when the wearer has a pretty neck the effect is taking. The owners of scrawny or unlovely necks

America.

Announcement of the death of Father Damien, the heroic priest who sacrificed his life in the leper settlement at Molokai, in the Sand wich Islands, has excited a new pop ular interest in that class of unfor tunates who are the outcasts of humanity by reason of their terrible physical afflictions. Now and then isolated cases of leprosy appear in the United States which have had their origin in other countries. At present there are two victims of this dread disease in New York. These cases are known to only a few medical men and the near relatives of one unfortunate who belongs to a well known family in New York city. The latter is said to be secreted somewhere in Fordham, and nobody who lives near the pretty little villa has any idea that it is a living tomb. The other leper may be call ed Carlos Jorge Saguan. He is only 20 years old, and a native of the largest seaport of one of the South American Republics, where his fam ily, which is one of considerable prominence, now resides. Last July drag victims to the grave. A good the young man was brought to New York for treatment, and after living for a while on 15th street was removed in December last to the German hospital at 77th street and 4th avenue. He is no a private pa tient in that institution. Within the past few days it was found necessary to perform a surgical operation on him, for he is literally rotting away.

The London correspondent of the extortion of hotel keepers. It is the general consensus of opinion among the visitors to Paris, and has been for a great many years, that the hotel keepers of the wicked city are about the most rapacious and remorseless brigands on the face of the earth, and people can easily believe the most extraordinary story about the greed of the French hotel keeper. To expect him to forego this opportunity of fleecing the public is too much. For the benefit of Americans who are coming to Paris, it is as well to say he is ready for them. When a man hires a single room in an ordinary hotel, and is obliged to pay $4 a day for it, without meals, he naturally objects to the additional charge of $1.50 for the services of a chambermaid, 50 cents for candles, and 25 cents for hot water. But these things, with more or less variety, are exactly what he will encounter unless vigorous steps are taken by the Government. Fortunately, such steps are probably imminent. The Government has announced that it will revise the tariff of hotels and restaurants if complaints grow much stronger. There are several thousand letters a day pouring in from the swindled public, so that relief by the Government is not unlikely. The better plan to follow is to go to a small hotel and eat at the hotels which are not prominently located at the corner of a big boulevard. A man showed me two bills of fare from some restaurant which were suggestive of the spirit of the times in Paris. One was that in use two weeks ago, and the other one had been freshly issued for exhibition custom. Prices were nearly doubled for all the smaller dishes, and the enarges for wines had been advanc ed about 50 per cent."
