render very useful service."

This was a pretty quick piece of work. It comes from Rock Hill, S. C., and is in the shape of a special to the Charleston News and Courier:

A meeting of the citizens of this place was held in the rooms of the Board of Trade to day for the pur building a cotton seed oil mill. Maj. John R. London presided and Ire dell Jones acted as secretary. The proposed organization of a company was thoroughly discussed, and a committee was appointed to solicit subscriptions to the capital stock. In the report of the committee it was seen that the proposed capital stock of $30,000 should be increased to $50,000, which was done.as $30,000 had been subscribed by those present. An application was at once Figs, to cleanse the system when made to the Secretary of State for a commission, with John Ratterree, W. L. Roddey, A. H. White, W. H Rawlinson, John R. London and A.

welcome at the services.

Half-Holiday Monday.

A petition was in circulation this afternoon for signatures among our business men looking to a half-holiday on Monday next. The object is, as expressed in the petition, to encourage the Wilmington Light Infantry in their laudable efforts towards maintaining their organization and to stimulate their patriotic efforts in celebrating the birthday of liberty on this continent. The signers agree to close at 1 o'clock so as to allow themselves and their employes an opportunity to attend the BRADDY & GAYLORD. excursion of the W. L. I. on Monday next. The result is not positively known at this writing but the petition is being generally agreed to and this city. As will be seen from ad- we think there is but little doubt
