The Democratic National Committee met this afternoon to elect a successor to the late W. H. Barnum, of Connecticut. So many members of the Committee have protested that they will not take the place that the eligible candidates now are not numerous. Gorman does not want it, Brice will not have it and Scott threatens to resign if made chairman. As to whom the Committee will elect there is nothing yet but the wildest speculation. The contest will really be between a Barnum tariff man and a Cleveland revenue reform man.

There is no limit to Yankee genius and inventiveness. The latest is a "hangman's trust," organized in Chicago. A special in the New York Herald thus outlines its objects and intentions:
We simply intend to hang or kill convicted murderers by electricity or other means provided by the laws of the various States of the Union. Hangings are so often bungled by sheriffs who do not know any more about killing a man scientifically than they do of running a locomotive that there are many times horrible butcheries. It is our intention to send competent men wherever needed to conduct and superintend hangings, or we will set up the most improved electrical machinery and send skilled electricians to kill murderers in that way. It all depends upon the law of the State.

"Have you ever had any experience in killing men legally?" I asked Mr. Cleary shuddered. The thought was evidently repugnant to his finer sensibilities. "No, I haven't," he replied. "But then I will not do the hanging myself. Look at the execution of the Bald Knobbers, for instance. What could have been more horrible than that? There is no professional hangman in the United States, as in England, and therefore the duty of strangling murderers to death devolves on inexperienced sheriffs."

"Do you expect the enterprise will be financially successful?"
"We will try to make it so."
"You anticipate a good many calls for the services of your hangmen, then?"
"Yes, there are scores of sheriffs throughout the country who would only be too glad to have hangings taken off their hands."
"Do you think other States besides New York will resort to the use of electricity for their murderers?"
"I don't know. Perhaps they will. In any event we will have whatever is necessary—the guillotine, if they want it, though I don't suppose it will ever come to that. Most of the States, though, will stick to the rope, and hanging will not be played out in this country for many years to come."

No matter what the school of physis, they each can cure an ache or pthiasis.
At least 'tis said they can; But as Science turns the wheel still faster, And quacks and bigots meet disaster,
To us there comes a man Whose merits hath won countless zealots, Who use and praise his "Pleasant Pellets."
The "Pleasant Purgative Pellets" of Dr. Pierce, though gentle in action, are thorough and never fail to cure biliousness, diseased or torpid liver and constipation.

Full moon to-morrow morning at 39 minutes past 3 o'clock.
The Sylvan Grove carried a large crowd to Carolina Beach to-day.
Peculiar in medicinal merit and wonderful cures—Hood's Sarsaparilla. Now is the time to take it, for now it will do the most good.

Don't forget the excursion to-morrow to Carolina Beach by the Germania Cornet Band. These have already proved among the most pleasant events of the season. The boat will leave here at 9:30 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. The Band will play several fine pieces on the street before the boat leaves to-morrow morning.

SHE IS "GRATEFUL."
"I saved the life of my little girl by a prompt use of Dr. Acker's English Remedy for Consumption."—Mrs. WM. V. HARRIMAN, New York. Munds Bros., druggists.
Refreshing and Invigorating
Delicious Soda Water as drawn from Munds Brothers' magnificent new soda fountain at a temperature of 84°. Purest Fruit Syrup, Milk Shakes and Natural Mineral Water.

Forecasts.
For North Carolina, fair weather, preceded by light rain in west portion and stationary temperature.

The Daily Advertiser is a new candidate for popular favor, the first number of which was issued yesterday. Messrs. King, Hewett & Co. are the proprietors.

Enamoline, the best stove polish in the market. No dust, no mixing necessary. Use like shoe blacking. Every housekeeper should try it. For sale by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. †

Messrs. Gannon and O'Keefe, U. S. inspectors of steamboats and boilers, arrived in the city this morning and will remain here several days to attend to business in their department.

The ladies of Myrtle Grove Sound will give a festival on Friday night, June 14th, at the school house at that place for the purpose of starting a fund to build a Methodist church near the place where the old one stood, on Myrtle Grove Sound.

To Shippers of Truck.
The Atlantic Coast Line is now receiving all perishable freight for shipment North by the Atlantic Coast Dispatch, all the breaks in the line having been repaired, so that through shipments will be made without delay.

Maj. Arnold, U. S. A., who was here some time ago, arrived in the city again last night from Fortress Monroe. Major Arnold has charge of the construction of the battery at the Encampment grounds at Wrightsville, and his visit here is for the purpose of making arrangements for its immediate construction.

Tourists.
Whether on pleasure bent or business should take on every trip a bottle of Syrup of Figs, as it acts most pleasantly and effectually on the kidneys, liver and bowels, preventing fevers, headaches and other forms of sickness. For sale in 50c and $1.00 bottles by all leading druggists.

Changed to Forecasts.
The term "Forecasts" is now the correct thing. It has been adopted by the Signal Bureau so as to make it agree with the nomenclature of the weather service in other countries. The change is made by us to-day. First it was "Probabilities," then "Indications" and now it is "Forecasts." We like the last the best.

The Hook and Ladder Horses.
The Hook and Ladder Company have bought the fine pair of horses they were trying yesterday. The horses weigh 2,600 pounds and cost the company $550. They are certainly a fine pair. The old horses was sold this morning. Mr. M. Newman, Chief of the Fire Department, bought one and the other was sold to Mr. E. H. Sneed, manager of the Knoxville Furniture Company.

To Sing at Lexington.
We are pleased to learn that Miss Annie DeRosset, so well known and so heartily admired here, has accepted an engagement to sing at the musical and literary entertainment to be held at Lexington, Ky., early in July. She will return home about the 10th of July, leaving Washington City, where she now is, on or about the 24th inst.

Peterson's Magazine.
Peterson for July begins the new volume with a tempting array of attractions. There are numerous fine engravings, and some of the prettiest dress and needle work patterns that ever delighted a woman's eye. "A Chapter on Umbrellas" is very entertaining and is beautifully illustrated. The early chapters of Miss Bowman's serial, "In St. Tammany Parish" are full of striking interest. "The End of It," by Frank Lee Benedict, and "Benson's Romance," by Clarence M. Boutelle are capital stories, and there are various others of exceptional merit. "Woman on a Trieycle" is an amusing and instructive sketch, and the "Talks By A Trained Nurse" offers admirably clear and practical directions for giving aid in sudden accidents. Now is a good time to get up a club at greatly reduced rates. Send for a sample copy. Address Peterson's Magazine, Philadelphia, Pa.

Lawn rakes of the latest and most improved patent. For sale by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. †

There is economy in building barbed wire fences and in buying your wire from the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. †

We understand that Mr. Geo. Z. Fench's papers are now all in good shape and that he will be ready to take charge of the Postoffice here by the first of July.

We greatly regret to hear that Dr. Ennett's condition is very serious. He is a sicker man than was indicated by us yesterday. Fears are entertained for his life.

A fine crop of corn is growing on the Market street plaza. There is also a fine crop of waste paper, too, which should be removed, as it is neither pretty nor profitable.

We would advise our readers to stop at the Wilmington Shirt Factory and look at the largest stock and the most handsome styles of lawn tennis shirts in the city and at prices to suit everybody. No. 122 Market street. Sign of the blue awning. †

The big excursion train from Mt. Airy is expected here to-morrow morning. It will come in over the Carolina Central via Maxton and will go directly down to the Hummocks and Wrightsville Beach where the party will breakfast. It is expected that there will be nearly 500 persons on the train.

Wake Forest Commencement.
Round trip tickets to Wake Forest, by way of the Seaboard Air Line, will be on sale to-day and until the 15th inst. inclusive, on account of the commencement exercises, at the following rates: From Wilmington, $7.50; Charlotte, $7; Raleigh, 85 cts.; Sanford, $2.90; Rutherfordton, $9.50; Shelby, $8.75; Lincolnton, $8.05; Weldon, $3.75.

Bath Houses at the Hummocks.
We are glad to know that both houses are to be constructed at the Hummocks. There are to be two, each 40 x 60 feet, and built on the sand shoal about midway of the channel. One is to be placed North of the bridge and the other South of it. The water there is delightfully clear and as salt as it is outside and baths in it will be delicious. These bath houses are to be apurtenances of the hotel.

City Court.
There were only two cases before the Mayor this morning. These were:
Jas. Williams, charged with disorderly conduct, was found guilty and fined $20 or 30 days.
Tolsen Bailey, Jr., disorderly conduct, was also found guilty but got off a little easier than the former, being fined only the cost of the case, which were $3.75.

Old Co. K, Third N. C. Infantry.
A representative of this paper had the pleasure of being present at the soldiers' reunion at South Washington on the 10th inst. There were at least one thousand present from various portions of Pender and lower Duplin.

The exercises, after prayer, were ushered in by a poem delivered by Dr. R. T. Sanders, of Pender. We shall not attempt an analysis of his fine effort, as we hope to get a copy for publication.

The orator of the day, Hon. C. W. McClammy, was presented by Hon. E. D. Hall in his usual felicitous style. As our readers are well aware, the Major is always full of "speech" and it is useless to add that he did full justice to the occasion and covered himself with glory. After Maj. McClammy's oration, dinner was announced. Such a dinner—well, we can't tell it. You ought to have been there.

Col. Hall entertained the assemblage in the afternoon by a fine address delivered to an attentive audience in a pleasant and graceful style. The remainder of the afternoon was spent by the youth and beauty of the land in tripping the light fantastic toe with music by a string band from Wilmington. A greater display of beauty it would be hard to find.

In every way the occasion was a pleasure, a delight and a success. It was one of the most delightful of the series of Reunions the gallant old soldiers have yet had.

Mr. Strange's Lecture.
Rev. Robert Strange delivered a decidedly interesting address last night at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. It was Christ as a man and with all of the higher attributes and excellencies of Christian manhood which he so eloquently portrayed. There was not a very large audience but those who heard the address were glad that they were there.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.
At a meeting of the "St. George and St. Andrew Society" the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:
WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God in his infinite wisdom to take from our midst our fellow member, the late WILLIAM G. BROWN; therefore, be it
Resolved, That in the death of William G. Brown this Society has lost a good and faithful member, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to his widow, and to the daily papers of this city for publication.
Resolved, That the sincere sympathy of this Society be tendered to the widow and family of deceased member.
