There is economy in building barb wire fences and in buying your wire from the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Forecast.
For North Carolina, fair, except light rains in the extreme west portion, and slowly rising temperature.

Our esteemed fellow citizen, Mr. M. Cronly, was married 41 years ago to day. He says that he is just 41 years old to day.

The Davis building, next West of the Bank of New Hanover, is being remodeled in the interior and arranged as offices.

Hereafter, during the season, the banks in this city will close every Friday at 1 o'clock, thus making a half holiday on every Friday.

Humors run riot in the blood at this season. Hood's Sarsaparilla expels every impurity and vitalizes and enriches the blood.

We can make you comfortable for $1.00 by supplying you with the Ironclad Oil Stove. N. Jacobi Hdw Co.

Messrs. Cronly & Morris sold at auction this morning $800 First Mortgage Bonds, Wilmington Seacoast R. R. Co., for 75 1/2 cents on the dollar.

Painters, save money by buying your white lead, ready mixed paints, varnishes and brushes from the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. They sell none but the best.

We are sorry to hear that our clever friend, Mr. E. Kuhblank, is sick and confined to the house. We know they missed him at Carolina Beach to day.

Jas. Williams, who was arraigned in the Mayor's court yesterday for disorderly conduct, was found not guilty, instead of guilty, as mentioned by us yesterday.

Enamoline, the best stove polish in the market. No dust, no mixing necessary. Use like shoe blacking. Every housekeeper should try it. For sale by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Mr. S. VanAmringe received a telegram yesterday stating that the cars for the Switchback have been shipped and will arrive here to-morrow without fail.

The blue fish are biting at the Hummocks quite lively now. We saw three gentlemen yesterday afternoon with about 150, which they caught in two hours' time.

We would advise our readers to stop at the Wilmington Shirt Factory and look at the largest stock and the most handsome styles of lawn tennis shirts in the city and at prices to suit everybody. No. 122 Market street. Sign of the blue awning.

No matter what the school of physic, they each can cure an ache or phthisis—
At least 'tis said they can;
But as Science turns the wheel still faster,
And quacks and bigots meet disaster,
To us there comes a man
Whose merits hath won countless zealots,
Who use and praise his "Pleasant Pellets."

The "Pleasant Purgative Pellets" of Dr. Pierce, though gentle in action, are thorough and never fail to cure biliousness, diseased or torpid liver and constipation.

Tourists.

Whether on pleasure bent or business should take on every trip a bottle of Syrup of Figs, as it acts most pleasantly and effectually on the kidneys, liver and bowels, preventing fevers, headaches and other forms of sickness. For sale in 50c and $1.00 bottles by all leading druggists.

Moonlight Excursion.

There will be a grand moonlight excursion and turtle egg hunt on Wrightsville Beach to night. There will be a band of music on the train, which will leave Front street depot at 8:10 p. m. Those who don't want to indulge in the hunt, can trip the light fantastic toe. Returning, the train will leave Wrightsville at 12, midnight.

The Mt. Airy Excursionists.

Seven coaches, carrying about 400 excursionists, from Mount Airy and intervening points, arrived here to-day over the C. C. R. R. They all went down direct to the Hummocks and the Beach. Mr. Platt, proprietor of the Island Beach Hotel, had received orders by telegraph to provide breakfast for 250, dinner for 300 and supper for 150, and it is probable that Mr. Brown and Messrs. Hewlett & Co. fed the others on the beach. The excursionists will spend two days and one night in this locality and will leave on the return at 5 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

Golden Wedding Day.

Dr. Jno. D. Bellamy and his excellent wife yesterday celebrated their golden wedding, they having been married just fifty years ago. Some weeks ago it was decided to make the occasion an event of much social interest, to the many friends of the family as well as to their numerous descendants, but severe sickness has been developed in the family and of course these intentions were at once abandoned. Nevertheless there were many who could not let the occasion pass without tendering warm congratulations on its occurrence, but these congratulations were necessarily confined to the immediate family and connections.

Colored R. and L. Association.

A meeting in the interest of the "People's Building and Loan Association," consisting of colored people, was held last night at the City Hall. There were about 300 in attendance and great interest in the matter was evidenced by all present. Abel Robinson presided at the meeting with Jas. B. Dudley secretary. Speeches in advocacy of the enterprise were made by J. G. Blain, J. W. Neal, Rev. J. E. Brown, A. A. Dudley and others. A committee was appointed to prepare a constitution and by laws for the government of the Association, consisting of Jas. G. Blain, Jas. B. Dudley and Rev. J. E. Brown. The meeting adjourned subject to the call of the chairman.

Death of W. A. Gammell, Esq.

Col. J. G. Burr received a telegram yesterday from Charleston informing him of the death in that city, on the evening of the 11th, of his nephew, Mr. Wm. A. Gammell, a native and former resident of this city. He was the only child of Mr. John Gammell, deceased, and grand-son of the late James Anernum Berry. He had been in delicate health for some months but his relatives here did not anticipate his death at this time, as they hoped he had passed the crisis of his disease and was gradually improving. Mr. Gammell was born in Wilmington but removed to Savannah with his parents many years ago, when quite young, where he had since resided. He married Miss Anernum, of Charleston, and leaves a widow and four daughters to mourn his departure from earth. He was in the 45th year of his age and was a highly cultured gentleman, of polished manners, and possessed a peculiarly gentle and affectionate disposition that won the esteem of all with whom he came in contact. He was exemplary in the discharge of all the duties of life and to the virtues that adorned his character as a man and citizen was added the higher and more exalted one of the humble and devout Christian.

Refreshing and Invigorating
Delicious Soda Water as drawn from Munds Brothers' magnificent new soda fountain at a temperature of 34°. Purest Fruit Syrup, Milk Shakes and Natural Mineral Water.

Mr. J. Elsbach has finished the 500 bathing suits contracted for with him by the Ocean View R. R. Co.

All of the breaks on the Atlantic Coast Line have been repaired and passenger and freight trains are all running now on the regular schedule time.

Perry's Figs.

The evening excursion to Carolina Beach, leaving by the Passport at 5 p. m. from the city and returning by the Sylvan Grove from the Beach at 8 p. m. daily, except Sunday and Monday, suits our business men exactly and is steadily growing in favor with the public. The trip up and down in the cool of the evening, a surf bath and a supper of Ben Perry's unequalled "pigs" are well worth twice the cost of same. Try it.

At Carolina Beach To-Day.

The Germania Cornet Band went down to Carolina Beach to day, on the excursion advertised by them. The Band appeared on the streets for the first time in their new fatigue uniforms, which look handsome, cool and comfortable. At 9:30 the Sylvan Grove pulled out of her dock, crowded with passengers. She had more on her than we have noticed on any previous trip this season. At 2:30 she also carried down a large crowd. The Band, before leaving the city, paraded to the boat, and stopped at Market and Front streets and rendered a number of delightful pieces.

A Fatal Fall.

Mr. W. A. Corley, a carpenter employed at work on the building for the new cotton seed oil factory at Hilton, met with a fatal accident yesterday afternoon a few minutes before 6 o'clock. He was engaged with two other men in putting up the supports for the roof of the warehouse when he lost his balance and fell to the floor beneath, a distance of 18 feet, striking on his head. As soon as possible Capt. Allen, the contractor, had him placed in his wagon and conveyed to his boarding house, on Dock street, between Front and Second, where surgical aid had been summoned by telephone and was awaiting his arrival. Everything possible was done for him but the injury proved fatal in about an hour.

Mr. Corley came to Wilmington last Monday from Columbia, S. C., where he had been employed upon the new State building in that city. He was a good workman and Capt. Allen speaks very highly of him. He was about 35 or 40 years old and leaves a wife and children. His remains were placed in a neat coffin and sent by the 10:10 train last night to his family in Columbia. Mr. C. A. McCraw, foreman of the men working upon the building, accompanied them.

Bellevue Cemetery Company.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of Bellevue Cemetery Company, held in this city yesterday afternoon for the purpose of electing a Vice President, and to take action relative to the death of Mr. John S. McEachern, Secretary and Treasurer, and to elect a successor, the following preamble and resolutions were offered by Mr. John D. Bellamy, Jr., and adopted, and a copy was ordered to be furnished the family of the deceased, and the daily papers:

WHEREAS, On the 5th day of June, 1889, God in His wise Providence saw fit to remove from us by death, our lamented friend John S. McEachern, secretary and treasurer of this company. And it is the desire of this Board of Directors to place upon record their esteem for his worth and character; be it,
Resolved, That in the death of our friend this company loses an officer who since the organization of this company has been one of the most active and zealous stockholders; ever on the alert to advance its interests, and who at all times took great pride in the success of the institution.
Resolved, That as an officer, he was faithful, honest and obliging, and performed all of his duties with the highest credit to himself and satisfaction to this Board.
Resolved, That as a man and citizen, he was an upright, conscientious Christian, and leaves behind a name for integrity and honesty that is a valuable legacy to his children.

Remarks eulogistic of the character of the deceased were made by members of the Board of Directors.
Mr. Geo. L. Morton was elected Vice President, and Mr. N. M. McEachern Secretary and Treasurer of the Company.

The Half Holiday.

The question of a Friday half holiday still agitates our little commercial world. Some dealers are willing to give it but others are not. The clerks, it is needless to say, are unanimous in its favor. It is hoped that all will come into the arrangement. If all close none can lose. It then becomes a case of all gain and no loss—no loss in trade and a gain in health and mental activity for both the employed and the employers.

Games on the Beach.

The Sunday School of St. Paul's Episcopal Church will give an excursion to-morrow, on the Sylvan Grove, to Carolina Beach. The boat will leave here at 9:30 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. Refreshments will be served on board of the boat at city prices and there will be some unique and diverting games at the Beach for the boys and the young men. The fare will be as usual, 50 cents for the round trip, and a large attendance is confidently looked for.

Thirty Years Ago.

Maj. Graham Daves has favored us with a copy of the Daily Journal, of date Tuesday evening, June 7th, 1859. It belongs to a dead past just on the other side of "de big wah" which is the dividing line to so many to day between the "used to was" and "is now." The paper is addressed to Gov. Ellis, on whose staff Maj. Daves served at that time as Private Secretary. We recognize there many familiar names, the large majority of which are, alas! of those who have crossed over the river and are now resting under the shade of the everlasting trees on the distant shore. There is a long and interesting account of the visit of President Buchanan to Chapel Hill and references made to the Wilmington Light Infantry, Col. E. D. Hall, commanding, which acted as his escort on that occasion but there is little of other matter, beside the large array of advertisements, which would interest the reader of to day.
