A $2,000 Check.

Raleigh News and Observer: Happening in at the office of Col. F. H. Cameron, Superintendent of the Life Insurance Company of Virginia, yesterday we found him just sealing up a check for $2,000 in a letter to Messrs. Smith & Boaiwright, agents at Wilmington. He informed us that it was to pay the policy on the life of Mr. W. W. Shephard, who recently died near Wilmington.

Confederate Vets.

A meeting of Confederate veter ans, for the purpose of forming a Survivors' Association, has been called for July 4th, in this city, but as it is probable that there will be very few vets left in the city limits lowed 4 per cent on the amount paid on that day it is likely that the meeting will adjourn to a later date. and the 4th is adhered to as the date because of the fact that there is a general move for meeetings for the same purpose throughout the State on that day.

St. Gabriel's, at Faison. A new Episcopal Church, called St. Gabriel's, has recently been completed at Faison, and it will be consecrated to the worship of God on Friday next. The Right Reverend, the Bishop of the Diocese, will be present and will probably preach Impurities of the blood often cause the sermon. We know of no other be present. It was expected that the surpliced choir of St. James' would be there but they cannot go.

> A Specimen of Spelling. Burr & James' school have been taking place this week, at the school Church, on Third street. A soiree will be given to morrow night and this will close the scholastic year. As an evidence of the thoroughness of the instruction at this school we will mention one fact. In a class composed of children from 6 to 8 years of age 250 words of two and three syllables were yesterday given out to be spelled. One child "missed" two words and with this exception every other of the 248 words were spelled correctly. The older pupils, we hear, acquitted themselves most creditably in their more numerous examinations, with scarce ly any failures.

The Bloody Eighteenth.

A call has been issued in the Robesonian for a reunion of the survivors of the gallant 18th N. C. Regiment at Carolina Beach on Thursday, July 11th. We most heartily endorse the suggestion and if life and health are spared we promise to be there.

We think that the old 18th could muster up a very respectable num-Pender, Bladen, Columbus, Robe son and Richmond each contributed companies and although these counties are closely connected, either topographically or by means of rapid transit, yet there has never yet been a reunion of the survivors of this old command.
