Harper's Weekly.

ILLUSTRATED.

HARPER'S WEEKLY has a well-established place as the leading illustrated newspaper in America. Supplements are frequently provided, and no expense is spared to bring the highest order of artistic skill to bear upon the illustration of a beautiful phase of home and foreign history, a new work of fiction, or by Charles King, will be among the leading features of the Weekly for 1889.

Harper's Young People.

AN ILLUSTRATED WEEKLY.

HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE begins its tenth volume with the first Number in November. During the year it will contain five serial stories, including "The Boy Scouts," "The Boy and the Dog," "The Boy and the Horse," "The Boy and the Girl," and "The Boy and the Girl." It is a weekly feast of good things to the boys and girls in every family which it visits.—Boston Courier.

1889.

Harper's Bazar.

ILLUSTRATED.

HARPER'S BAZAR will continue to maintain its reputation as an unequalled family journal. Its illustrations are of the highest order, its literature is of the choicest kind, and its Fashion and Household departments of the most practical and economical character. Its pattern-sheet supplements and fashion plates alone will save its readers ten times the cost of the subscription, and its articles on decorative art, social etiquette, house-keeping, cooking, etc., make it indispensable to every household. Its bright short stories and timely essays are among the best published, and not a line is admitted to its columns that could be found in the most fastidious taste. Among the attractions of the new volume will be serials: "The Boy Scouts," "The Boy and the Dog," "The Boy and the Horse," "The Boy and the Girl," and "The Boy and the Girl." It is a weekly feast of good things to the boys and girls in every family which it visits.—Boston Courier.

DEEP Sea Wonders exist in thousands of forms, but are surpassed by the marvels of invention. Those who are in need of profitable work that can be done while lying at home should at once send their address to Hallett & Co., Portland, Maine, and receive free, full information how either sex upwards can earn from $5 to $25 per day and down. Capital not required. Some have made over $50 in a single day at this work. All succeed.

The Daily Review.

Johnnie's Growth.

Lay away the little shirt waist
That our darling boy once wore,
In the rag-bag gently shove it,
He won't need it any more.
With a pair of red suspenders
We must soon our boy endow,
For the fact is most apparent—
Papa's pants fit Johnnie now.

Lay aside the knickerbockers
With the fringe around the knees;
Take the marbles from the pocket,
All the strings and nails and keys.
Buy him socks instead of stockings,
Or the boy will raise a row;
For our darling has been growing—
Papa's pants fit Johnnie now.

The New Discovery.

You have heard your friends and neighbors talking about it. You may yourself be one of the many who know from personal experience just how good a thing it is. If you have ever tried it, you are one of its staunch friends, because the wonderful thing about it, that when once given a trial, Dr. King's New Discovery ever after holds a place in the house. If you have never used it and should be afflicted with a cough, cold or any Throat, Lung or Chest trouble, secure a bottle at once and give it a fair trial. It is guaranteed every time, or money refunded. Trial Bottles Free at Kobb. R. Bellamy's drug store.

A Sure Sign.

"William," said Mrs. Trembley, "hear that horrid dog. Isn't it awful?"
"Is that the same dog that kept us awake last night?"
"I think so. It sounds unlucky doesn't it?"
"Didn't you ever hear that the howling of a dog was a sure sign of death in the family?"
"No. Whose family?"
"The dog's," said Trembley in a firm voice as he stepped out of bed and reached for his revolver.—Mer Trav.

HOW DOCTORS CONQUER DEATH.

Doctor Walter K. Hammond says: "After a long experience I have come to the conclusion that two-thirds of all deaths from pneumonia, pneumonia and consumption might be avoided if Dr. Acker's English Remedy for Consumption were only carefully used in time." This wonderful Remedy is sold under a positive guarantee by Munds Bros., druggists.

Appreciated Ability.

"Well, sir," said an old gentleman indignantly, "what are you doing around here again. I thought the delicate hint I gave you just as you left the front door last night would give you to understand that I don't like you very well." And the speaker looked at his boot in a reminiscent way.
"It did," said the young man as a look of mingled pain and admiration came over his face. "But I thought I would come and ask you."
"If you would like to join our football association."—Mer Trav.

TERRIBLE.

Two thirds of all deaths in New York City are from consumption or pneumonia. The same proportion holds for most other cities. Delays are dangerous. Dr. Acker's English Remedy for Consumption will always relieve, and may save your life. Munds Bros., druggists.

The One Thing Needed.

A gentleman who was driving up Fourth avenue the other day came to several empty barrels in the street and he halted and asked a boy who sat on the curb:
"Say, boy, who rolled those barrels out here?"
"Pa did. We are cleaning house," was the answer.
"Whose children are those out there in the street?"
"They are ours. Ma sent 'em out to get rid of them."
"Is that your dog making such a fuss in the back yard?"
"Yes, sir. We are seeing how long he can keep it up."
"And I suppose you lugged that ladder out here?"
"Well, you seem to be doing about as you want up here?"
"Yes, sir, except that I can't pry that letter box off the lamp post. Haven't got a crowbar in the buggy have you? I just want that to be happy."—Detroit Free Press.

Advice to Mothers.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty five cents a bottle. July 6 deod&wly

A Man With a Double Stomach.

The New York Fire Department has in its ranks a member who could make a bigger salary in a dime museum than at life saving, were he willing to go on exhibition. He is one of the best known members, too, and has received a medal for bravery at a fire. He has what is best described as a double stomach, some sort of an internal sack or pouch in addition to the regular stomach, into which he can at will direct anything that he swallows. Whatever goes into this sack he can retain there as long as he pleases and then bring up again unharmed. In this way he can swallow coins, pebbles or any small trifles, and retain possession of them again at will. He declares that this power has been a great use to him at times when he was the bearer of important secret despatches through a hostile country. He enclosed them in a round silver case that he had made, swallowed them whenever necessary, and defied his searchers. He has been examined by well known doctors, who say that this internal arrangement of his is one of the most remarkable freaks of nature ever known. He has had offers of large sums if he would will his body to some medical institution when he died. He says that he discovered the peculiarity about his stomach when a boy, by swallowing pebbles and bringing them up again to the admiring awe of his companions.—N. Y. Sun.

DO NOT SUFFER ANY LONGER

Knowing that a cough can be checked in a day, and the first stages of consumption broken in a week, we hereby guarantee Dr. Acker's English Remedy for Consumption, and will refund the money to all who buy, take it as per directions and do not find our statement correct.—Munds Bros., druggists.

A SAD STORY.

The child coughed. The mother ran. No remedy was near. Before morning the poor little sufferer was dead. Moral: Always keep Dr. Acker's English Remedy at hand.—Munds Bros., druggists.
