City Court.
There was only one offender before the Mayor this morning and that was Obadiah Jenkins, he being arraigned on two charges, one for disorderly conduct and the other for assault and battery. Both the cases were removed to Justice E. D. Hall's Court.

Taken Suddenly Ill.
We are sorry to hear that Capt. C. M. Harris was taken suddenly very ill on the steamer Bessie yesterday on her return from the fishing grounds. The attack was a severe one and for a time his friends were seriously alarmed. We are glad to know that he is better today.

Remedy sold by druggists, at only 50 cts.

Closing Exercises.

The closing exercises of Misses Burr & James' school have been in progress for several days past and the closing scenes were presented last night at a Soiree given by the pupils. The prizes this session were awarded to the following young ladies: Excelsior Medal to Miss Bettie DeRosset, from class fourth, and Miss Katie Harlow, from the fifth class, there being a tie between them. Little Miss Kate Harlow is the youngest child who was ever granted the Excelsior Medal, the little maid being only eight years old. The prize for the highest number of marks was awarded another little eight year old lady—Miss Meta Le Grand—who has not made a single failure during the session. The deportment and punctuality prize was earned by Miss Fannie Poisson, who for punctuality has come up to the full maximum, except once, having received one tardy mark during the session. The first prize in the first class was awarded Misses Amy Quelch and Janie Bunn, there being a tie between them; prize First in third class, Miss Sarah Sloan; second prize, Miss Isabel Carpenter. Fourth Class, Excelsior medal, Miss Bettie DeRosset; second prize, Miss Marie Peschau. Fifth Class, Excelsior medal, Miss Kate Harlow; second prize, Miss Meta LeGrand. The composition prize was awarded to Misses Fannie Poisson, Janie Dunn and Loula Woody.

At the Soiree last night there was a large attendance, notwithstanding the very warm evening. There was a very pleasing programme and the music, which was rendered by Miss M. E. Cushing and Miss Belle Anderson at the organ, accompanied by Mr. W. N. Jacobs, on the cornet, was very fine. The salutatory, a charming piece, was beautifully read by Miss Loula Woody. The anthem "Great is the Lord" was rendered by a full chorus. "What Does Little Birdie Say" was charmingly rendered by little Miss Theodore LeGrand; "Little Gustav" was a pretty, piquant, pleasant little piece, rendered handsomely by Miss Louise Covington. "Little Girl and Lark" was by Miss Katie Harlow and Miss Annie Harrison, and charmed all of the hearers, and "Rock-a-Bye Baby" was a delightful little thing, rendered by Miss Marie Peschau and chorus, with Miss Annie Taylor, a charming little lass of very tender years, as the baby. Jean Ingelov's "Songs of Seven" were beautifully rendered by Misses Meta LeGrand, Janie Dunn, Lina Craft, Mary Dudley, Fannie Poisson, Mary Munson and Amy Quelch, and the part closed with the Anvil Chorus, by the primary classes.

Col. E. D. Hall then presented the prizes and this he did very handsomely and gracefully. In the course of his remarks he took occasion to pay some handsome and well deserved tributes to the painstaking principals of the school. Col. Hall spoke ex cathedra as his own daughters were for years pupils with these ladies and he knew whereof he spoke. In the second part of the entertainment one of the most pleasing features was "Carlew Shall not Ring To-night." It was recited by Miss Mary Jewett, prettily and pathetically. The "Charge of the Light Brigade" was probably the best of all. The marching in it was simply superb—the best we ever saw on a school stage. Then came "Good Night" and "Away to the Woods, Away," by the full chorus of the school, closed the exercises of the evening.

Farewell Missionary Meeting.
Rev. Charles E. Carlstrom left here to day on the steamship Benefactor, for New York, from whence he will sail in a few days as a missionary to Lapland and Finland. A farewell missionary meeting was held last night at Grace M. E. Church, in which all of the Methodist congregations in this city participated, and a hearty and affecting farewell was tendered the reverend gentleman. A great many claimed the privilege of shaking his hand and wishing him God speed.

Refreshing and Invigorating
Delicious Soda Water as drawn from Munds Brothers' magnificent new soda fountain at a temperature of 34°. Purest Fruit Syrup, Milk Shakes and Natural Mineral Water.

Forecasts.

For North Carolina, fair weather, preceded by light rain on the coast and stationary temperature, except slightly cooler in the interior.

Mr. C. C. Tilghman is now baggage master on the Seacoast R. R. and he is a very accommodating and efficient official.

This afternoon was observed as a half-holiday by many of the merchants and the streets have had the appearance of a dull Sunday.

The Wilmington Light Infantry were out yesterday afternoon in full dress parade. They drew up in line at the foot of Market street and fired several volleys. They were the "observed of all observers" and the "admired of all admirers."

The W. L. I. Excursion.

Quite a number of persons went down to the Beach this morning on the Grove and the Passport but it being learned that the Wilmington Light Infantry; whose excursion day it was, would not go down until the afternoon, the larger number waited to accompany them. At 2:30 the Grove left her dock with what appeared to us as the largest number she has had on board this season. The Light Infantry were on board, in fatigues-uniforms, but they did not march to the boat. They have had a splendid afternoon for it and we know that there has been a happy crowd at the Beach to day.
