Sign of the blue awning.

Hope It'll Pan Out. Capt. Edward Everett, of this city, has invented something by which we hope that he may make a fortune. It is described as "a device for holding up the trucks when a car wheel jumps the rails, and at the same time acting as a brake and preventing the derailed wheel from striking the cross-ties." It is Capt. Everett's invention and is said to be a splendid one. The Pennsylvania Road is to give it a test.

Don't be Hungry. With the foolish idea that Catarrh cannot be cured! The world moves, and medical science is progressive. The proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will pay $500 reward for a case of Nasal Catarrh, no matter how bad or of how long standing, which they cannot cure. Remedy sold by druggists, at only 50 cts.

A special train will leave Front street depot at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning, on the Seacoast R. R., for the accommodation of those who wish to attend the camp meeting in progress at Ocean View. There will be a coach attached to this train for the accommodation of white persons.

The First Presbyterian Church being under repairs will be used to-morrow for the last time until the repairs are completed. The services in the morning will be in connection with the communion of the Lord's Supper, and in the afternoon Dr. Hoge will preach a sermon to men only.

Cape Fear Club House. Two of our most enterprising colored citizens, Daniel Howard and J. B. Dudley, have opened a nice restaurant on Wrightsville Beach, at the terminus of the Ocean View R. R. They have also a separate room and separate service for whites and are largely patronized by those who know a good thing when it appeals to the palate. See ad. in this issue.

Camp Meeting on the Beach. A colored camp meeting is in progress now at the pavilion for colored people at the terminus of the Ocean View R. R. It was at first determined to have it at the meeting house at Wrightsville but instead it was carried to the beach. It began to-day and will continue through to-morrow. Capt. Nolan has put on a special train for their benefit. It will leave Front street depot at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

The Bishop at the Beach. Bishop Lyman, who is now at Island Beach Hotel, will remain there until July 6th, when he will resume his visitations. Many of our citizens have called to see him and we are glad to know that this distinguished divine has expressed himself as greatly pleased with all he has seen and encountered. He thinks the Hammocks a delightful resort in the Summer and Wrightsville Beach one of the finest in the world. He will probably pay a visit to Carolina Beach also before his return to Raleigh.

For Great Britain and the Continent. Mr. B. G. Empie left last night for New York city, where he will stay until next Wednesday when he will sail on the steamer City of New York for Liverpool in company with a party of Wilmingtonians, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Pembroke Jones, Mr. D. M. Williams, Mr. Fred. Kidder, Mr. Harry Walters, and Mr. E. Chambers Smith of Raleigh. The party will separate at Liverpool and Mr. Williams and Mr. Empie will travel together for a month, when they will again join the others at Paris. They will visit Amsterdam, Rotterdam, Ghent, Vienna, Bremen, Haver, Barcelona, Rome, and other places on the continent. The many friends of the voyagers here wish them a pleasant journey and a safe return.

Death of a Distinguished Physician. Hon. James Wilson received very distressing news to-day. It was that of the death of one of his two brothers, Dr. Benjamin Wilson. The sad event occurred in New York city last night. Dr. Wilson was 55 years of age. He was a man of a large reputation in his profession. He graduated at the New York Medical College and was for some time past in charge of the Yorkville Dispensary. For some years he was the physician in charge of the Magdalen Asylum in New York city. He has been in bad health for about two years past and for some time has traveled extensively, hoping for relief, which could not be found. The funeral services will take place on Monday and the interment will be in Greenwood. Mr. Wilson will leave here to-night to be present on the sad occasion.

Refreshing and Invigorating. Delicious Soda Water as drawn from Munds Brothers' magnificent new soda fountain at a temperature of 34°. Purest Fruit Syrup, Milk Shakes and Natural Mineral Water.

Forecast. For North Carolina, fair weather, succeeded by light rain on the coast and cooler.

Bishop Lyman and a party of young ladies enjoyed a surf bath yesterday at Wrightsville Beach.

Prayer and experience meeting of business and working men at the Seaman's Bethel this evening at 8:15 o'clock.

There was only one case before the Mayor this morning, that of Abram Smith, who was held for safe keeping.

Drop harness, similar to that in use at the "Atlantic" and "Adrian" engine houses, was put in yesterday at the "Cape Fear" house by Mr. B. R. Russell.

There were no services in the Temple of Israel to-day because Dr. Mendelsohn was not well enough to hold them. We trust that the reverend gentleman's indisposition will not prove serious.

Gen. Anthony wants to secure 35 to 40 horses for mounts for his men on the parade along the streets of the city during the Encampment. They will be carefully treated and not ridden out of a walk. They are for the Scotland Neck cavalry, who have their own equipments.

It was so warm last night and there was so much electricity in the atmosphere, that everybody thought it would rain. But not a drop of water fell here, though, so far as we know. During the night the wind got around to the West, and then to the North and it was cool and pleasant this forenoon.

The Island Beach Saloon. Mr. W. M. Powell, of Columbus county, has leased the Island Beach Saloon for the season and has it well stocked with the best of everything in his line. It is nicely arranged and handsomely decorated. Those who visit the Hammocks will find courteous attention there. He is ably assisted by Mr. Martin Daniels, well known as one of the best mixers in the State. Mr. Powell was in the city to-day and paid us a pleasant little visit.

Died in Durham. We regret very much to learn of the sad affliction that has visited the household of that esteemed gentleman, Rev. E. A. Yates, D. D., now of Durham. A telegram was received here to-day from him by Mr. W. E. Springer which states that his youngest daughter, Miss Pearl, died last night. The hearts of Dr. Yates' many warm friends in this city go out in sincere sympathy to him in his loss. The interment will be in Durham.

We have no particulars but the event must have occurred suddenly as we know that the deceased young lady and her sister had been making preparations to visit this city, where they expected to spend the Summer as the guests of Mrs. W. E. Springer.

Lippincott's Magazine. "Ten Minutes to Twelve" is the title of the new novel, by M. G. McClelland, in the July number of Lippincott's Magazine. The story cannot fail to add greatly to this brilliant young author's reputation. Mr. George W. Childs publishes the second instalment of his interesting "Recollections." "Our Greatest Inventor" is the title which John Habberton gives to a comprehensive article upon Ericsson. The number contains the eleventh instalment of Tourgee's series of stories under the general head of "With Gauge & Swallow." Thomas Nelson Page, whose charming stories of Virginia life have made his name famous, contributes an article upon "Authorship in the South before the War." Edgar Fawcett has many nice and appreciative things to say about Mrs. Chantler's last novel, "The Witness of the Sun." Anne H. Wharton contributes a timely skit to the same number entitled "The Courtesies of Summer Resorts." Clinton Scollard contributes a sonnet, "A Dervish;" Florence Earle Coates, a quatrain entitled "Life;" and another quatrain, "A Gala Day," is by M. A. De Wolfe Howe, Jr. Debbie H. Silver presents a brief poem entitled "Inspiration." The various departments are up to their usual standard of excellence.

C., and intermediate points. Most of them spent the forenoon in looking about the city and this afternoon they went down to the seacoast for a breath of salt air. Some of the best citizens of Horry county are with this party.

St. Paul's Evang. Lutheran Church. The services in St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, corner Market and Sixth streets, Rev. F. W. E. The entire brigade of the State Guard will parade on the afternoon of that day, and will receive the veterans with the highest honors, a review being among the ceremonies of the occasion. The railways have been requested to give special rates to the veterans. It is particularly desirable that the attendance of veterans be as large as possible. Col. Wm. L.
