STATE NEWS.

Concord Times: The Best Mill people are weighing the matter of putting up a $25,000 factory for the manufacture of wagons, plows, harrows, &c. It will be a joint stock company. — Prof. F. B. Brown, the excellent principal of Enochville High School, has been granted the privilege of a European trip by the Board of Trustees. — The case of Mrs. J. F. Green against the Valley Mutual Life Insurance Company has been compromised. Mrs. Green received $1,000, the amount of the policy being $5,000. — More apricots have been sold our market this year than any previous, in fact many of the oldest inhabitants say they have never seen them brought in by the sack full before.

Shelby News: The case of J. W. Goforth and others against the Commissioners of Cleveland county, the Massachusetts and Southern Construction Company and the three C's Railroad Company, was settled on Wednesday by a compromise. This suit was brought by Mr. Goforth to invalidate the bonds issued by Cleveland county to the three C's Railroad. The case has been in court for nearly four years. The United States Court, in which the holders of the bonds had brought suit for payment of the interest, gave judgment against the County Commissioners for the amount of interest due. The compromise effected yesterday settles all litigation over the bonds.

Charlotte News: Lee Adams, a painter of this city, was knocked from the Richmond & Danville track last night and badly broken up. Adams sat down on the side of the track at the Eighth street crossing, bowed his head between his knees and went to sleep. The yard engine came along, backing, and the tender knocked Adams to the ditch. He was picked up in an unconscious condition, but soon regained his senses. He was sent to his home where Dr. Gibbon attended him. His left arm was broken, his thigh dislocated, and besides that he was badly bruised. — There was a tremendous rainfall in town to-day. Up to 12 o'clock noon Signal Officer Bronson reported the exact rainfall to amount to 3.73 inches. The rainfall at 8 a. m. was 1.63 inches, so that 2.10 inches fell from 8 to 12 o'clock.

Raleigh News and Observer: Mr. C. M. Busbee, of counsel for Dr. Sion Rogers and Mr. John W. Thompson, in the Dr. Grissom investigation, yesterday morning withdrew from the case, leaving it solely in the hands of Mr. Spier Whitaker as counsel. — Reports were received here yesterday that streams were up to a high point and still rising. It is expected that much damage to bridges will be reported. — The $50,000 of 8 per cent. market house bonds of the city of Raleigh will be due July 1st, which is tomorrow, and Col. W. E. Anderson, the commissioner of the sinking fund, will redeem them upon presentation at the Citizen's National Bank. The sale of the $25,000 of street improvement bonds was effected yesterday in short order. Two letters had already been received from Baltimore parties asking at what price the bonds could be purchased. An offer of 107.02 had already been made by one of the parties. Mayor Thompson telegraphed them that bonds could be bought at 107.25; and that the first response would secure the purchase of the bonds. The first response was from Gustav Ober, of Baltimore, who said he would take the bonds at the price mentioned. He is the same party who took the consolidated debt bonds. The bonds were accordingly closed out to Mr. Ober. The $75,000 of sewerage improvement bonds had not yet been offered for sale.

"Oh! where shall rest be found?"
The worn out mother sighs;
Stockings to mend, and trousers to darn,
Dishes to wash, and butter to churn,
While my back feels to break, and head and heart burn,
And life is a constant friction,
The summer came and went,
The matron no longer sighs;
Elastic her step, and rounded her cheek,
Work seems but play, life is now sweet,
And the change was made in one short week,
By Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Positive remedy for those derangements, irregularities and weaknesses so common to womankind.

Rutherfordton Banner: A serious affair took place in Sulphur Springs township on Saturday last between Wm. Briscoe, one or two of the Scruggs, Lang Huntcutt and others. Several parties were badly bruised, but Huntcutt received the most serious injury, being cut badly in the side.

American History.
The Magazine of American History opens its July number—the beginning of its twenty-second volume—with a spirited "Story of the Washington Centennial," illustrated in the most unique and picturesque fashion. The excellent paper is written by the editor, who could not be otherwise than entertaining, and the truthful pictures of the scenes are rendered doubly attractive and valuable through the admirable portraits of the distinguished characters in our national life of to-day appearing in them. "The Discovery of the Mississippi" is the second paper in this beautiful number. "Washington and William the Silent—a Parallel," is an ably written and readable article. Judge Dykman contributes the second part of his interesting and informing account of "The Last Twelve Days of Major André." General Alfred E. Lee writes a vigorous and entertaining paper, entitled "Some Glimpses of Holland." There is a clever sketch of Hon. Robert C. Winthrop, and a short paper on Colonel William B. Smith, the son-in-law of John Adams. There are other short articles, and the Notes furnish fresh and curious data. The editorial and all the departments maintain their high character. It is a brilliant number throughout. Price $5.00 a year. Published at 743 Broadway, New York.

The coming year promises to be crowded with stirring events.
In the United States the entrance of new issues into the political arena has been followed by a change of Administration. But the great economic question on which the campaign turned is still unsettled, and its solution is now committed to a Congress almost equally divided between the two great parties.
Europe is a vast camp. Army corps patrol the frontiers, and millions of men await the signal for the most gigantic war the world has ever seen.
