Jack the Ripper Again.

LONDON, July 13.—One more murder has been added to the long list credited to "Jack the Ripper" in Whitechapel. The body of a woman, evidently one of the disreputable frequenters of the district, was found in Castle Alley to night, only a short distance from where the other murders were committed.

The body was horribly mutilated, and bears undoubted evidence of the work of the fiend whose atrocities in Whitechapel have terrorized the whole district repeatedly. The police are as far as ever from a clue to the identity of the murderer, and they are perfectly paralyzed. The excitement throughout Whitechapel, where the news of the discovery of the new victim of the mysterious "Ripper" has spread with lightning rapidity, is at fever heat.

Scribner's Magazine

For 1889.

The publishers of SCRIBNER'S MAGAZINE aim to make it the most popular and enterprising of periodicals, while at all times preserving its high literary character. 25,000 new readers have been drawn to it during the past six months by the increased excellence of its contents (notably the Railway articles), and it closes its second year with a new impetus and an assured success. The illustrations will show new effects, and nothing to make SCRIBNER'S MAGAZINE attractive and interesting will be neglected.

THE RAILWAY ARTICLES will be continued by several very striking papers; one especially interesting by Ex-Postmaster General Thomas L. James on "The Railway Postal Service." M. L. ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON'S serial novel "The Master of Ballantrae," will run through the greater part of the year.

begin in November.

A CORRESPONDENCE and collection of manuscript memoirs relating to J. P. Millet and a famous group of modern French Painters will furnish the substance of several articles.

The brief end papers, written last year by Robert Louis Stevenson, will be replaced by equally interesting contributions by different authors. The first of them for the January number.

Many valuable LITERARY ARTICLES will appear, a paper on Walter Scott's Method of Work, illustrated from original MSS., a second "Sheaf of Old Books," by Mrs. James T. Fields, and many other articles equally noteworthy.

Articles on ART SUBJECTS will be a feature. Papers are arranged to appear by Clarence Cook, E. H. Blasfield, Austin Dobson and many others.

FISHING ARTICLES describing sport in the best fishing grounds will appear. Salmon, Winnebago, Bass and Tarpon are the subjects now arranged. The authors are well known sportsmen.

Among the most interesting in the list of scientific papers for the year will be a remarkable article by Prof. John Thronbridge, upon the most delicate delicacies and uses of PHOTOGRAPHY.

A class of articles which has proved of special interest will be continued by a group of papers upon ELECTRICITY in its most recent applications, by eminent authorities; a remarkable paper on DEEP MINING, and other interesting papers.

A SPECIAL OFFER to cover last year's numbers, which include all the Railway Articles, as follows:

IN THE UNITED STATES.

The coming year promises to be crowded with stirring events. In the United States the entrance of new issues into the political arena has been followed by a change of Administration. But the great economic question on which the campaign turned is still unsettled, and its solution is now committed to a Congress almost equally divided between the two great parties. Europe is a vast camp. Army corps patrol the frontiers, and millions of men await the signal for the most titanic war the world has ever seen.

The Herald's news-gathering machinery is unequalled. Its correspondents dot the habitable globe. Nothing can escape their vigilance, and no expense is spared in spreading the results of their efforts before the Herald's readers.
