The Daily Review.
WEDNESDAY, JULY 24, 1889.
STATE NEWS.

Greensboro Workman: Rev. A. R. Morgan, who goes soon as a missioner to Japan, was here Saturday, and from him we learn that he would leave for San Francisco, via Washington and Chicago, on Thursday next. By this it will be seen that he goes out by the Pacific route. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Morgan and his two children.

Raleigh News and Observer: Mr. Benoni Thorp died yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock in his room in the Agricultural building. He had been here as Assistant Chemist in the State Agricultural Experiment Station for about one year, and during his stay in Raleigh had won a very large circle of friends. He graduated at the State University in 1888. He was from Granville county and was twenty one years of age.

Goldboro Argus: The heaviest fall of rain for the time being ever witnessed in that section by the "oldest inhabitants" passed over a good scope of territory East of Goldboro yesterday, embracing Kinston, Falling Creek and La-Grange in its heaviest down-pour. Capt. Cogdell, of Grantham's township, brings us the news of a dastardly waylaying and shooting from ambush, in the night, of Mr. John Lee, who, in company with Mr. Marshall Kornegay, were outcoon hunting at the time. The shooting took place in a swamp, at an unfrequented crossing, and Mr. Lee was the only one of the two fired upon. Several shots from a breach loading shot gun were fired at him, his legs and side being badly lacerated.

Durham Sun: Mr. W. C. Parrish, a highly respected farmer of Mangum township, living on Flat River, died quite suddenly Sunday evening. We are not in possession of any of the particulars. Mr. John Hinton Ellis, an aged citizen of Durham, died yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock at the residence of his son in law, Mr. John J. Hall. He was one of Durham's oldest inhabitants. A party of small boys killed a horned snake near the reservoir Sunday evening. They were walking along the road when they saw it rolling toward them like a hoop. They thought some boy had rolled a hoop down the hill, when one of the boys picked up a rod and struck it. Finding out it was a snake they soon dispatched it. It measured about three feet.

Charlotte News: Perhaps the largest receipt of dry goods in the history of Charlotte, by any one house in any one day, was received to-day by the big wholesale house of S. Wittkowsky. No less than 50,000 pounds, filling nearly four cars. Gen. Joseph E. Johnston, one of the best officers in the Confederate army, whose men never tire of speaking his praise, was once a citizen of this place, and is personally known to many of our citizens. Anything concerning this grand old patriot is interesting. A recent Washington paper has this to say of him: Gen. Joseph E. Johnston is one of the best preserved of Washington's octogenarians. He has a fine, straight figure, and holds himself erect, sitting or standing, riding or walking. He dresses in the latest fashion, and with scrupulous neatness. He is a great walker, and tramps all over the Capital, riding very seldom, except in rainy weather. Gen. Johnston graduated from West Point No. 13 in the class of 1828, in which Robert E. Lee stood No. 2.

$500, or a Cure.
For many years the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, who are thoroughly responsible financially, as any one can easily ascertain by enquiry, have offered, through nearly every newspaper in the land, a standing reward of $500 for a case of chronic nasal catarrh, no matter how bad, or of how long standing, which they cannot cure. The Remedy is mild, soothing, cleansing, antiseptic, and healing. Sold by all druggists, at 50 cents.

Still on Deck.
EVERYBODY OF THE MALE PERSUASION visiting Wilmington during the Encampment is cordially invited to call and have a Shave, or a Shampoo, or a Haircut, at my establishment, 25 Market Street, between Front and Water. Only 10 cents for a Shave, 25 cents for a Shampoo, 30 cents for a Haircut, and 25 cents and upwards for Dyeing.

Sanford Express: Mr. W. T. Buchanan killed a blue heron here on Thursday. The distance between its wing tips was six feet.—Robert Huske, Esq., a prominent lawyer and highly esteemed citizen of Fayetteville, has lost his home for Wilmington, and from that city he wandered to Atlanta, Knoxville and Chattanooga. His family in Fayetteville heard that he was in Chattanooga and one of his brothers went there to bring him home. On Thursday he was carried home by the C. & Y. V. Railroad in a most pitiable condition. His family hope that mental hallucination is only temporary and that care and quiet at his home will restore him.

Scribner's Magazine
For 1889.
The publishers of SCRIBNER'S MAGAZINE aim to make it the most popular and enterprising of periodicals, while at all times preserving its high literary character. 25,000 new readers have been drawn to it during the past six months by the increased excellence of its contents (notably the Railway articles), and it closes its second year with a new impetus and an assured success. The illustrations will show some new effects, and nothing to make SCRIBNER'S MAGAZINE attractive and interesting will be neglected.
THE RAILWAY ARTICLES will be continued by several very striking papers; one especially interesting by Ex-Postmaster General Thomas L. James on "The Railway Postal Service."
MR. ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON'S serial novel "The Master of Ballantrae," will run through the greater part of the year.
A CORRESPONDENT and collection of manuscript memoirs relating to J. F. Millet and a famous group of modern French Painters will furnish the substance of several articles.
The brief end papers written last year by Robert Louis Stevenson, will be replaced by equally interesting contributions by different famous authors. Mr. Thomas Bailey Aldrich will write the first of them for the January number.
Many valuable LITERARY ARTICLES will appear in the form of Walter Scott's Method of Work, illustrated from original MSS., a second "Sheet of Old Books," by Mrs. James T. Fields, and many other articles equally noteworthy.
Articles on ART SUBJECTS will be a feature. Papers are arranged to appear by Clarence Cook, E. H. Blashfield, Austin Dobson and many others.
FISHING ARTICLES describing sport in the best fishing grounds will appear. Salmon, Winnish, Bass and Tarpon are the subjects now arranged. The authors are well known sportsmen.
ILLUSTRATED ARTICLES of great variety, touching upon all manner of subjects, travel, biography, description, etc., will appear, but not of the conventional commonplace sort.
Among the most interesting in the list of scientific papers for the year will be a remarkable article by Prof. John Trowbridge, upon papers upon ELECTRICITY in its most recent applications, by eminent authorities; a remarkable paper on DEEP MINING, and other interesting papers.
Unique Illustrations.
A SPECIAL OFFER to cover last year's numbers, which include all the Railway Articles, as follows:
A year's subscription (1889) and the numbers for 1888.....$4.50
A year's subscription (1889) and the numbers for 1888, bound in cloth.....6.00
