A telegram was received here today from Mt. Airy, relative to the condition of Mrs. Geo. Davis, and we regret to learn that she is very low, with no improvement perceptible.

The King's Daughters of Grace M. E. Church will give a lawn party next Tuesday evening at the residence of Rev. F. D. Swindell, southeast corner of Mulberry and Second streets.

Refreshing and Invigorating Delicious Soda Water as drawn from Mundy Brothers' magnificent new soda fountain at a temperature of 34°. Purest Fruit Syrup, Milk Shakes and Natural Mineral Water.

A heavy rainstorm, accompanied by considerable wind, visited this section at about 1 o'clock this morning. It rained then and it rained hard after daylight. The atmosphere has been much cooled thereby and the thermometer was only 86 at noon to-day.

To Dissip Colds. Headaches and Fevers, to cleanse the system effectually, yet gently, when costive or bilious, or when the blood is impure or sluggish, to permanently cure habitual constipation, to awaken the kidneys and liver to a healthy activity, without irritating or weakening them, use Syrup of Figs.

German at the Hammocks. There was a good attendance at the German given at the Island Beach Hotel last night. Mr. W. H. Northrop led and there were about twenty couples. Next Monday night Mr. Platt, the proprietor of the hotel, will give a full dress german, complimentary to the Misses Potter, who have been spending the summer at this pleasant resort.

For the Hair. A solution of chloral hydrate, five grains to the ounce of water, will clear the hair of dandruff, and prevent its falling out from that cause. If the patient is nearly bald from dandruff this solution will help the hair. Arnica oil is also an admirable remedy to promote the growth of hair. A small quantity well rubbed into the scalp three or four times a week can be tried with expectations of benefit. The above is from a recent medical journal.

They Can't Do It. One of our morning contemporaries says that "Mr. J. N. Moody, one of the directors of the Atlanta & Florida Railroad, arrived yesterday morning, and will join a merry party of friends on a cruise on the revenue cutter Colfax." There must be some mistake here. The Colfax is a government boat and is here for business, not pleasure. The revenue cutters are not allowed to take pleasure parties, at least, the Colfax could not take the Governor of the State of North Carolina down the river last summer. "Nothing less than a Cabinet officer need apply," ought to be displayed at the gang way of all Government vessels. Therefore, we don't see how Mr. Moody and "a merry party of friends" are going to take the contemplated "cruise" on the Colfax. Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure constipation, biliousness, sick headache, bilious headache, and all derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels. One a dose.

St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church. The services in St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, corner Market and Sixth street, Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, pastor, to-morrow, will be in German at 11 a. m. and at 8 p. m. in English. All are welcome at the services.

City Court. John Stewart was before the Mayor this morning, charged with disorderly conduct. He was found guilty and fined $5.

Two parties, charged with keeping unlicensed dogs, were each fined $5 and the costs, $3.15, amounting to $8.15 for each party.

Cotton Receipts. The receipts of cotton at this port for the week ended yesterday are 41 bales, as against 116 bales for the corresponding week last year. Receipts for the crop year to July 26th are 152,015 bales; to same date last year, 168,000; showing a decrease this season as compared with last year of 15,985 bales.

At Carolina Beach Yesterday. Yesterday was a gala day at Carolina Beach. It is estimated that in all at least one thousand persons were there during the day. A large number went down on the Grove and the Passport in the afternoon and helped to swell the crowd which had already gone down on the excursion given by the Sunday School of the Fifth Street M. E. Church. The Passport, which left here at 5 o'clock, had on her full complement. The attraction at the Beach during the day was the concert of the Germania Cornet Band, the first of the series they are to give there every Friday afternoon during the remainder of the season. The weather was charming, without rain, and the Band, verve and encouraged by the large number of those who had turned out to hear them, simply played as they had never played before. Each piece was rapturously applauded as it was rendered and for the Band it was simply an ovation. There are many who will look forward eagerly to the advent of next Friday, for it will bring another of the charming seaside concerts.

Drowned in the Cape Fear. A colored man, whose identity is not easily established, but who is said to have been named George Williams, and to hail from Fayetteville, was drowned yesterday afternoon, shortly after this paper was put to press. He was walking along the cap of the wharf at Josh Green's wood yard, foot of Dock street, where there was very little room to pass, and fell in and was drowned. Only two persons, so far as is known, saw him fall. He rose once and then sank out of sight finally. The schooner Minnie Ward was lying near at hand and some of the men on board got into a boat hanging at the stern of the vessel and went to the place where the unfortunate man was last seen, but were too late to save him. A large crowd was soon attracted to the spot and an attempt was made to recover the body, with drags and by diving, but without success. It has not yet been recovered.

Since the above was in type some other particulars have been obtained. The man's name was John Ballard and he hailed from Scott's Hill. He had been in the city for some time, in the employ of Capt. Skinner, and lived on Tenth street, between Market and Princess. He could not swim. At 4 o'clock to day the body had not been recovered.
