Harper's Bazar.

ILLUSTRATED.

HARPER'S BAZAR will continue to maintain its reputation as an unequalled family journal. Its art illustrations are of the highest order, its literature is of the choicest kind, and its fashion and household departments of the most practical and economical character. Its pattern-sheet supplements and fashion plates alone will save its readers ten times the cost of the subscription, and its articles on decorative art, social etiquette, house-keeping, cookery, etc., make it indispensable to every household. Its bright short stories and timely essays are among the best published; and no time is admitted to its columns that could offend the most fastidious taste. Among the contributors of the new volume will be serial stories by Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett, Mrs. Alexander, William Black and Thomas Hardy, and a series of papers on nursery management by Mrs. Christine Terhune Herrick.

The Daily Review.

JOSH. T. JAMES, Editor & Prop'r.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

MONDAY, AUGUST 12, 1889.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N.C., as second-class matter.

The Cincinnati Commercial Gazette having positively denied that Gen. Pickett led his charge at Gettysburg, and having proffered to show that he was somewhere else at the time, a citizen of Jacksonville addressed Gen. James Longstreet a letter of inquiry in the subject and received a reply, in which Gen. Longstreet says: "I will say that Gen. Pickett rode in advance of his division as it marched to the assault at Gettysburg on the 3d of July, 1863. When it became probable that his own troops would open fire he retired to his tactical position in rear of the division."

President Carnot, of France, is dreadfully stiff and correct in everything, rather, in short, too conscientiously gentleman like and too scrupulously well bred. Not having gone through the training of a constitutional sovereign, which enables the Prince of Wales to be indefatigable, he gets violent headaches and returns to the Elysee thoroughly tired out, where his wife awaits him, thoroughly enjoying the privileges of her position, skimming the cream of everything that is pleasant without any enforced duties; always gracious, always smiling, always beautifully dressed and never obliged to be tired, consequently much happier than any queen.

The list of colleges, universities and schools at which army officers are stationed for the purpose of furnishing military instructions to the pupils shows a widespread desire to take advantage of the provision made by the laws for this purpose. The last Congress increased the number of details allowed to sixty of which fifty were to be from the army and ten from the navy. The list as it stands for the new fiscal year shows that all the army details are taken up, or all but one, and by institutions of all grades, from the Maine State College and Sheffield Scientific School of Yale University, in New England, to the Texas Agricultural College, in the South, and the University of Nevada and the University of California, in the far West.

The New York Times says: "Congressman Cheadle, of Indiana, is credited with being the person who discovered and made known the scandalous doings in the pension bureau under Tanner's liberal policy. He found that the employees were impressed with the idea that the commissioner desired to have all applications passed favorably, regardless of the evidence by which they were supported. Medical opinions were ground out in favor of applicants without regard to facts, and Tanner approved them without examination to inquiry. The Congressman learned that certain attorneys were favored even to the extent of being allowed to designate the examiners who were to prepare opinions on claims which they presented. He got some inkling of the rater of employees of the office on each other's certificates. Finally, he laid the facts before the President, and his letter was referred to Secretary Noble, who pigeon holed it and let things go on until Dr. McMillan made his discoveries, which led to the secret preparation of whitewash."

Beauty's Dower.

Where grace and beauty most abound, The happiness will oft be found. Where ruby lips and glowing cheek The gift of rugged health bespeak, The artist, Nature's nobleman, Will risk the treasure of his art, Depicting, deftly as he can, The lines engraven on his heart. Fair maiden, may life's richest joy Spread her bright mantle over thee; May years but gently with you toy, And pleasures sweet, without alloy, With fairest blossoms cover thee; But should, perchance, thy beauty fade, Thou canst call quickly to thy aid Our Golden Medical Discovery.

Remember that Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a sure cure for all skin eruptions and diseases of the blood.

"Bound for Europe"—The tourists guide.

Advice to Mothers.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Twelve 6 deod&wly

Merit Wins

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. Robert R. Bellamy, wholesale and retail druggists.

AUGUST ANTICS.

Usually "uy in arms"—New babies.

Usually brought up in pen-ury—Pigs.

Always take alarm quickly—Fire bells.

On the mend when not ill—Shoemakers.

Makes the lives of many people miserable, and often leads to self destruction. We know of no remedy for dyspepsia more successful than Hood's Sarsaparilla. It acts gently, yet surely and efficiently, tones the stomach and other organs, removes that faint feeling, creates a good appetite, cures headache and refreshes the burdened mind. Give Hood's Sarsaparilla a fair trial. It will do you good.

A DUTY TO YOURSELF.

Fills a very high office.—The light house keeper.

HAPPINESS AND CONTENTMENT

Cannot go hand in hand if we look on the dark side of every little obstacle. Nothing will so darken life and make it a burden as Dyspepsia. Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure the worst form of Dyspepsia, Constipation and Indigestion, and make life a happiness and pleasure. Sold at 25 and 50 cents by Munds Bros., druggists.

SLOCUM, M.C., 181 Pearl St., New York.

Take Hood's Sarsaparilla 100 Doses One Dollar

The Chief Reason for the great success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is found in the article itself. It is merit that wins, and the fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla actually accomplishes what is claimed for it, is what has given to this medicine a popularity and sale greater than that of any other sarsaparilla or blood purifier before the public.

Merit Wins

Hood's Sarsaparilla cures Scrofula, Salt Rheum and all Humors, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Biliousness, overcomes that Tired Feeling, creates an Appetite, strengthens the Nerves, builds up the Whole System.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared by C. I. Hood & Co., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

MISCELLANEOUS.

PERD'S MILL, TEXAS, June 20, 1888.—The Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Ga.—Gentlemen: One of my children was troubled with rheumatism and boils for about two years. We gave her various kinds of medicine, but without profit, and began to despair of curing her at all. I was persuaded to try your Swift's Specific. After she had used several bottles the disease disappeared, and she is now a hale, hearty and healthy girl twelve years old. Another child has had become afflicted in the same way, and am using the S. S. S. and anticipate a prompt and permanent cure. N. C. WADSWORTH.

SCHIFF'S CURE, July 1, 1888.—The Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.—Gentlemen: Our little girl when but three weeks old broke out with eczema. We tried the prescriptions from several good doctors, but without any special benefit. We tried S. S. S. and by the time the bottle was done her skin began to heal, and by the time she had taken six bottles she was completely cured. Now she has a full and heavy head of hair, robust and hearty child. I feel it but my duty to make this statement. Respectfully, H. T. SMITH.

CHATELAIN'S CURE, June 9, 1888.—The Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.—Gentlemen: In 1887 I contracted blood poison, and at once sought a physician, who prescribed for several months. By his advice I went to Crab Orchard Springs, Ky., where his course of treatment gradually increased my strength, and I was advised to try S. S. S. and immediately after taking it I commenced to improve, slowly at first, but now rapidly afterwards, and soon nothing remained to tell of my trouble. My blood is now thoroughly cleansed, and my system free from taint, and I owe my present condition a perfect cure to your medicine. I cheerfully give this statement that I have never suffered as I have may reap the same benefit. HARRY M. BURT, M. D., West Ninth St., Houston, La.

HOMER, La., May 25, 1888.—The Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.—Gentlemen: About two years ago my general health gave way entirely. I was so debilitated that I almost despaired of ever feeling well again. All that the physicians done for me brought no permanent relief. I was carefully treated, and should give S. S. S. a fair trial, although I thought it would be throwing away money. After taking a thorough course, my health and strength returned, and I must say that S. S. S. alone cured me. I would not have others while using it. As a tonic I can most heartily recommend it; for general debility, it certainly is a specific. J. F. BARNES, J. F. HOMER, La. I know Mr. W. F. Bridges, and will say that his statement is correct. JOSEPH SULLOZ, Druggist.
