A Scrap of Paper Saves Her Life.

It was just an ordinary scrap of wrapping paper, but it saved her life. She was in the last stages of consumption, told by physicians that she was incurable and could live only a short time; she weighed less than seventy pounds. On a piece of wrapping paper she read of Dr. King's New Discovery, and got a sample bottle; it helped her, she bought another and grew better fast, continued its use and is now strong, healthy, rosy, plump, weighing 140 pounds. For fuller particulars send stamp to W.H. Cole, Drug gist, Fort Smith. Trial bottles of this wonderful Discovery free at Robt. R. Bellamy's wholesale and retail drug store.

A Sad Thing Happened.

I had been sitting in the shade of fence corner for a quarter of an New York Weekly Herald hour when a farmer same along with an ox team and invited me to ride with him. I was only fairly seated when he said:

"Sad thing happened back there about six months ago." "Indeed !"

"Yes; that 'ere blamed off ox shied at a paper in the road and run us into a ditch and tipped the wagon

"Never."

"Awful sad thing Haw there, Buck! She had two unmade dresses in the house, which were left on my hands. Guess I'll get shet of them, however—guess I will. Whoa, you yaller ox! Undertaker said we could scrape along with four handles to the coffin, but I told him to make 'em an even half dozen. Feller can't afford to be small about these things. Say, you know what belongs to manners, eh '?'

"Hope so."

Undertaker said we could scrape along with four handles to the coffin, but I told him to make 'em an even half dozen. Feller can't afford to be small about these things. Say, you know what belongs to manners, eh '?'

"Hope so."

"Guessed words have the most titantic war the world has ever seen.

The Herald's news-gathering machinery is unequalied. Its correspondents dot the half table globe Nothing can escape their vigit ance, and no expense is spared in spreading the results of their efforts before the Herald's readers.

ALL THE NEWS OF AMERICA will be found each week in the Herald, while its FOREIGN PARTMENT will contain a panorama of the Old orld flashed under the sea over the COMMERCIAL CABLES.

"I hope so."
"Guessed you did, even if you are afoot. I want to ask you how long a widower has to wait before taking another. There's no law. you know, but a sort of custom: Is it a year?"

"Some wait a year." ~
"And some only three or six months?"

"I've heard of a second marriage within a week or two."

"Too soon — a leetle too soon," he answered, as he stroked his thin whiskers. "Looks too sordid and grasping, you see. Neighbors would probably talk, too. Couldn't complain about six months, could they ?" "I should think not." "That's twenty four weeks or 168

"What! Your marriage?"
"That's it. Bin engaged five days now, and it's to come off next Wed nesday. Her name is Feebe. Awful hard to get up airly and keep hunting all day. Had my eye on herever since the day of the funeral, but you needn't mind termine but you know. Git up you lazy beasts! Say, I want to ask you lazy beasts! Say, I want to ask bout another thing.

"Well?" "Haven't got Martha any tombstone yet. Have to git one, won't I? "Why, yes."
"If I didn't they'd say I was sordid, wouldn't they?"

"They might."
"Would you put a lamb or a dove

"That's just as you feel."
"Has it got to read: 'Martha, the first and most beloved wife of Aaron Snyder ?"

"Not necessarily." "Kin I jist put on: 'Erected to the memory of Martha Snyder, who died April 22, 1888?" "Why, yes."

"And have it quietly taken out and set up, and not let on the other. I see. Nothing sordid about Feebe, but sich things grind, you know. Do you take the cross road? Wall, good day. Glad we met. Seem ed to me six months was long enough but kinder wanted an outside opinyırı. Had six handles, you remember; but the neighbors might call me sordid and shut us out on quilting bees and corn huskings."-N. Y.

CAUTION TO MOTHERS.

Every mother is cautioned against giving her child laudanum or paregoric; it creates an unnatural craving for stimulants which kills the mind or the child. Acker's Baby Soother is specially prepared to benefit children and cure their pains. It is harmless and contains no opium or morphine. Sold by Munds Bros., druggists.

Thomas A. Edison rarely sleeps more than four hours a day. The balance of his sleep he gets at night. He is a wonderful man.

Advice to Mothers.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the cnild from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, alfays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. The coming year promises to be crowded with stirring events.

In the United States the entrance of new issues into the political arens has been followed by a change of Administration. But the great economic question on which the campaign turned is still unsettled, and its solution is now committed to a Congress almost equally divided between the two great parties. Europe is a vast camp. Army corps patroi the frontiers, and millions of men await the signal for the most titantic war the world has ever seen.
