SATURDAY, SEPT. 21. 1889.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N.C. as second-class matter.

The London correspondent of the New York Sun says: "The latest Whitechapel horror is more of a mystery than any others that have occurred in that district. They have no clue to the woman's identity, no idea in what district the murder took place, nor how the remains were transported to the spot ly have? Little Johnnie-'Nuff to where they found. Conservatives. He has not always held this view. At Birmingham, four or five years ago, Lord Randolph showed an inclination to run into a siding over disestablishment, and it is not surprising, therefore, that the Conservatives are gratified at his return to the orthodox fold. Even his old critics, the Standard and St James' Gazette, have given him their benediction. Altogether Lord Randolph's speeches in Wales have put him more strictly into line with the Government than he has been for years past."

The New York Times says: The figures compiled at the pension bureau to show the work of the last fiscal year disclose that our army of pensioners had reached the prodigious number of 345,125 up to June 30, so that at the present time it must be about half a million strong at its recent rate of increase. Yet this does not satisfy Senator Ingails, who calls for making every man who served in the war a pensioner for life upon the Government, whether ill or well, rich or poor. It further appears that during the late fiscal year the payments for pen sionf had reached the extraordinary sum of $88,275,113, which was sev eral millions more than the amount, then unprecedented, of the twelve months preceding. When it is reflected that the war ended nearly names of hundreds of thousands of those who have once received pen sions have been dropped, the continued increase in disbursements is most extraordinary. A dozen years ago the total amount, required for pensions annually was between $27,-000,000 and $28,000,000 a year. Now more than three times as much is paid out; yet an outery is made for other legislation which would carry the payments to more than $100,-000,000 a year.

For Ladies Only. Ladies-why is it, that when your husband or your children are ill, you consult the best physician at once, care for them day and night, wear yourself out with sleepless watching, and never begrudge the heaviest doctor's bill, if only the dear ones are restored to health; while day after day, week after week, you endure that dull pain in your back—that terrible "draggingdown" sensation—and do absolutely nothing to effect a cure? In a few years you will be a helpless invalid, and soon your broken-hearted husband and motherless children will follow you to the grave. Perhaps delicacy prevents you consulting a physician—but even this is not necessity. physician-but even this is not necessary. She was confined to her bed for several years by this affliction, and could not help herself at all. She could not sleep from a violent itching and stinging of the skin. The disease baffled the skill of the physicians who treated it. Her husband began finally giving his wife Swift's Specific, and she commenced to improve almost immediately; and in a few weeks she was apparently well.
