Ex President and next President Grover Cleveland expresses himself as much pleased at the expressions of the various State Conventions held this Fall on the Tariff question.

And little Rhode Island says that if you listen intently you will hear something drop up that way next year. The Democrats in the little State say that they will go into the fight with their coats off and their sleeves up to the shoulder and they swear that they will get there.

"Gerald Massey" has just collected and published for the first time his productions, although a poet of middle life." Gerald Massey published his poems in book form nearly thirty five years ago. Ticks nor and Field issued an American edition in 1857.

The Philadelphia Press advises the New Jersey Democrats to "prepare for the best licking they ever got" and the New York Herald retorts by telling his neighbor that if he never dies until that event happens he will live so long that he will be able to address Methuseleh as "sonny."

The Durham Globe says that there is a fine of $10 for every man who throws a grape hull on the sidewalk in this city. Unfortunately, the Globe has been misinformed. There is no fine and no ordinance in the matter. We wish there were and so do the police authorities, for then they could act.

The attention of some of our young friends who contemplate matrimony is invited to the statement that Mrs. Hiram Snell, of Malad, Idaho, has given birth, at one accouchement, to six children, half and half, i. e., three boys and three girls. The six, however, weigh but eight pounds yet they are all bright and hearty and promise to live.

Some of those Democrats in Yankee land are getting extremely cheeky. Ex-Lieut Gov. Chauncey F. Black, who was the Democratic candidate for Governor in 1886, says that the party is going in surely to win this year and the next. There will be an election for Governor next year and the nomination will probably lie between Mr. Black and Ex-Senator Wallace. Here are some of Mr. Black's words. They voice the sublimest patriotism and the Democratic party can never go into a fight with an nobler declaration of principles. He says:

Democratic nominations in this State are not given to men because they personally want them, nor are they made by deals or combinations involving interest other than the interest of the party and the public.
Mr. Wallace and I agreed in public declarations in 1886 that no one morally fit for the great office of Governor would degrade it by personally soliciting delegates, or those who make delegates. Our ticket as well as our platform must appeal to the masses. We have no hope elsewhere, and to seek a furtive and dishonorable support from the monopolies or any part of them would simply bring us to utter and deserved ruin.

The Ladies Delighted.
The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasing to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet effectual in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels.

Knights Templar to Attend.
It is now reasonably certain that there will be a fair number of Knights Templar from this city to attend the grand encampment of the order in Washington City. It is thought at least fifteen members of the Commandery here will go, and perhaps more. Mr. Wm. H. Chadbourn has been appointed an aide on the staff of the Chief Marshal.
The party will probably leave Wilmington on the night of October 6th, so as to be on hand at the grand parade, which takes place on the 8th.

The Last of Earth.
The remains of Mrs. Maggie M.
Holladay, wife of Mr. W. W. Holladay and daughter of Mr. G. W. Williams, were interred yesterday afternoon in Oakdale Cemetery. The funeral services took place at St.
Andrew's church, Rev. P. H. Hoge, D. D., officiating. The pall bearers were Messrs. M. W. Divine, R. D.
Cronly, DuVal French, Kirkland Huske, F. H. Stedman, W. A. Dick, Walker Taylor, and D. C. Whitted.
A long procession of sorrowing relatives and friends followed the remains to their last resting beneath the quiet shades of Oakdale.

The Central Church Rally.

The grand rally at the Central

Weather Crop Bulletin.

The reports of correspondents of the Weekly Crop Bulletin, published by the North Carolina Experiment Station and State Weather Service, show that during the first part of the week ending Friday, September 20th, the rainfall, temperature and sunshine were all about the average with favorable effect on crops, except in the extreme northeast portion of the State and a few localities in the central part where there was an excess of rainfall.
The normal rainfall for this week in September is 1.15 inches. Elizabeth City, Pasquotank county, reported 3.25 inches in five days, which is 2.10 inches above the normal. Monroe, Union county, reported 2.20 inches in four days, 1.14 inches above the average. During the last part of the week a decided cool wave passed over the State, producing very light frosts Thursday and Friday mornings on low ground. During the last few days the rainfall has been about the average with an excess of sunshine. Cotton is generally maturing well and picking is progressing rapidly. Tobacco cutting and curing continues and has been nearly finished on some farms. Peas and potatoes a good crop. The prospects are encouraging in most sections of the State.

Cure Your Catarrh, or Get $500.

For many years the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, who are thoroughly responsible, financially, as any one can easily ascertain by proper enquiry, have offered, in good faith, through nearly every newspaper in the land, a standing reward of $500 for a case of nasal catarrh, no matter how bad or of how long standing, which they cannot cure. The Remedy, which is sold by druggists at only 50 cents, is mild, soothing, cleansing, antiseptic and healing.
