Contagious Blood Diseases.

There, sores, pimples, itch, salt rheum, etc., are evidences of contagious blood disease. It is manifestly a duty to eradicate blood poisons from the system by a use of B. B. B. Blood Balm, thus enabling the sore to heal, and thereby removing all possibility of other members of the family becoming likewise afflicted. Send to Blood Balm Co., 111 East 34th St., New York, N. Y., for bottles of B. B. B. Blood Balm. I had running sores on my shoulders and arms, one bottle B. B. B. cured me entirely. J. Johnson, Belmont Station, Miss., writes: "My head and body was covered with sores, and my hair came out, but B. B. B. healed me quickly." W. J. Kinnin, Hutchins, Texas, writes: "B. B. B. has cured my wife of a large ulcer on her leg that doctors and all other medicine could not cure." M. H. Rossman, a prominent merchant of Henderson, Ga., writes: "I know of several cases of blood disease speedily cured by B. B. B. Two bottles cured a lady of ugly scurfy skin sores." W. C. Birchmore & Co., Maxey, Ga., write: "B. B. B. in curing Mr. Robert Ward of blood poison effected one of the most wonderful cures that ever came to our knowledge."

Mr. and Mrs. Pembroke Jones, Mrs. Latimer, Mr. B. G. Emipie, Mr. H. Walters and Mr. D. M. Williams, the party of Wilmingtonians which left here early in the Summer for a tour of Europe, arrived in New York yesterday on the steamer Servia.

Death of Mr. Julius Samson.

Mr. Julius Samson, for many years a resident of this city, where he continued to own some valuable properties, but for some time past a resident of New York, died at his residence in that city, 111 East 34th street, on last Sunday morning, in the 70th year of his age. The interment was set for this morning. Mr. Samson was a merchant here forty years ago, when he was quite a young man, and for some years after the war conducted a large dry goods business here, first with a younger brother, Mr. H. Samson, and afterwards in his own name, with Mr. E. T. Draper as manager.

The State Fair. State Commissioner of Immigration P. M. Wilson, as Secretary of the State Agricultural Society, and Inter-State Commissioner of Immigration J. T. Patrick, as General Superintendent, are actively pushing the preparations for the next State Fair—October 10th to 19th. If these gentlemen are as successful in the management of the Fair as they have been and are now in their official work, the Fair will be a very large success. They deserve the confidence and support of the people at large, whose interest they serve in making the next State Fair an honor to the State and an attraction to the residents of other States.

Meteorological. The Signal Service observer, Mr. F. P. Chaffee, furnishes a summary of the weather at the Wilmington station during the month of September from which the following is taken:

Mean barometer for the month, 30.048 inches; highest 30.321, on the 28th; lowest, 29.704, on the 20th. Mean temperature, 71.87; highest, 87 degrees, on the 10th; lowest 48, on the 23d. Total deficiency in temperature during the month, 53 degrees; total deficiency since January 1st, 326 degrees. The prevailing direction of the wind was from the north, and the total movement 4,153 miles; the highest velocity of wind was 24 miles from the south and southwest on the 24th. The total rainfall was 3.18 inches; total deficiency in precipitation during the month 4.05 inches; total excess in precipitation since January 1st, 3.88 inches. There were 15 cloudless days, 7 partly cloudless, and 7 cloudy. No frosts.

Forecasts. For North Carolina, clearing and cooler, fair and much cooler on Wednesday and Thursday. For Wilmington and vicinity, fair weather.

Syrup of Figs. Produced from the laxative and nutritious juice of California figs, combined with the medicinal virtues of plants known to be most beneficial to the human system acts gently, on the kidneys, liver and bowels, effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds and headaches, and curing habitual constipation.

New Legal Licentiate. The Supreme Court has turned out quite a number of new lawyers. There were 28 applicants for license. Among the successful ones was our accomplished young friend, Mr. A. J. Marshall, who has been a student in the law office of Mr. Marsden Bellamy. Mr. Marshall will locate here for the present for the practice of his profession and his many friends wish him much success.

The Market Schedule. The Winter schedule for the markets went into effect to-day. During the Summer the hours have been from 4 a. m. to 12 m. and the markets were then closed for the day. Hereafter they will open at 4 a. m. and close at 11 a. m.; open at 4 p. m. and close at 7:30 p. m. On Saturday they will remain open all day, from 4 a. m. to 11 p. m. The hucksters will be required to vacate the streets to-morrow and take up with stalls in the markets.

Plenty of Partridges. Reports from the country indicate that there will be plenty of partridges this year. Fears had been entertained that the August floods had drowned out the majority of the young birds. No doubt many covies were exterminated but the fields are full of young birds. Mr. Wadsworth, of Charlotte, told the News that on his farm the old birds hatched two covies each, this year. He knows of one nest from which two separate covies were hatched. But all the same, young man, don't get out your gun until October 15th. It costs $10 for every bird killed before that time.

Rambles in Duplin. DEAR REVIEW—I left Kenausville on Monday for a few days trip in the country, of lower Duplin. On the evening of the same day I arrived at the residence of Mr. Thomas Batts, who is, by the way, a subscriber to the JOURNAL. After resting awhile Mr. Batts took me through his farm. He has one of the finest crops I have seen. Mr. Batts does not plant any cotton; his crop consists of corn, potatoes and rice, all of which are very good. Mr. Batts came to the place where he now is in the year 1880. He planted one field from which he gathered only 30 bushels of corn. Last year on the same field he gathered 80 bushels of corn. That shows what labor and perseverance can do. I arrived at Chinquepin Tuesday morning and repaired to the home of Mr. G. B. D. Parker and took dinner. After our appetites were satisfied I started for "Deep Bottom," arriving there at 5 p. m. I spent the night with Mr. J. L. James who, by the way, conducts one of the largest mercantile businesses in the lower portion of Duplin. Mr. James has in cultivation a 150 acre piece of corn which is very fine indeed. On Wednesday I left Mr. James hospitable home for Chinquepin. Reaching there I repaired again to the residence of Mr. Parker. He had just returned from Kinston with one of the prettiest pair of mules I have ever seen in this county. The price paid was $425; beyond a doubt it is the finest team I have ever seen. On Thursday morning I was on the road again en route for Beulahville (Snatchett). The crops along the route are good and especially corn; indeed they are above an average. The best cotton I have seen during my travels throughout the State is owned and cultivated by a young and energetic farmer, Mr. G. M. Houston, of Chinquepin. On Wednesday of last week I was at Chinquepin soliciting subscriptions for the JOURNAL. I went up to an old gentleman who resides near the line of Duplin and Onslow counties, and asked him if he would not like to take the WILMINGTON JOURNAL. He said: "What? the old JOURNAL, that was formerly edited by Filton & Price?" I answered yes, but now under the management of Mr. Josh. T. James. He says "I will take it. I was a subscriber to that paper when I volunteered in the Confederate army."

Triennial Convention. Rt. Rev. A. A. Watson, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese of East Carolina, Dr. A. J. DeRosset and Hon. A. M. Waddell, lay delegates from the diocese, left here yesterday for New York, to attend the Triennial Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, which assembles there to-morrow. Mrs. DeRosset was also of the party.

Harbor Master's Report. From the books of Capt. Jos. Price, Harbor Master, we get the following report of arrivals at this port during the month of September:

American—6 steamers, 5,072 tons, and 6 schooners, 1,460 tons; total, 12 vessels, 6,532 tons.

Foreign—3 steamers, 3,057 tons; 7 barques, 3,059 tons; total, 10 vessels, 6,216 tons.

Total arrivals, American and foreign, 22 vessels, aggregating 12,748 tons.

Death of Mrs. Agostini. We regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Maria E. Agostini, relict of the late F. M. Agostini. She died this morning, at 4 o'clock, at the family residence, corner Sixth and Dock streets. The funeral services will take place to-morrow morning at St. James' Church and the interment will be in Oakdale.

Mrs. Agostini was a truly noble and excellent lady. She was a sincere Christian and had long been a close communicant at St. James'. She was faithful in every trust and in every degree of life and the orphan children of her deceased husband, whom she raised as tenderly as if they had been her own, and who repaid her care with an almost reverential love have indeed lost one whose place can never be refilled on earth.

DIED. AGOSTINI.—At 4 a. m., October 1st, at her late residence, No. 19 South Sixth street, Mrs. MARIA E. AGOSTINI, widow of the late F. M. Agostini, Esq. Funeral from St. James' Church at 10 o'clock, October 2nd, thence to Oakdale Cemetery. Friends and acquaintances are invited to attend.
