Old Soldiers in Poor Houses.

Mr. Julian S. Carr, of Durham, has addressed a circular letter to the clerks of the court in every county in the State, requesting them to forward him a list of ex-Confederate soldiers in the poor houses. The Raleigh News and Observer thinks that it is evidently the intention of Mr. Carr to gather these unfortunates and put them in a house founded and maintained by himself

Oyster Roast at Wrightsville.

We took a ride down on the turnpike yesterday to Wrightsville, for the express purpose of sampling Mr. Stokley's oysters. We had heard of some new arrangements and im provements he had made there for the accommodation of his guests and we were not disappointed. His roasts are hard to beat-in fact they can't be beat. We have never had, in October, a better roast of fine oysters than was served us yesterday. Mr. Stokley, as will be seen by advertisement elsewhere, is now fully prepared to serve everybody, of short notice.

The Healthy Month of August.

August is generally the healthiest month of the year with us and September is not far behind. Dr. Pot. ter's report for New Hanover county, for the month of August, just issued in the September number of the Bulletin of the North Carolina Board of Health, bears this out. He says: "The county is in excellent says: The county is in excellent the charming Domestic Comedy Drama, by E. sanitary condition—no disease of J.
