A discovery referring to the iron age has been made at Gloppen, on the coast of Norway. A burial chamber twelve feet in length, and formed of stone slabs, has been uncovered, containing the remains of a man. Around the neck of the body was a cloak in perfect state of preservation which revealed wonderfully rich embroidery of images and animals. In the hands had been placed three interlaced wooden rings, resembling the well known puzzle rings, an object never before An epitome of everything that is attractive discovered in ancient graves. The cigarette bill recently passed by the Georgia Legislature has been signed by Gov. Gordon and is a law. The Macon Telegraph says the law, whether so intended or not, is a bar, in the opinion of good lawyers, to the sale of tobacco in any form to minors, it being declared that "it shall be unlawful for any person or persons, either by himself or themselves, to furnish, give or provide any minor with eigarettes, tobacco or cigarette paper, or any substitute therefor." Perhaps the author of the bill was making war only on the sale of cigarettes, and in his anxiety to prevent evasions of the law made its provisions broader than he intended.

Epoch.

The transition from long, linger ing and painful sickness to robust health marks an epoch in the life of the individual. Such a remarkable event is treasured in the memory and the agency whereby the good health has been attained is gratefully blessed. Hence it is that so much is heard in praise of Electric Bitters. So many feel they owe their restoration to health to the use of the Great Alterative and Tonic. If you are troubled with any disease of Kidneys, Liver or Stomach of long or short standing you will surely find relief by the use of Electric Bitters. Sold at 50c. and $1 per bottle at Robt. R.
