PLEASE NOTICE
We will be glad to receive communications from our friends on any and all subjects of general interest, but
The name of the writer must always be furnished to the Editor.
Communications must be written on but one side of the paper.
Personalities must be avoided.
And it is especially and particularly understood that the Editor does not always endorse the views of correspondents unless so stated in the editorial columns.

The ex priest, Boyle, was found guilty at Raleigh on Saturday night of an outrage on the person of Miss Geneva Whitaker and sentenced to be hung on the 29th of November. His counsel however took an appeal to the Supreme Court and as it is hardly probable that the case can come up at this term it is not likely that Boyle will hang before the early spring. The jury were out about two hours and a quarter. It is a righteous verdict.

W. T. Sherman never won a battle although he has risen to the highest rank in the army. He was whipped at Shiloh and he was completely surprised in the fight. Sherman says that he was not surprised; he said so at the time and he says so still. But, notwithstanding this doughty warrior's word, the surprise at Shiloh was complete and total. Gen. H. V. Boynton has an article in the latest number of Bedford's Magazine which conclusively proves this fact. There is no doubt that Sherman was caught napping and there is no doubt that he resorted to a very vulgar device in trying to get himself out of a scrape. The evidence Boynton presents is irrefutable. There was no alignment in the expectation of an attack; no knowledge of the fact that the Confederates were massed in his front at a distance of not more than a month and a half; no ammunition was distributed and there were no orders to issue any, no rations were cooked and the men went into the fight on empty stomachs; no field hospitals were ordered or arranged for and there has never yet been found a man to whom Sherman revealed his expectations of an attack. The Confederates rushed in and occupied the camp and captured Sherman's tent and his horses and his "bited" shirts. Before the attack he insulted some of his best and bravest officers by charging them with cowardice when they spoke of danger of an attack from the Confederates. In the face of all this Sherman said, and says, that he was not surprised at Shiloh. This reminds us of the late lamented Ike Young's advice to some of his party friends in this State during a campaign: "Lie like hell and stick to it."
N. B. Sherman says, too, that he didn't burn Columbia.

For biliousness, sick headache, indigestion, and constipation, there is no remedy equal to Dr. Pierce's Little Pellets. Purely vegetable. One a dose.

The Board of Aldermen, Board of County Commissioners and Board of Audit and Finance all meet this afternoon.

Mrs. H. Rehder offers for sale a large assortment of hyacinths and other kinds of bulbs, all direct imports. See ad.

Mr. J. A. Springer wants to purchase two good, large mules, for work in his coal and wood carts. See ad. in this issue.

Messrs. W. J. and Geo. W. Penny left this morning for the Northern markets to purchase winter stock of dry goods and clothing.

Are you weak and weary, overworked and tired? Hood's Sarsaparilla is just the medicine to purify your blood and give you strength.

For Rent.—Desirable Store corner Front and Mulberry Sts. Possession given at once. Enquire of I. Shrier, cor. Front and Princess. tf

Headquarters for Sash, Doors and Builders' Supplies is the N. Jacobi Hdq. Co. They sell the best goods at prices that you pay for those of an inferior quality.

Mr. James H. Chadbourne has returned to the city from a visit to his mother, at Springvale, Me., and we are glad to note the fact that he is looking improved in health thereby.

Business has been lively on our streets to day. The ladies were out in force and filled the stores. The Fall season has opened handsomely and the promise of a good trade was never better.

The Wilmington Cotton Factory is to be enlarged by the addition of another story, 50 x 70 feet.

British steamship Trojan cleared late Saturday afternoon for Liverpool, with 4,700 bales of cotton, valued at $244,800, shipped by Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son.

Look out for counterfeits! See that you get the genuine Salvation Oil! Do not let the dealer sell you some "just as good," but insist upon getting the genuine with the Bull's Head trade mark on the wrapper.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Carolina Central R. R. will be held in New York to-morrow and Capt. John H. Sharp, Secretary and Treasurer of the Company, left here on Saturday night to attend it.

The sale of unclaimed express freight remaining in the office in this city will take place at Messrs. Cronly & Morris' auction rooms, to-morrow morning. This "old house" sale always attracts a large crowd and there is generally a good deal of fun on such occasions.

This has been the coldest day of the season. The wind got around yesterday afternoon to the East and last night to the North and this morning was clear and cold, but with too much wind for frost. Considerable rain fell during the night.

Syrup of Figs.
Produced from the laxative and nutritious juice of California figs, combined with the medicinal virtues of plants known to be most beneficial to the human system, acts gently, on the kidneys, liver and bowels effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds and headaches, and curing habitual constipation.

Stoves. We have a very large line, made by the best factories, of the latest and most improved styles, which we guarantee to bake and cook well and to give general satisfaction. Our low prices will astonish and our Stoves please you. N. Jacobi Hdq. Co.

Klemmann and Thompson.
Mrs. Klemmann and Miss Thompson have set apart three days this week, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, as the three grand opening days of the beautiful stock of millinery and fancy goods in their new store on North Front street. The ladies will make a note of this fact. Miss Louise Goodwin, the accomplished milliner, will be on hand to give the ladies the benefit of her taste and experience.

The Grand Conclave.
The Knights Templar meet to-morrow in Washington City in triennial session. Those in attendance from this city are Mr. H. H. Munson, P. G. C.; Mr. E. S. Martin, G. C. G.; Mr. W. H. Chadbourne, Eminent Commander; Capt. W. R. Keuan, P. C.; Mr. James W. Monroe, Recorder; Mr. W. J. Smith, Mr. T. H. Johnson, Sentinel. Mr. W. W. Allen, Grand Generalissimo, and Mr. F. M. Knowles, who are members of the Wilmington Commandery, will unite with the party in Washington.

Weather Crop Bulletin
The reports of correspondents of the Weekly Crop Bulletin, published by the North Carolina Experiment Station and State Weather Service, show that during the week ending Friday, October the 4th, there was a deficiency of rain fall, an average temperature and very much sunshine. No rain fell excepting light showers on September 30th, and the sky had been nearly cloudless the entire week. Light frosts occurred again in the early part of the week but caused no damage. The nights have been cool with heavy dews while during the daytime the temperature has been normal. The large percentage of sunshine has caused the bolts in the cotton fields to open more rapidly, except on very large plants. Farmers are now busy gathering the staple, and the season has been very favorable for this important work. No complaint has reached the central office of damage done by the cotton caterpillars; dry weather seems somewhat to check their spreading. The corn crop is probably ripe enough to gather now in places. The prospects seem to be for continued fine weather and farmers are in good spirits.

Taylor's Bazar.
An elegant line of goods has been opened at Taylor's Bazar, embracing millinery goods of every description, Parisian novelties, French pattern hats and bonnets, notions, fancy goods, &c. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week are the days set apart as opening days in all of the departments, and on those days the ladies will be sure to turn out in large force to inspect the beautiful things to be displayed then.

Magazine of American History.
There are ten articles, all invested with human, popular and timely interest, in the handsome October Magazine of American History. The frontispiece is an excellent portrait of the late Samuel I. M. Barlow, accompanied with a charming poetical tribute from the distinguished author, George Ticknor Curtis; also a brief appreciative sketch of the great lawyer by the editor. "The Romantic Beginnings of Milwaukee" is singularly appetizing. Following it is an able and exhaustive study entitled "Georgia, The only Free Colony—How the Negro Came." Then comes "Kings, Presidents, and Governors of Georgia, 1732-1889," by Col. Charles C. Jones, Jr., LL.D., the accomplished historian of Georgia. Opportune at this moment is an interesting paper on "The Discovery of America by Columbus." "The Antiquity of the Tupper Family" is readable and instructive. "The Financial Condition of New York in 1832" includes a valuable letter written by J. Fenimore Cooper; "A Trip to Niagara in 1835—Miss Caroline Spencer's journal," gives delightfully bright views of the methods of travel and the sights to be seen in Western New York 54 years ago; and among the shorter articles is a clever tribute to Oliver Wendell Holmes on his 80th birthday. The various departments abound in riches, and it is altogether a notable issue. Price $5.00 a year. Published at 743 Broadway, New York City.

"I would not live away," said the Psalmist in a moment of poetic rapture. "I would not either," says Josh Billings, irreverently. So we say—but then while we do live, let us hold on to our health and spirits. The surest way to do this is to lay in a supply of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Try it.

Contagious Blood Diseases.
Chen, sores, pimples, itch, salt rheum,
etc., evidences of contagious blood disease,
it is manifestly a duty to eradicate blood poison from the system by a use of B. B. B.
(Oxalic Acid Balm), thus enabling the sore places to heal, and thereby removing all possibilities of other members of the family becoming likewise afflicted. Send to Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga., for book that will convince.
L. E. Outlaw, Mt. Olive, N. C., writes: "I had running sores on my shoulders and arms.
The bottle B. B. B. cured me entirely."
J. Johnson, Belmont Station, Miss., writes:
"B. B. B. has worked on me like a charm. My head and body was covered with sores, and my hair came out, but B. B. B. healed me quickly."
W. R. Kinlin, Hutchens, Texas, writes: "B.
B. B. cured my wife of a large ulcer on her leg that doctors and all other medicine
could not cure."
J. J. Rossman, a prominent merchant of New York, writes: "I know of several cases of blood disease speedily cured by B. B. B.
Two bottles cured a lady of ugly scrofulous sores."
W. C. Birchmore & Co., Maxey, Ga., write:
"B. B. B. in curing Mr. Robert Ward of blood poison effected one of the most wonderful cures that ever came to our knowledge."
