Laundry Ironing, Stoves are sold by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

We now have the best Pocket Scissor made. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Col. W. P. Canady arrived here last Saturday night from Washington City.

Shot, Cartridges, Loaded Shells and ammunition of all kinds for sale by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

You will find a nice assortment of Rifles at the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. Just the article to make your boy happy.

Heating Stoves of all kinds and sizes. We will give you substantial goods and low prices. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Do you suffer with catarrh? You can be cured if you take Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier. Sold by all druggists.

The remains of Mr. Joseph L. Barlow arrived here last night from Richmond, and will be interred to the family plot at Oakdale this evening.

The Knights Templar from this city, who have been in attendance at the Triennial Conclave at Washington City, all returned home on Saturday night.

Farmers will find that Salvation Oil is a sure remedy for frosted feet. All druggists keep it. It is sold for 25 cents a bottle.

See notice in this issue of the dates on which Gen. S. H. Manning, Sheriff of the county, will attend the various townships outside of the city for collecting the taxes for the year 1889.

Mrs. E. B. Wiggins left here on Saturday night for the Northern markets, where she will purchase a handsome line of millinery goods and will secure the services of a competent milliner who will return with her.

Mr. T. E. Wallace is in the city to-day. He will leave here to-night for Florence, where he goes to construct a macadamized road for the National Cemetery at that place. We hope that he may do the same thing for us here next Spring.

The sale of the stock in the Ladies' Emporium on Market street began to-day. Mr. A. G. McGirt, auctioneer, and will continue to-morrow. There was a large attendance to-day and the ladies were much pleased with the bargains they got.

They say that the skipjack, or blue fish, are biting "like dogs" now at Wrightsville Sound and in the channel at the Hammocks. Two gentlemen caught 60 there last Saturday and they had fine sport. It is fine fun pulling in the big skipjack.

Mr. W. M. Patten has opened a first-class bakery at No. 130 Market street, near Second. He will keep nothing but fresh goods, as he bakes every day. Mr. Patten is a son of Mr. William Patten, for so many years previous to the war the popular baker here. He has therefore been bred to the business.

Syrup of Figs.
Produced from the laxative and nutritious juice of California figs, combined with the medicinal virtues of plants known to be most beneficial to the human system, acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds and headaches, and curing habitual constipation.

The Arnold Boudoir Car
Rev. C. L. Arnold returned from New York on Saturday night. He has been North in the interest of the boudoir car patented by him and it is understood that the prospects are very favorable for its introduction at an early date on a large scale. Mr. Iredell Meares, who is also interested in the invention, accompanied him and will remain in New York for some days.

Capt. Jno. W. Harper arrived here to day with the steam tug Alex. Jones, from Norfolk. He went to Baltimore some weeks ago in tow of the hull of the burned schooner Vrooman and has since then towed the new gunboat Petrel from Baltimore to Portsmouth.

The joint mission service at St. John's Church last night was largely attended by the congregations of St. James', St. John's and St. Paul's. The rectors of these three churches were present. Mr. Arnold delivered a very effective discourse and Dr. Carmichael also spoke, but briefly.

There was a very large congregation yesterday morning in the First Presbyterian Church, at the first service held there in three months and since the improvements in the church were begun. There was also a large attendance at night. Dr. Hoge preached.

Rev. Dr. Holmes, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Savannah, Ga., occupied Dr. Pritchard's pulpit at the morning service at the First Baptist Church yesterday, and we understand that he preached a very able and scholarly sermon to a large congregation.

By a Wilmington Lady.
Mrs. P. L. Bridgers, of this city, has received letters patent for an admirable invention designed by her. It consists of a grate cornice designed to protect mantels from burning or being injured by fires kindled in grates; both the tops and sides. It can be made of polished brass or nickel, and is adjustable, so as to fit any grate, and is both ornamental and useful.

Peterson's Magazine.
Peterson for November is a handsome Thanksgiving number. Howard Seely, one of the most popular among our younger writers, contributes a capital story, "A Thanksgiving in the Southwest," and Miss Elizabeth Phipps Train, a beautiful tale of "Hallowe'en"; Minna Irving has a lovely lyric, "The Cricket in the Night," and Mrs. Marion E. Pickering, a charming poem suited to the season. The needlework department offers the most varied designs for holiday presents. Next year "Peterson" will be more desirable than ever with its new cover, new type, and other fresh attractions. Our lady readers cannot do better than to subscribe for 1890. Terms: $3.00 a year, with greatly reduced rates to clubs. Address, Peterson's Magazine, Philadelphia. Trains on the Twentieth.

It is said now that the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. between this city and Black River will be open for traffic by the 20th, next Sunday. This is unofficial but the statement is generally accepted as a fact. Col. Gray found on his trip over it last Saturday that the road was in good condition and saw no reason why it should not be opened at once for travel and freight so far as constructed, which is some thirty miles beyond the city. The only drawback seems to be the fact that the transfer steamer is not yet here. It is hoped, however, that the boat will be here in time to open the road at the date mentioned. She is now under construction at Wilmington, Del., and will be commanded by Capt. Smith. She is so far completed that in a few days she will be ready to leave for this port and a crew will leave here to-morrow to bring her out. This crew will consist of Capt. W. A. Snell, pilot, C. W. Anderson, mate, Charles Lindquist, engineer, and Thomas Taylor, fireman, some of whom will be retained regularly in the employ of the company on the boat.

Dirt, Debt and the Devil.
A distinguished divine calls those three D's, Dirt, Debt and the Devil, an unmatched trinity of evil. If a man would be happy, he must avoid all three, and as studiously keep clear of Disease—another D you perceive. This calls to mind still another D: a "G. M. D."; in fact, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the unfailing remedy for consumption (which is lung-scrofula), in its early stages, as well as for chronic catarrh in the head, and bronchial, throat and lung affections generally. It is a nutritive, tonic and blood-purifier, and builds up the strength and flesh of those who are reduced below the usual standard of health in a most marvelous way. It allays irritation and subdues the worst lingering coughs. Guaranteed to benefit or cure in all diseases for which it is recommended, or money paid for it returned.

Is it Mattress, Matras or Matrass?

Our friend, Mr. W. M. Cumming, of the Mattress Factory, says he hears educated people pronounce the name of this kind of bedding in so many different ways that he is getting anxious to know which is right. He calls the word "MATTRESS"; and authorizes us to OFFER for him a PRIZE to the one who will first show him a good authority for any other spelling or pronunciation. The PRIZE is to be given in this way: A REDUCTION OF 10 PER CENT. from his regular prices to the one first SENDING in the information desired on any order for goods in his line which shall accompany information. This is a liberal offer and should be taken up.

TAYLOR'S BAZAAR.

At no period in our career have we shown a disposition to make our way through Commercial Life, tramping on the corns of competition. If, therefore, the prices about to be quoted should cause consternation in the ranks of the Millinery Trade, such is not our desire, much less our endeavor.
Our aim has always been, and will continue to be, not to discourage and vanquish our rivals, but to attract and delight the people, and delighted they must certainly be if advantage be taken of the values now offered.
Like the steamship in mid-ocean, we are always on the lookout, and although it has been said we want the earth, our lookouts do not strain their eyes for land, but for Bargains. When unusual opportunities for Bargains turn up we are the first to seize them. To-day we have the pleasure in announcing an extraordinary purchase of Hats, Flowers, Wings, Birds, Tips, Plumes, Ribbons, Velvets and Silks.
HATS—Sixty-five cents for a fine Felt Hat in all the leading Shapes and Colors, sold every where for $1.00. One thirty-nine for the finest Felt Hats in all the leading Shapes and Colors, Silk Bound, sold everywhere for $2.25. One nineteen for Children's Felt Hats, all ready trimmed and ready to wear, sold everywhere at $1.63.
FRAMES—Nine cents for Bonnet and Hat Frames in all the leading Shapes, sold everywhere at 25 cents.
WINGS—Ten cents each in all Colors, worth 20 cents. Fifteen cents each in all Colors, worth 25 cents.
FLOWERS—Fifteen cents for a fine Spray, worth 40 cents.
BIRDS—Forty-eight cents each, fully worth 98 cents.
TIPS—Thirty-nine cents for three in a Bunch, all Colors, worth 65 cents. Forty-eight cents for three in a Bunch, desirable Shades, worth $1.00.
PLUMES—From fifty cents up.
RIBBONS—Silk and Velvet Ribbons in all widths and colors at prices not to be found in the city.
VELVETS—Seventy-three cents a yard for 18-inch Silk Velvets, in Colors and Black, worth $1.23 per yard.
SILKS—Thirty-three cents a yard for Surah Silks, in all Colors, worth 75 cents per yard. Thirty-nine cents a yard for Black Gros Grain Dress Silks, worth 79 cents per yard. Sixty-five cents a yard for Black Silk Rhadames, worth $1.00 per yard.
In fact every thing in every Department equally low.
Ladies will please give their orders in at the beginning of the week so that to get them all out in time, as we are overcrowded with orders.
A call will convince you of the above at
