WILMINGTON, N. C.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1889. Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N.C.,

The New York Cotton Exchange have raised their fines for disorderly conduct from one dollar to one hundred dollars. Under the old rules a member could punch another member's head and get off sometimes for fifty cents, but now such action can only be included in by the wealthiest members of the Exchange.

Mr. W. II. Smith, the leader of the British House of Commons, has recently built a new church at Portsea at a cost of more than $110,000. He has no interest in the place whatever; but happening to visit it for a day on Government business, he noticed that it greatly needed a new church. Forthwith he sent for the vicar and set the work in progress, and until a few days ago no one but 'Old Morality" is Madame Tkatcheff declares that Russia's factory operatives, male and female, sleep in the mills and cannot afford to buy leather shoes. Paper serves for stockings, and shoes are of wood. Shocking immorality prevails. The Russian allows children under 15 to work eight hours per day if they attend s hool three hours. Children cannot be employed in thirty six dannight. Where over one hundred to every part of the system. Try it. persons are employed medical attendance must be provided.

When Stanley arrives on the Zans

zibar coast, says the New York Times, he will learn that the de cline of British influence there. which he pointed out and lamented when he visited that region to prepare for his Emin Bey relief expedition, has not only been checked, but to a large extent repaired. The Sultan has made such concessions by Munds Bios. to the British East Africa Company at Lamu and North of it that the German East Africa Company is demanding compensation. The concessions include the full governworld. Among the attractions for 1889 will be a new novel—an American story, entitled "Jupiter Lights"—by Constance F. Woolson; iliustrations of Shakespeare's Comedes by E. A. Abbeyra series of articles on Russia, illustrated by T. De Thulstrup; papers on the Dominion of Canada and a characteristic serial by Charles Dudley Warner; three "Norwegian stadies,"by Biornstjerno Biornson, illustrated; "Commodus," a historical play by the author of "Ben-Hur," illustrated by J. R. Weguelin, etc. The Editorial Départments are conducted by George William Curtis, William Dean Howells and Charles Dudley Warner. Dr. Peters was auxious to make his druggists. movement for the rescue of Emin; but apparently the would-be rescuers have "soured on" the brave Governor, for the Germans suggest that he has been engaged, by Stanley to act as equatorial agent for the British Company in establishing a line of traffic between the Numbers for June and December of each year When no time is specified, subscriptions will be admitted that Stanley's Congo, together with the fact that Sir W. Mackinnon, who is a chief figure in the British East Africa Company, was also one of the strongest backers of Stanley's expedition, gives some color of plausibility to the German surmise. At all events, the acquisition of Lamu, the merce of the river Tana, is a suc cessful stroke.

Dirt, Debt and the Devil.

A distinguished divine calls those three D's, Dirt, Debt and the Devil, an unmatched trinity of evil. If a man would be happy, he must avoid all three, and as studiously keep clear of Disease—another D you per-ceive. This calls to mind still another D: a "G. M. D."; in fact, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the unfailing remedy for consumption (which is lung-scrofula), in its early stages, as well as for chronic catarrh in the head, and bronchial, throat and lung affections generally. It is a nutritive, tonic and blood-purifier, and builds up the strength and flesh of those who are reduced below the usual standard of health in a most marvelous way. It allays irritation and subdues the worst lingering coughs. Guaranteed to benefit or cure in all diseases for which it is recommended, or money paid for it returned.

The man that has lived for himself has the privilege of being his own monrner.
