Inherited Blood Poison.
How many people there are whose distress from sores, aches, pains and eruptive tendencies are due to inherited blood poison.
It had passed from parent to child, and it is the duty of husband and wife to keep their blood pure. This is easily accomplished by a timely use of B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm), sent to Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, for book of most convincing proof.
James Hill, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "My two sons were afflicted with blood poison, which doctors said was hereditary. They both broke out in sores and eruptions which B. B. B. I promptly controlled and finally cured completely."
Mrs. S. M. Williams, Sandy, Texas, writes:
"My three poor afflicted children, who inherited blood poison, have improved rapidly after a use of B. B. B. It is a Godsend."
J. R. Wilson, Jlen Alpine Station, N. C., Oct. 18, 1889, writes: "Bone and blood poison had to have my leg amputated, and on the stump there came a large ulcer, which grew worse every day until doctors gave me up to die. I only weighed 120 pounds when I began to take B. B. B., and 12 bottles increased my weight to 180 pounds and made me sound and well. I never knew what good health was before."

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL XIII, WILMINGTON, N. C. SATURDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1889. NO 254.

Beaugard, near 75 years old and snowy, carries himself twenty years younger.
The knobliest thing out among the street thieves in New York is stealing the door knobs and door plates from residences.

The French are now able to put in the field seven armies of a total strength of 1,300,000 men, equipped for a long campaign, and supported by an ample reserve. This is five times the force that Napoleon III could muster in 1870.

The New York Herald sizes up Mahone very nicely when he says that he is engaged in the rascally attempt to aggray one race against another. Mahone makes no secret of his contempt for the negro and yet they will vote for him.

Subscription lists for the big fair have been opened in New York and the money is coming in with a grand rush—a sort of hop, skip and a jump, as it were. On the first day $300,000 was booked by four parties. In addition to this nearly as much had been previously subscribed, informally. The committee want to raise $5,000,000 and they will do it.

There is a movement in Richmond, which is fast assuming form, to discard colored, help and employ white labor. It is proposed to import this latter. There are lots of poor white people in Richmond who are too proud to go into service. The same thing is true of Wilmington. It is a false pride, however. There is no degradation in honest labor. The necessity for it is an accident that may be overcome by pluck and industry.

The Supreme Court of Iowa has recently handed down a decision to the effect that a juror would not be disqualified though he had read all the newspaper reports of a case, and though these reports may have made a certain impression upon him, if he should swear that he would be capable of rendering an impartial verdict on the evidence. This precedent, if established everywhere, would remove a formidable obstruction to the securing of intelligent juries.

The Democrats in Montana are not idle. They do not propose to have the election stolen from them and it will not be done. Per contra, some of the intending thieves will find themselves in more trouble than they counted on at the outset. The grand jury will have something to say. The New York Herald special says:

A prominent Butte republican and business man whose name the democrats refuse to reveal went to the railroad camp of Wash, Nugent & Co., a week ago, and being a personal friend of Mr. Nugent, he inquired how business was and then said: "I can put you on to a scheme whereby you can make more money than by contracting and easier. You are a republican. Some of those employed by you may have voted the democratic ticket at the Tunnel precinct, but the republicans have fully determined that the precinct shall be thrown out. It can't be done without the help of some of the men in this camp. We want some affidavits from voters in this precinct claiming fraud by the democrats. If you will give us these affidavits we will give you anywhere between $1,000 and $3,000."
Mr. Nugent refused the offer, ordering his visitor out of the camp, and the democrats have his affidavit to the above statement. In addition the democrats have affidavits from others who were offered money under the same conditions. The best affidavits the democrats have come from the men with whose sworn statements the canvassers threw out the precinct. They show that Barnard and Jones, the republican managers, obtained from four Swedes, who were unable to read or write, affidavits to the effect that they had voted the democratic ticket; that Barnard and Jones had changed the statement to make it read "voted the straight republican ticket."

One of the affidavits presented to the canvassers was signed by William Brown. No such man was registered at the Tunnel precinct, no such man voted there and no man can be found who made such an affidavit. The evidence against the republican conspirators now in the hands of the democrats will be turned over to the Silver-Bow county Grand Jury.
"We have met the enemy and they are ours," said Commodore Perry, thus telling the story of the battle of Lake Erie. And it is also a fact that Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is no sooner used than the cold is conquered and the cough disappears.

A notable decrease has taken place in the British convict population. In July last the total number in custody under sentence of penal servitude had dropped to 6,405, as compared with 11,060 twenty years ago. The number of women sentenced to penal servitude has fallen very much below even recent years, the number in 1888 being 57, and in 1883, 186. The whole number of women in England and Wales now under sentence of penal servitude is only 402, or less than a third of the daily average female convict population of ten years ago.

It would be interesting to know how many pensions are paid to day to parties who are not legally entitled to them. The system is evidently rotten "from maintruck to keelson." We have not one word to say against pensioning those whose honorable wounds entitle them to relief but there are probably a great number of cases where fraudulent pensions are paid. We see an instance stated of a woman who is drawing a pension as a widow while her husband is still alive. Application at the Pension Office for information on this point was flatly refused, the natural inference being, therefore, that it is a true bill.

The blood is the source of health. Keep it pure by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which is peculiar in its curative power.

Forecasts. For North Carolina, rain and stationary temperature. For Wilmington and vicinity, rains.

Children Enjoy. The pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effects of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative and if the father or mother be costive or bilious the most gratifying results follow its use, so that it is the best family remedy known and every family should have a bottle.

By Thanksgiving Day. Things are being pushed forward at a rapid rate now in getting everything ready for opening the Purcell House. It is thought that the building will be ready for taking in furniture next week and Mr. Roder hopes now to be able to have everything ready by Thanksgiving Day, so as to make a big spread on that occasion.

The Fowler B. B. Club. The Fowler Base Ball Club returned to the city last night from the fair at Raleigh and Goldsboro. On account of the bad weather only one game was played in Raleigh, resulting in a score of 5 to 5. But one game also was played in Goldsboro and this resulted in a complete victory for the Fowlers, the score standing 13 to 0.

The Christian Association Meeting. The Christian Association of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church will hold its annual meeting at 5.30 p. m. to-morrow (Sunday) in Luther Memorial Building. This vigorous and successful body is to elect its officers for the next year and also to consider some matters of special importance and it is therefore earnestly desired that all the members be present.

Grand Lecture in Prospect. The Christian Association of the Lutheran Church has made arrangements to have the Rev. T. W. Conrad, D. D., of Philadelphia, one of the most distinguished and eloquent Lutheran divines in this country and editor of The Lutheran Observer, the oldest, largest, ablest and most widely circulated English Lutheran paper published, to lecture in our city soon. He has signified his willingness to do so. All arrangements have been perfected except the announcement of the date. This will soon be made, however.

Mayor Fowler in Raleigh. Yesterday's Raleigh News and Observer says: "We were glad to meet in this city yesterday Mayor Fowler, of Wilmington. He is the progressive mayor of a progressive city. He informs us that Wilmington is making arrangements to put in a first class sewerage system and he is here for the purpose of examining the Raleigh system now being constructed. Mayor Fowler, in company with Prof. Ludlow, inspected our system yesterday."

There is something, we think, a little too previous in this. A really complete system of sewerage would cost, we understand, something like $100,000. This money can be had only by increasing the already large debt of the city and on a vote of the people and we do not think that the taxpayers here are willing to assume any more burdens just now.

Do you think the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy would offer, as they have done for many years, a standing reward of $500 for a case of Catarrh which they cannot cure, if they did not positively know that the Remedy will absolutely and permanently cure Catarrh. Sold by druggists, at only 50 cents.

A Cold Wave Coming. We have had some bad weather to-day. It began to rain early this forenoon and there was almost a steady downpour up to 2 o'clock. The streets were flooded and those who were compelled to be out found it exceedingly unpleasant. It is probable that it will clear off to-night and the rain will be superadded to-morrow or Monday by a cold wave which is now slowly advancing from the Northwest.

Three Trains Each Day. The new schedule on the Carolina Central R. R. goes into effect on Monday next. There will then be three passenger trains on that road each day and each way. The new train will consist of the through local freight mentioned by us previously. It will carry passenger coaches and will leave Wilmington at 4 a. m., arriving at Charlotte at 8.30 p. m. This new schedule will prove a great convenience to the mercantile public as well as to local travel.

We were pleased to receive a visit this afternoon from Mr. C. A. Strangmann, Secretary and Treasurer of the Robert Porter Brewing Co., whose presence in the city we have already spoken of.
