Inherited Blood Poison.
How many people there are whose distress troubles, aches, pains and eruptions, tentations are due to inherited blood poison.
Blood passes from parent to child, and it is therefore the duty of husband and wife to keep their blood pure. This is easily accomplished by a timely use of B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm). Send to Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, for book of most convincing proof.
James Hill, Atlanta, Ga. writes: "My two sons were afflicted with blood poison, which doctors said was hereditary. They both broke out in sores and eruptions which B. B. B. I promptly controlled and finally cured completely."
Mrs. S. M. Williams, Sandy, Texas, writes:
"My three poor afflicted children, who inherited blood poison, have improved rapidly after use of B. B. B. It is a Godsend." J. R. Wilson, Glen Alpine Station, N. C., with 18, 1865, writes: "Bone and blood poison nearly cost me my life. I was nearly blind, and my legs were so swollen that I could not walk. I only weighed 120 pounds when I began to take B. B. B., and 12 bottles increased my weight to 180 pounds and made me sound and well. I never knew what good health was before."

were no takers.

Advertise Your Business.
The business man who refuses to advertise because times are hard commits a very great mistake. When times are hard and money scarce, the man who has cash to pay looks out for bargains, and the best way to catch him is to advertise cheap goods. If you have bargains to offer this is the very time, above all others, to let cash buyers know it.

City Court.

Mayor Fowler disposed of the following cases to-day:

Isabella McGuire, colored, disorderly conduct, guilty, $5 and costs.

Wm. Ross, colored, assault with of $100 justified bond.

Kate Brown, colored, disorderly conduct, not guilty, discharged.

Meares, H. H. McIlhenny, W. G.
Pulliam, Duval French.

Leader—E. P. Boatwright.
The second Wednesday in each month is the time selected for germans to be given by the club.

The Merchants' Carnival.

To-morrow, (Thursday) 8 p. m.
"The Merchants' Carnival," under the auspices of the ladies of the Lutheran Church, will be given in the Opera House. It promises to be a very interesting and enjoyable occasion, and is something entirely new for Wilmington. Everything these ladies have yet appeared before the public with has won words of praise and so no doubt will be the case to-morrow night.

The variety of composition, the different speakers, their style, voice and recitation, the music by the Germania Band and singing by the favorite, popular singer, Miss Minna Schwarz, will all be not only attractive but also enjoyable.

The reserved seats have been rapidly sold. The price of admission is only 25 cents, to any part of the house and 35 cents for reserved seats. We trust that these enterprising ladies, who every now and then give our city entertainments that are not only elevating and instructive, but also an honor to our town, in developing talent, will be greeted by a large audience.

The tickets are on sale at Mr.
Yates'. To see the schemes of advertisements in dress is alone worth the price of admission.

Y. M. C. A. Week of Prayer.

The second week in November has, since, 1886, been appointed each year as a week of prayer by the Y. M. C. Associations throughout the world. In accordance with this custom the local Association has been making preparations for this season by a series of special meetings, which were led by prominent business men. This series closed last night with a meeting conducted by Capt. J. S. Allen.

Next Tuesday, the meeting will be conducted by Rev. P. H. Hoge, D.
D., the topic being "Christ as a Young man." On the following Sunday, the programme of the week of prayer will begin. The leaders and topics are given below.

Sunday, November 10, 5.30 p. m., Rev. W. S. Creasy, "Met on the Way" Acts xxii: 6-11.

Monday, November 11, 8 p. m., Rev. T. H. Pritchard, D. D.,
"Strangers made Citizens." Eph. ii: 12-19.

Tuesday, November 12, 8 p. m., Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, "How to get Rich?" Matt. vi: 19, 20; Rev. iii: 18.

Wednesday, November 13, Rev. C.
L. Arnold, "One Thing that is Everything." Mark x: 17-22.

Thursday, November 14, Rev.
Robert Strange, "An Opening to Great Advantages." John x: 7-9.

Friday, November 15, Rev. J. W.
Primrose, "The Best Walk." Gen.
v: 21-24; Heb. xi: 5.

Saturday, November 16, Rev. R.
C. Beaman, "Two Things that Must go Together." Rev. v: 8-13.

The music will be in charge of Mr. C. H. Robinson; E. H. Munson, organist. The meetings will be held in the Association Rooms.

"And every shepherd tells his tale under the hawthorn in the dale" and on such occasions every shepherd takes cold, and suffers tortures with neuralgia and all other sensible, well-informed citizens advise her to use Salvation Oil.

Forecasts.

For North Carolina, fair weather, followed by light rain in the western portion. For Wilmington and vicinity, fair weather.

Children Enjoy

The pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effects of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative, and if the father or mother be costive or bilious the most gratifying results follow its use, so that it is the best family remedy known and every family should have a bottle.

The Last of the Cargo.

The Newbern Journal says: When the steamship Pioneer was wrecked near Ocracoke numerous and various articles of merchandise were scattered along the shore. The residents made considerable "fat" on these things. But the Captain got the scattered freight together, as much as could be found, and was going to have a sale. Just before the sale, though, the men who had been employed to collect the articles demanded exorbitant pay for their services. The Captain refused to pay them unreasonable prices, and the men declared that the goods should not be sold. While the matter was still in dispute, on Wednesday night a storm came and washed away the goods, which were piled on the shore. The storm made short work of the whole matter.

Arrived Last Night.

The steamer Compton, the new transfer boat of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad Co., arrived here last night in good trim, under command of Capt. Jas. C. Smith, who will remain in charge of her.
Capt. W. A. Snell was the pilot who brought her out and Mr. Charles Lindquist was the engineer. The trip was made partly outside and partly by inland water ways. Some very severe weather prevailed during the time occupied in the trip but the steamer was at anchor in the Sound and not exposed to its fury.

The steamer is a screw-propeller of 108 tons, gross, and 53 tons net; iron hull, 85 feet long, 24 feet beam, draught 7 1/2 feet. She has a saloon on the main deck, finished in hard wood. Her machinery is one condensing engine, 22 inches diameter, 34 inch stroke, one return tubular steel boiler, of 80 pounds pressure.

Some Bears and Some Snakes.

From Ex-Sheriff Taylor, who has just returned from an extensive visit to Brunswick and Columbus counties, we get some excellent items. He tells us that the corn crops in the lower part of these counties are what may be called "extra good," but that cotton is very "sorry." The hog cholera is playing havoc in the Waccamaw section. As if this was not enough the bears are emerging from Green Swamp and are destroying many hogs. Henry Marlow, colored, recently met three bears in the road and willingly granted them the right of way, "allege samee lail load company." He notified the neighbors and a band was organized and pursuit was made. Two of the three bears were tracked and killed.
Mr. Greenbury Edwards also found the haunts of a large bear and when Sheriff Taylor left that section a party of hunters were in pursuit of him. In the "Honey Island" the bears are so troublesome that the people are compelled to lay traps and destroy them. They put arsenic in honey, which it is said the bears are very fond of, and in this way destroy them.

Mr. Samuel Hughes, living near Piaway Ferry, has some tame geese, which were once wild, and a few days ago two wild geese, in flying over heard them, and stopped with them. Mr. Hughes managed to kill one, while the other remained, apparently perfectly contented.

A few days ago, in the overflow in Columbus county, a large rattlesnake, over 8 feet long, was killed, when over 100 small rattles, six inches long, crawled out of its mouth and those who were there have the cheek to say that it was not a good day for snakes.
