

THE DAILY REVIEW

VOL XIII. WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1889. NO 258.

Gen. Mahone does not weigh more than 105 pounds. Mrs. Mahone, however, tips the beam at 235. She has borne him triplets twice.

Ex Secretary of the Navy Rife, son was recently beaten for a petty local office in the gift of the Board of Aldermen of Trenton, N. J., that paid only $1,500 a year.

A Washington lady recently purchased by Winchester a mahogany sideboard over one hundred years old, and shipped it to the wife of Ex President Cleveland for a present.

George Grouchy, a Lawrence, Mass., salesman, who saved a drowning merchant at Nantasket Beach last summer, has received from the merchant a check for $100 and a note for $5,000, due when he shall become of age—a few months hence.

Miss Addie Hamilton, just appointed a notary public in Washington by the President, it is said, is the second of her sex ever appointed to a similar position in Washington, the other lady being Miss Emma Gilletty. The appointment of a lady as a notary public is of common occurrence in New York and in many Western cities.

The growth of the organization known as the Christian Endeavor Society is phenomenal. Three years ago last July there were 1,400 members in New York State, and about 50,000 in the world; a year ago there were in all 310,000 members, of whom 58,000 lived in New York; to day there are 500,000 Christian Endeavorers, and New York heads the list with 80,000 names, three-fourths of whom are church members.

The Archbishop of Canterbury lately addressed a letter to each Convention of the principal "Non-conformists," the Baptists and Congregationalists, urging a closer union between them and the Established Church; but in each case his overtures were repelled. The fact of establishment is one of the serious obstructions to the Nonconformist mind, and also the standing of superiority enjoyed by the English priests in their relations with their parishes.

The most profitable book ever printed, at least in this country, was Webster's Spelling Book. More than 50,000,000 copies of this production have been issued, and could Dr. Webster and his heirs have enjoyed the royalties from it they would have found it more valuable than the cave of Monte Christo. Yet Dr. Webster wrote it that he might procure the means to support himself while engaged in other work, notably his dictionary, which was really an elaboration of the spelling book.

The discovery has been made that fraudulent tickets are in circulation in Northwestern Ohio. The tickets were sent into Ohio from Detroit, and first appeared in the Toledo Senatorial district. They have been skillfully prepared with the intention of defeating some of the candidates for the Legislature who are obnoxious to the Standard Oil Company, which is charged with actively working for the election of legislators who will support Ex-Governor Charles Foster for United States Senator.

The question of who can be given the title of colonel with propriety in Kentucky has at last been settled by a competent authority. By the latest rule every man who conducts a large distillery is ipso facto a colonel. Every prominent railroad official is a colonel. Every Congressman is a colonel. Every man with a Government office is a colonel. Every great editor is a colonel. The chief of the police department is a de facto colonel. Then there are other gentlemen who are colonels because no other title fits them. If a man has been a captain in the war, never call him captain; call him colonel. He is entitled to this promotion twenty-four hours after the war has closed.

"They head is full of quarrels, as an egg is full of meat." "Well, so would anybody's head be, who had walked the floor for a week, with a horrible face ache?" "You don't say so, how dreadful! I'll step out and bring you a bottle of quick cure, called Salvation Oil."

The town of Orlando, Fla. has an ordinance forbidding saloons to be less than two hundred feet apart.

Mr. Trautweiler, chief engineer of the Brunig Railway, Switzerland, has applied for a concession for an underground railway up the Jungfrau Mountain. It is proposed to reach the summit of the mountain by means of a tubular tunnel.

It is said that the entire estate of Allen Thorndike Rice, who was accounted a millionaire, will not foot up more than $50,000. The late S. L. M. Barlow, of New York, who was reputed to be very wealthy, has left nothing but the reputation of having had a fortune.

An Orlando, Fla., correspondent of the Jacksonville Times-Union reports that Mrs. Jennie Wilson has gone to Los Angeles with a consignment of pineapple plants. She will superintend the planting, give instructions in cultivation and doubtless book many orders from the Californians for choice Florida pines. She is called the "Pineapple Queen."

The Macon (Ga.) Telegraph says: The last Republican Administration in Alabama sold the State's bonds, bearing 8 per cent interest, at about 70 per cent of their face. The present Democratic Administration has sold 4 per cent bonds at a considerable premium. The difference represents the degrees of confidence felt by people with money in black and white government in the South.

A Cincinnati dispatch says gigantic frauds have been unearthed there in the registration lists of six wards where the colored population is the largest, where a list of a hundred names of colored men have been fraudulently placed on the lists. Over fifty warrants have been issued for the arrest of the principals. The scheme has also been exposed where the ballot boards would be changed after the polls closed. The Democratic managers propose to have the matter thoroughly probed.

The worst feature about catarrh is its dangerous tendency to consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures catarrh by purifying the blood.

Children Enjoy
The pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effects of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative, and if the father or mother be costive or bilious the most gratifying results follow its use, so that it is the best family remedy known and every family should have a bottle.

A Sad Accident.
We are sorry to hear of a sad accident which occurred yesterday to Mr. James Fulford, of this city, who is employed on a steam tug at the government works. His foot got caught in a pile of rope which was thrown to a lighter and so badly mangled as to necessitate amputation. It was a sad accident to a very worthy young man.

All Saints' Services.
To-morrow being the day celebrated throughout the world by all Episcopal congregations, as "The Feast of all Saints," those of St. James, St. Paul and St. John will keep the feast, in St. John's Church, at 11 o'clock a. m. The services will comprise Morning Prayer, Litany, sermon by the Rector of St. James' Church, and a celebration of the Holy Communion. Seats are free.

This Looks Like Business.
Mr. H. A. Colvin, of Pender county, passed through the city to-day on his return home from Columbus. As soon as the land donated to the Burgaw & Onslow R. R. has been all surveyed Mr. Colvin will take the field with Capt. Thompson, Chief Engineer of the road, and a line will be surveyed for the location of the road from Burgaw to Swansboro. Previous surveys have all been experimental but this new survey will be for an absolute line, on which the road will be located. The company owns some 60,000 or 75,000 acres donated to it on the right of way. The road, it is said, will surely be built and its extension on to Wilmington may, we think, be a mere matter of time. The probability is that it will not go via Jeksonville, but will run a few miles North of that town.

A Fine Show.
Gorton's Minstrels appeared here last night at the Opera House and were welcomed by the largest audience of the season. They played to please and they succeeded. The quintette e-log dancing was fine. Mr. Frank Summers, in his bone solo, was excellent and he should be called "The King of the Bones." Welby and Pearl in their break neck snaps were very enjoyable and Hank Goodman's rowing race was rip-top. It was the crowning piece of the play. "Prince Kapska" didn't do much, but what he did do was done well. It was a good performance and the applause, especially from the gallery gods, who were packed like sardines in a box, was unstinted. Come again, gentlemen, and we'll give you another big house.

If so called remedies have failed, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures. 50 cents, by druggists.

Up the Road and Down the River.
As mentioned by us yesterday Capt. Fry, Superintendent of the C. F. & V. R. R., accompanied by Mr. W. E. Kyle, General Freight and Passenger Agent, Mr. I. W. Clark, Master Mechanic, Mr. Jos. H. McRee, resident division engineer, and some others went up on a tour of inspection on the road yesterday in a private car, returning here about 3.30 o'clock. They went up to Black River and made a careful inspection of the work and Capt. Fry has expressed himself as well satisfied with the manner in which it has been done. The trestle at Black River has been completed and the track is now laid on this trestle and on the bridge and is being pushed forward on the other side towards Fayetteville.

To-day Capt. Fry, Mr. Kyle, Mr. Clark, Mr. Thos. C. James and a few others took a trip down the river as far as Southport on the company's new steamer, the Compton, expecting to return here about 4 or 5 o'clock this afternoon.

Scribner's for November.
The most comprehensive and interesting sketch yet published regarding the Equatorial provinces, with which Egypt has played fast and loose, appears in the November Scribner. "Where Emin Is" is the title. The article is freely illustrated, and contains some letters and opinions of Gordon not heretofore published. Surgeon Pilcher, of our army, describes the new military sanitary corps. Another well illustrated paper is by William H. Bishop, the novelist, on the old Spanish university town of Salamanca—a town which owes nothing to modern ideas of any kind. Goethe's house at Weimar, which remains much as its author left it, and which was not opened to the public until last year, is described by Oscar Browning, by the aid of many interesting pictures, some being from photographs of the interior. "In the Valley," again becomes partly historical, introducing some famous residents of the Mohawk Valley. Professor Soley has a long, suggestive essay on "The Effect on American Commerce of an Anglo-Continental War." A good many quacks who call themselves "electrical physicians" could be got rid of if every one would read "Electricity in Relation to the Human Body." "A Problem in Portraiture," is far above the average of short stories. Josephine Lazarus gives some extracts from the diary of a precocious, unbalanced, abnormal young woman, Marie Bashkirtseff, whose life, now ended, excited much interest in European capitals, and there are other good papers. Chas. Scribner's Sons, New York.

Druggist (to a lazy man who had turned over a new leaf.) "You are early of late, you used to be behind before but now you are first at last." Old man who did not see the point. "Give me my Bull's Cough Syrup and stop your nonsense."
