The Daily Review.

JOSH. T. JAMES, Editor & Prop'r.
WILMINGTON, N. C.
SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1889.

By the union of Prince Constantine, Duke of Sparta, and Princess Sophie, of Prussia, the King and Queen of Denmark can boast of an other grand alliance, as the Duke of Sparta is their grandson. The following are the names of their children, who have all made brilliant marriages: (1) Crown Prince Frederick, married to the Princess Louise, daughter of the late King Carl V of Sweden; (2) Princess Alexandra, married to the Prince of Wales; (3) Prince William, since 1863 King George of Greece, married to Grand Duchess Olga, of Russia; (4) Princess Dagmar, married, under the name of Marie Feodorovna, to Alexander III, Emperor of Russia; (5) Princess Thyra, married to the Duke of Cumberland; (6) Prince Waldemar, married to the Princess Maria, of Orleans, daughter of the Duke of Chartres.

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says: "The House will, as the custom never honored by a breach, be organized on a party basis, and, while some old nunes see in the contest between Congressman Reed of Maine and Mr. McKinley of Ohio and all other entries more than is involved, the result must necessarily have some bearing upon the relations of the House to the Administration. The voice of the ill-forged croaker declares that Mr. Reed is the candidate of the secretary of State, and that his election to the Speakership will strengthen Mr. Blaine's position both inside and outside the Cabinet. There seems to be no reason, however, for this and other similar attempts to place the President and the premier in opposition by representing them as favoring different and opposing candidates for the Speakership."

The most eccentric millionaire in New York, says the New York Star, is probably Charles B. Rous. He served in the Confederate army under Stonewall Jackson and is a Virginian by birth. Thirteen years ago he was ruined and $50,000 in debt. To-day he is building a massive structure 200 feet deep, 75 feet front and twelve stories high on Broadway. This building will cost $1,000,000 when finished and it is paid for step by step. His business methods are unique. He has four hundred employees and pays seventy-five off every day. This makes every day a pay day. His annual income is estimated at $550,000. Mr. Rous's energy is wonderful. He works from 6 in the morning till 10 at night. He does not spend more than $1,000 per year outside of his household expenses. His principal source of amusement is to stand on the rear platform of a street car and throw dimes and nickels to boys. A short time ago an English syndicate offered him $2,000,000 for his business.

Launchings of new vessels for our navy are no longer the novelty of a few years ago, but there is much in that of the San Francisco which took place successfully last week in the city from which she is named, to give it more than a local interest. The new craft, the second war ship ever built for the Government on the Pacific coast, is larger than her predecessor and pioneer there, the Charleston, and the product of the same builders, the Union Iron Works. The Philadelphia and San Francisco were both provided for in the Act of March 3, 1887, appropriating $1,500,000 each for the hulls and engines of two steamers of about 1,000 tons, which displacement both have exceeded. The contract price of the former is $1,350,000, and of the latter $1,428,000. Each is guaranteed to go nineteen knots, and heavy premiums and penalties, amounting to $50,000, for each excess or shortcoming of a quarter of a knot, further stimulate the contractors. The main battery of each vessel is to be twelve six-inch breech-loading rifles, and the Newark will have a similar one. The San Francisco is, of course, thoroughly modern in all her appointments.

"Old King Cole
Was a merry old soul,
And a merry old soul was he."
But his royal majesty would never have been so merry had he suffered from constipation, or deranged liver, or dyspepsia, or piles, or any other complaint that comes from a system out of sorts and causes impurities of the blood. If you suffer from any of these things you will feel morose, melancholy, mournful, aye, mad or anything else but merry. To be merry you must be well. To be well take Dr. Pierce's world-famed Pleasant Purgative Pellets. Easy to take, purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, prompt, and pleasant in their action; only one for a dose.

A Safe Investment.

Is one which is guaranteed to bring you satisfactory results, or in case of failure a return of purchase price. On this safe plan you can buy from our advertised druggist a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. It is guaranteed to bring relief in every case, when used for any affection of Throat, Lungs of Chest, such as Consumption, Inflammation of Lungs, Bronchitis, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Croup, etc. It is pleasant and agreeable to taste, perfectly safe and can always be depended upon. Trial bottle free at Robert R. Ballantyne's wholesale and retail drug store.

NOVEMBER NONSENSE.

The cane manufacturer sticks to his business.
Internal revenue—The receipts of a restaurant keeper.
The bullion is never arrested; and yet is without visible means of support.
A sister's love is very sweet and holy, but it isn't at all satisfying if she is your own sister.

After a man has been married a few years he never dodges when his wife throws anything at him.
Another man has invented an air ship which he declares is "bound to succeed." It can be depended upon to succeed—in killing the inventor.

When a man feels like giving another man a piece of his mind he should think about it. A man should keep his mind together if he wants to be comfortable.
A banker, complaining that the news sent him per cable by his correspondent in South America was not fresh, the latter asked: "How can you expect news that comes through so much salt water to be fresh?"

The mother of a family was saying that as soon as the youngest child reached a certain age she should break up the nursery. "Oh, mamma," said one of the children, "that will be fine sport. I will break up the chairs and John shall break up the table."

Salt rheum.
With its intense itching, dry, hot skin, often broken into painful cracks, and the little watery pimples, often causes indescribable suffering. Hood's Sarsaparilla has wonderful power over this disease. It purifies the blood and expels the humor, and the skin heals without a scar. Send for book containing many statements of cures, to C. I. Hood & Co., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

A bride on her return home must be carried over the threshold by the groom's relatives.

A CHILD KILLED.
Another child killed by the use of opiates given in the form of soothing syrup. Why mothers give their children such deadly poison is surprising when they can relieve the child of its peculiar troubles by using Acker's Baby Soother. It contains no opium or morphine. Sold by Munds Bros., druggists.

Link cuffs will be worn during the coming season. These should be ironed flat, and not rolled as stud cuffs are.

Advice to Mothers.
MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty five cents a bottle. July 6 dead & wty

Take Hood's Sarsaparilla 100 Doses One Dollar

The Chief Reason for the great success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is found in the article itself. It is merit that wins, and the fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla actually accomplishes what is claimed for it, is what has given to this medicine a popularity and sale greater than that of any other sarsaparilla or blood purifier before the public.
Hood's Sarsaparilla cures Scrofula, Salt Rheum and all Humors, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Biliousness, overcomes that Tired Feeling, creates an Appetite, strengthens the Nerves, builds up the Whole System.
Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared by C. I. Hood & Co., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

1889. Harper's Bazar.
ILLUSTRATED.
HARPER'S BAZAR will continue to maintain its reputation as an unequalled family journal. Its art illustrations are of the highest order, its features, the choicest kind, and its Fashion and Household departments of the most practical and economical character. Its pattern-sheet supplements and fashion plates alone will cost the readers ten times the cost of the subscription, and its articles on decorative art, social etiquette, house-keeping, cookery, etc., make it indispensable to every household. Its bright, short stories and timely essays are among the best published, and no line is admitted to its columns that could offend the most fastidious taste. Among the attractions of the new volume are ten times as many articles as in the former one, and a series of papers on nursery management by Mrs. Christine Terhune Herrick.

best pine region. For sale on easy terms to suit purchasers. Four acres for $2500. Larger tracts $5 per acre, in monthly payments of $10. This land adjoins the "South Star Pine", a recently established health resort (or sanitarium), and is especially adapted for Fruit Culture, as well as all the cereals. A number of New England people have bought lots in the town of "Southern Pine", and it is the desire of the owners of this land to induce small farmers, mechanics and others from the New England and Middle States, as well as elsewhere, to locate here. No State in the Union offers greater inducements to settlers than North Carolina. Nowhere can better farming country or as fine a climate be found. This is the opinion of Northern men who have settled in North Carolina. This is a bona fide offer, and is limited.
