Inherited Blood Poison.
How many people there are whose distress from sores, aches, pains and eruptive tendencies are due to inherited blood poison.
Bad blood passes from parent to child, and it is therefore the duty of husband and wife to keep their blood pure. This is easily accomplished by a timely use of B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm). Send to Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, for book of most convincing proof.
James Hill, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "My two sons were afflicted with blood poison, which doctors said was hereditary. They both broke out in sores and eruptions which B. B. B. re-promptly controlled and finally cured completely."
Mrs. S. M. Williams, Sandy, Texas, writes:
"My three poor afflicted children, who inherited blood poison, have improved rapidly after a use of B. B. B. It is a Godsend." J. E. Wilson, Jlen Alpine Station, N. C., Feb 15, 1889, writes: "Bone and blood poison forced me to have my leg amputated, and on the stump there came a large ulcer, which wore worse every day until doctors gave me up to die. I only weighed 120 pounds when I began to take B. B. B., and 12 bottles increased my weight to 180 pounds and made me sound and well. I never knew what good health was before."

THE DAILY REVIEW
VOL. XIII WILMINGTON, N. C. SATURDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1889. NO 289.

Republican members of the Legislation of Montana, says the New York Star, have made proposals to the Democrats of that State that there should be a compromise of the deadlock there. A meeting of the Democratic members of the Legislature was held, and they very promptly and wisely voted to pay no attention to such a proposition. A gentleman occasionally compromises with a thief who steals his silver, but a party cannot afford to enter into negotiations with the men who have tried to steal a State. It is too serious a crime to be forgotten or condoned.

The Democrats of Montana are fighting for a principle that involves the good name and future welfare of the State. No sort of compromise ought to be thought of for a moment, whatever inconveniences may result from the stoppage of public business. If two Republican Senators from Montana are seated by fraud, it will be an ineradicable botl upon her good fame that, at her first State election, a political crime was carried through successfully which was more flagrant and unjustified than any ever attempted under the Returning Boards in the South. Moreover, it will place a premium upon dishonesty in the future and establish precedents that will breed similar troubles for years to come. The worst result from a political crime like this is not its immediate effect, but the encouragement it gives to dishonest and scheming politicians to attempt it again.

The more light there is shed upon this Montana crime the worse it appears. Not only did the law furnish no precedent for throwing out the Democratic ballots in Silver Bow County, but a Republican Judge had given a decision to directly opposite effect only a few months before. But this fact did not check the members of the conspiracy, which extended from the county canvassers to the President of the United States. It is the duty of the Democrats in Montana not only to defeat these conspirators; they must be punished as well.

"It is all over town," said the Arab. "What?" asked the old man, his eyebrows bristling with curiosity. "Mud" said the youngster, while his mouth went clear around his ears in a grin. "Right you are," said the old man. "With the mud come colds and coughs, and you know the remedy." "Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup," rejoined the boy.
"Right you are again!"

Memorial Services.
The Confederate Veterans' Association will meet at the Court House to-night, at 8 o'clock, to take action in regard to the death of ex-President Davis. It is probable that they will attend in a body services to be held on the day of the funeral, and at the hour. These services will be held in St. John's Church.
The Wilmington Light Infantry will also attend in a body, and the Ladies' Memorial Association. Dr. Carmichael, Rector of St. John's, is Chaplain of the W. L. I. and Mr.
Davis was an honorary member of that body and an Episcopalian.

A Bad Spell.
A merchant's clerk, wrote a check for forty dollars, and spelled the numerical adjective "f-o-u-r-t-y." His employer directed his attention to the error, with the remark, "you seem to have a bad spell this morning" to which the clerk replied, "sure enough; I've left out the "g h"! Let us hope the clerk will still further amend his orthography, meanwhile, if any suffer from a "bad spell" of headache, superinduced by constipation, ask your druggist for Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. Entirely vegetable, mild, prompt and effective, and a most efficient remedy for derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels.
