We are very sorry to hear of the death of the venerable Mr. Peter D.
Bernard, father of Maj. W. H. Bernard, of the Star, which occurred yesterday at his home in Richmond, Va. Mr. Bernard was in his 85th year and was an old and highly esteemed resident of Richmond.

That fat man, who the ladies declare is the handsomest man in Washington, used to be an invalid, but he took to hard drinking, not of whiskey, but of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, and now he walks right over the very slenderest dudes, and don't care at all.

New moon to-morrow morning at 38 minutes past 7 o'clock.

According to the almanacs Winter commences to-day. Let her Church to-morrow at 11 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. Sunday school at 3 p. m.

Seats free. All are welcome.

Drivers of drays and other vehicles should not injure grass plats in front of residences by leaving the road and driving over the grass, as the grass not only beautifies the street but lays the dust.

Last night was very appropriately chosen by the ladies of the First Presbyterian Church for their "Partisan Party," inasmuch as the pilgrims landed from the Mayflower on December 20th, 1620, exactly 269 years ago.

Cotton.

The receipts of cotton at this port for the week ending with yesterday foot up 6,469 bales, against 8,406 bales for the corresponding week of last year, a decrease of 1,937 bales.
The receipts for the crop year to date foot up 108,685 bales, against 123,724 bales to same date last year, a decrease this year of 15,039 bales.

Some People's Cruelty to Animals.

The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals met last night at the City Hall. The reports of the different committees were received and read, and the affairs of the Society found to be in good condition, everything working satisfactorily.
The next meeting will be held on the second Monday in January when officers will be elected.

Cash vs. Credit.

My unparalleled success since I have inaugurated my cash system and my increase in patronage proves beyond doubt that the public appreciate low cash prices and that a party who sells for cash can undersell his competitors who credit. I shall offer extra inducements from now until after the holidays to all purchasers of Clothing, Furnishing Goods, Hats and Caps.

(Sign of Golden Arm.)
Cor. Front and Princess Sts.

Special Invitation.

A special invitation is extended to the grand anniversary at the Central Baptist Church, corner of Seventh and Red Cross streets, to morrow, Dec. 22d, 1889. Interesting exercises as follows: At 10 a. m., "Young People's Opportunities," discussed by all teachers; at 11 a. m., annual sermon by the pastor; at 2.30 p. m., a S. S. Concert; at 3.30 p. m., sermon by Rev. J. B. Small, D. D.; at 7.30 p. m., "The Church and the Pastor—Their Relations," discussed by pastors, officers, leaders and missionaries of churches. Lovely songs charming music by quartette.

The Turkey.

An exchange says of this noble bird: This paragon of poultry is in full perfection now. He pervades the market. Everybody buys him, but everybody is not competent to cook him. Opinions differ, and have always differed, as to the best mode of dressing him. The true Christian way to prepare a turkey is to fill him with internal improvements in the shape of a rich compost compounded of bread, eggs, tyme, pepper, salt, a little lemon peel, and a very little butter. Then roast him and serve him up with a gravy made of his giblets, seasoned and thickened with a spoonful or two of flour. If there is anything better than a silver cut from the tender bosom of the creature, or his "second joint," the savor thereof is unknown to us.

For all derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels take Dr.
Pierce's Peppermint, or Anti-bilious Granules.

Forecasts:
For North Carolina, fair, stationary temperature. For Wilmington, and vicinity, fair weather.

"Tom Sawyer, The Bad Boy."

This will be the opening bill of the S. G. Ely's New York Comedy Company's engagement of four nights and Christmas matinee; commencing on Monday evening, Dec.
23rd, they open with the very funny musical farce comedy "Tom Sawyer" a dramatization of Mark Twain's famous novel. A cleverly constructed and interesting play, brisk in action, strong in situation and bright in dialogue and bubbling over with fun, wit, songs and music. This company will change the bill nightly and play at popular prices, 10, 20 and 30 cents, and seats can now be reserved at Yates' without extra charge.

The Raleigh News and Observer says of them: "The Ely Stock Company presented 'Tom Sawyer' last night to a good house. The show was one of the best of the kind that has ever been to Raleigh, and pleased the audience greatly. It is full of side splitting fun from one end to the other, and is bound to produce a good, healthy laugh every thirty seconds. The play is funny and well presented."

"Histories make men wise, Poets witty." But what in the world does a man want with either when he has sprained his ankle. No sir, not these, not these! Give him but one bottle of Salvation Oil. The greatest cure on earth for pain.
