The Cape Fear River and the U S. Engineers seem to be on the very best of terms with no possible chance for a dispute, for when the Engineers told the river to clear itself out of the way it did so, and now 9,000 bales of cotton as a cargo is an accomplished fact. We expect to send out a 10,000 bales eargo when another season arrives.

The Bal Pondre.

The most brilliant society event that has occurred in Wilmington this season, or in fact for many seasons, was the Bal Poudre, which was given at the Orton last night by some of the leading ladies of the city in compliment to Wilmington gentlemen and to the ladies from abroad who are visiting here. Its Cutlery is very complete. We keep promoters were ladies of the highest social position and every arrangement, under their direction, was in exquisite taste and was carried out to perfection. There were about three hundred ladies and gentlemen attendance, comprising the wealth, talent, worth and beauty of our very best people and their Pianos and Organs
