It is stated that the debt of New York city was increased last year $7,000,000.

A woman at Birmingham, Mich., raised this year 300 turkeys for the Thanksgiving market.

Jackson, the negro pugilist, stands six feet two inches, and his arms reach two inches below the knee.

Edward Strauss, the brother of the famous waltz writer, is coming to this country with his orchestra.

Lawyer Joseph H. Choate, of New York, is said to have received $150,000 as his fee in the Stewart will case.

It is rumored that Mary Anderson has made up her mind to leave the stage and it is said that she may marry.

Mrs. Lizzie Weaver, of Bridgeton, N. J., has, after forty seven years of labor, finished a crazy quilt of 30,072 patches.

"Goliath," one of the famous trees in California, is twenty-three feet in diameter at the base and is estimated to weigh 100,000 tons.

La grippe is still getting in some earnest work in the crowded cities. It seems to go West, although a few cases have been developed in the South.

Mme. Bonnemain, an enthusiastic supporter of General Boulanger, has just inherited $1,500,000, the bulk of which she will devote to the general's cause.

Senator Allen, of Washington State, is so youthful in appearance that he was recently refused admission to the floor of the United States Senate chamber by a doorkeeper who did not know him.

George Herbert was not the author of the expression "Hell is paved with good intentions." It was by Samuel Johnson. Herbert said: "Hell is full of good meanings and wishes." Johnson was a century later than Herbert.

The first newsboy that ever sold a copy of the New York Sun in the streets of New York was a little shaver from Cork. His name was Bernard Flaherty, but he went upon the stage and became rich and famous as Barney Williams.

Gilbert Wooten, the colored individual who owned the hog shot by President Harrison in the Virginia woods, for a coon, will carefully cure the meat and send a ham to the White House. He confidently expects a postoffice in return.

Ward McAllister's New Year's ball, at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York, on Thursday night, was a very great success. There were 144 subscribers, at $100 each, and therefore the ball cost nearly $15,000. Seventeen hundred cards were issued and the wealth personally represented on the floor was $500,000,000. It is said to have been the grandest affair of the kind ever seen in New York.

New Jersey has a Baptist minister who claims to have baptized more people than any other man in his church. The community in which he resides has been grieved over his stubborn cough that has interfered with his pastoral duties. A physician recommended Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, and consequently there will be baptism in his church next Sunday.

New York Wholesale Houses

to supply us with samples of all the new designs as they appear, and to fill all our orders at prices that will enable us to Sell You Carpets as Low as You Could Buy Them at Any Retail House in New York or Elsewhere.

—WE SHOW YOU THIS—

IMMENSE STOCK

by samples of from one-half yard to one yard of any pattern, with the aid of

RICHARDSON'S PATENTED EXHIBITOR,

so constructed that any pattern placed within is multiplied for an indefinite space, and appears as though perfectly matched and fitted to a room. Selecting Carpets in this way is much more satisfactory than the old way of matching loosely upon the floor.

Requiring no extra room, having no capital invested, nor interest or insurance on the stock, no remnants, no old stock or patterns left over, reducing the profit, we can afford to send for and get you any pattern you may select at a cheaper price than you could buy the same, were you in New York yourself.

Any Style or Quality Required, not Found in Our Stock of Samples, Can be Procured by Return Express.

All orders for CARPETS forwarded to our New York House will be promptly filled and sent by return express or freight. Very respectfully yours,
