Clear the Way. Men of thought, be up and stirring Night and day; Sow the seed; withdraw the curtain

Clear the way; Men of action, aid and cheer them As ye may, There's a fount about to stream; There's a light about to beam; There's a warmth about to glow;

There's a flower about to blow; There's a midnight blackness chang Into grav;

Men of thought and men of action, Clear the way. Once the welcome light has broken.

Who shall say What the unimagined glories Of the day; What the evil that shall perish

In its ray! Aid the da*ning, tongue and pen: Aid it, hopes of honest men; Aid it, pen, and aid it, type;

Aid it. for the hour is ripe; And our earnest must not slacken Into play, Men of thought and men of action,

For fuller particulars send stamp to W.H. Cole, Drug gist, Fort Smith. Trial bottles of this wonderful Discovery free at Robt. R. Bellamy's wholesale and retail drug store.

He went to school to Dr. 'Meredith, and Mark always sat near the foot of the class. He never took any interest in books, and I never saw him study his less sons. He left school and went to learn the printing business, and soon after that left Hannibal and went to

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the littie sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the saild from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remely for diarrhea, whether arising from teething or other causes.
