THE DAILY REVIEW

VOL XIV. WILMINGTON, N. C. FRIDAY, JANUARY 10, 1890. NO 23.

Calvin S. Brice has been nominated by the Democrats of the Ohio Legislature, in caucus, as United States Senator. The nomination is equivalent to an election.

Hon. W. D. Kelley, of Pennsylvania, sometimes called "Pig Iron Kelley," and known for sessions past as "the father of the House," died last evening at Washington City.

Charlotte Democrat: We lay it down as our belief that it is safer for people to drink beer than to drink whiskey. Therefore, if they will drink, they should, as far as the law-makers of a city have the right of encouragement, be encouraged to drink beer. The establishment of saloons, for beer only, is evidently such an encouragement. Therefore, for the good of the people, it would seem that the multiplication of beer saloons is for the benefit of the community.

It is really very pleasant to know that that bloated bag of beastliness, Benjamin F. Butler, has risen to the full height of the venom that is in him and has essayed to abuse Grover Cleveland. No higher meed of praise can be given to the peerless Cleveland than this. It has been truly said of him "We love him for the enemies he has made" and the enmity and vilification of this old cock-eyed son of a seacock is far more desirable than friendship or words of praise from him.

"Doctor," said a despairing patient to his physician. "I am in a dreadful condition! I can neither lay nor set. What shall I do?" "I think you had better roost," was the reply. Now, if we consider that the poor fellow was all contorted with rheumatism, the doctor would have done much better by prescribing a bottle of Salvation Oil, which would have relieved his patient at once.
Price 25 cents a bottle.

Haven't the almanac makers made a mistake, somehow? Surely this is not January, but March. The wind whistled around the street corners to day, stirring up the dust, just as it does in the windy month of March.

Br. Schooner Edwin Janet arrived here yesterday afternoon, to Messrs.
Cronly & Morris, with a cargo of superior fruit, all in excellent condition. She is from Nassau and has on board oranges, grape fruit, bananas, pineapples, tomatoes, shells, &c., all of which will be sold from the vessel.

Mr. J. Dickson Munds is erecting a handsome residence on Walnut street, between Second and Third.

Mr. T. A. Darby, formerly of this city, but for years past a resident of Palatka, Fla., has removed to President City, in the same State.

Nor. barque Adjutor, Nielsen, cleared to-day for Liban, with 2,256 barrels rosin, valued at $3,006.33, shipped by Mr. J. W. Bolles.

The annual meeting of the lot owners of Oakdale Cemetery will be held at the company's office in this city on next Monday evening.

Rheumatism is caused by lactic acid in the blood, which food's Sarsaparilla neutralizes, and thus cures rheumatism.

"Fair and frothy" is what Turner's almanac promises us early next week. We'll gamble on the fair part but are exceedingly doubtful as to the frost.

This morning while the Cape Fear hose reel was on its way to the fire, on crossing one of those deep gulleys on Orange and Third streets the axle tree broke.

Ger. barque Constantin von Rei-necke, Andreis, cleared to-day for London, with 2,696 barrels rosin, valued at $3,500, shipped by Messrs.
Williams & Marchison.

Italian barque Angelo Castellano, cleared late yesterday afternoon for Genoa, Italy, with 1,657 bales of cotton, valued at $76,000, and 2,000 staves, valued at $50, shipped by Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son.

The Young Catholic Friend's Society, of this city, will go to Charleston to attend the consecration of the new Cathedral there Sunday next.
They will leave here to-morrow night and return on Monday morning.

The new steam launch built by Capt. Sam Skinner for the government will be used in the Charleston department, for ascending and surveying some of the small streams.
It was built under orders from Capt.
Abbott.

The moon doesn't rise to-night till nearly half-past 9 o'clock. So if you want to drive your best girl to the Sound this afternoon, for a return ride by moonlight, you had best take some bottled moonlight along with you.

Newborn voted yesterday $50,000 subscription to the capital stock of the East Carolina Land and Improvement Co. and this will guarantee them a railroad to Jacksonville, where it will connect with the W.
O. & E. C. R. R.

New North Carolina hams are held here in the stores at 14 to 15 cents a pound. With green pork at 5 to 7 cents this would seem to be a pretty steep price for smoked meat.
It sells high from carts, however, and the margin to the dealer is a small one.

Mr. W. M. Parsley, for some time past assistant local freight agent of the W. & W. and W. C. & A. roads, at this place, has resigned that position to take another and a better one on the road in Georgia with which his brother, Mr. O. G. Parsley, Jr., is connected.

Our neighbor of the Star comes to us to-day in a new dress and with a clean face. The type are all new and handsome and the press work causes them to show up very clearly and distinctly. The size of the type is one grade larger for the reading matter. The improvement is a marked one.

We invite attention to the advertisement of Mr. A. J. Marshall, Commissioner, of the sale of a valuable piece of real estate in this city, to take place at the Court House door on Monday, February 10th.
The property is located near the corner of Castle and Second streets and the sale is to be made under a decree of the Superior Court.

Wanted to be Heard From.
If any person has ever given Dr.
Sage's Catarrh Remedy a fair trial, and has not been perfectly and permanently cured, that person should write the proprietors of that wonderful remedy, for they are in dead earnest and "mean business" when they offer $500 reward for a case of nasal catarrh, no matter how bad or how long standing, which they cannot cure. The Remedy is sold by druggists, at only 50 cents. It is mild, soothing, deodorizing, antiseptic, cleansing and healing.

The Portner Plant.
Work at the Portner plant, corner Eighth and Brunswick streets, is being rapidly pushed forward. Capt.
J. S. Allen has the contract. The walls are up beyond the first floor already and Capt. Allen says that although he has until March 1st, under the contract, to complete the buildings, he yet hopes to have them ready by the first of February. A track from the railroad runs up to the side of the main building and on this cars will be carried up to the platform and loaded and unloaded.

They say that the beautiful belle of Washington, Miss —, uses cosmetics but it is a vile slander. She owes her bloom to excellent health, and she keeps well by using Dr.
Bull's Cough Syrup.

DIED.
LORD.—In this city, at 11:45 p. m., January 9th, 1890, FREDERICK J. LORD, aged 67 years and 9 days.
The funeral services will take place at St.
James Church at 10:30 o'clock to-morrow (Saturday) morning. Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend.
