The Daily Review.
SATURDAY, JAN. 11, 1890.
STATE NEWS.

Raleigh News and Observer: Sheriff are now coming in lively and settling their county taxes with the State Treasurer. The following sheriffs settled yesterday: J. S. Swain, Randolph, $10,093.90; I. E. Saunders, Montgomery, $3,683.43; J. T. Ellington, Johnston, $11,087.70. Sheriff Rogers of Wake has not yet settled his taxes. He is allowed until May. It is sheriff C. M. Rogers of Granville who has settled.

Raleigh Call: Col. L. L. Polk, President of the National Farmer's and Laborers' Union of America, left this evening for Washington to establish his office there and to enter fully upon the discharge of his duties. — Mr. Jno. W. Thompson, who spent a couple of days in Sanford this week, reports that strawberries are ripening there out in the open garden. He had the delight of picking them from the vines and eating them fresh and luscious.

Charlotte News: Mr. Joseph Misener, a prominent citizen of Cabarrus, and a gentleman who is well known in Charlotte, died suddenly at his home yesterday, from heart disease. — That was an interesting dinner party at the Central Hotel to-day, when three aged ladies, all old chums, had a table to themselves and divided their attention between discussing the dinner and talking of Auld Lang Syne. The three ladies were Mrs. Brevard, mother of Dr. R. J. Brevard; Mrs. Conrad, mother of Mrs. H. C. Eccles; and Mrs. Eccles, mother of Mr. H. C. Eccles. Mrs. Brevard is 79 years old, Mrs. Conrad is 80, and Mrs. Eccles is 76. They were as chatty and lively as young girls.

Winston Daily: We were informed to-day by a large tobacco manufacturer of Winston that negotiations were pending between a wealthy New York syndicate and several of our tobacco manufacturers for the purchase of their plants. It seems that they have offered to buy five of the largest factories in Winston, for which they agreed to pay full value for buildings, machinery, etc., and then pay each one hundred and twenty five thousand dollars for the brands, name of the firms, etc., provided these parties enter into a contract to never again engage in the tobacco manufacturing business. This trade, if consummated, would necessarily cause to be invested here two three million of dollars and would be the biggest deal of the kind made in our State.

Wadesboro Messenger: Mr. E. N. D. Liles left Anson county thirty years ago and has since been living in Mississippi. He returned to this county a few days ago and will make his home in Lilesville township. — There is great complaint throughout the county of the damage being done to the small grain crops by the Hessian fly. They are more numerous and destructive this year than ever before, caused, it is said, by the remarkable mildness of the winter. — Mr. G. W. Fort, of Wadesboro, has the greatest curiosity in the way of pups ever before seen in these parts. He has a litter of four that were born Tuesday morning, two of which are as well formed pups as we ever saw, while the other two are genuine monstrosities. One of them is coal black while the other is black with a white ring around its neck. Neither of them have any fore legs, their bodies being perfectly smooth where their front supports should be. But the most remarkable thing about these pups is their heads, which are almost exactly like the head of a large rat. Many have seen these freaks, and all pronounce them the most remarkable canine curiosities of the age.

Silk Dresses and New Bonnets.
"I haven't had a silk dress since I was married, nor a new bonnet for three seasons," complains Mrs. C. V. R. She declares she is bound to have a new bonnet if she has to work for it herself. This is true, but many ladies who would gladly work hard to attain a desired object, are unable to do so because they are almost constantly afflicted with diseases peculiar to their sex. Dragging down pains, displacements, leucorrhoea, and other uterine disorders, are the bane of many women's lives; but Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will cure where all other compounds fail. It is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years.

When a train is telescoped the passengers are apt to see stars.

Charlotte Chronicle: Yesterday some of the creditors of the firm of C. A. Dixon & Co., made a proposition to compromise the suit which is now pending. They offer to compromise for 44 cents on the dollar. The defendants have agreed to this compromise, provided all the creditors of the firm will agree to it. The terms of compromise have not yet been signed, but will probably be to-day. If this compromise is effected, the matter will be at an end. — Dr. D. O'Donoghue and Dr. J. C. Register had an altercation yesterday afternoon about four o'clock just at the entrance of the Belmont Hotel. Dr. O'Donoghue had disputed Dr. Register's word about a matter, and Dr. Register struck Dr. O'Donoghue. After slight skirmishing the combatants clinched, and wrestling towards the curb, both fell into the gutter. Dr. O'Donoghue, who is very heavy, was stunned slightly by his head striking on a sharp rock, which cut the scalp. This ended the difficulty.

To-Day's Fire.
The alarm of fire this morning, at 10 o'clock, turned in from box 16, was caused by the burning of three one story frame buildings on McRae street, between Red Cross and Campbell. The fire started on the roof of E.sey Hawes' house and spread to one to the North owned and occupied by Kate Nash, then to that on the South, owned by Mr. W. M. Poisson and occupied by Sarah Swann. There was insurance on Mr. Poisson's house to the amount of $250, in the Home Insurance, of New York, represented here by Messrs. Northrop, Hodges & Taylor, and on E.sey Nash's house for $130, in the American, of Philadelphia, represented by Messrs. Smith & Boatwright. One house was entirely consumed and the other badly damaged. Much of the furniture was injured or destroyed.

An Enjoyable Concert.
Under the directorship of that skilled and accomplished musician, the Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, the repetition of the children's concert last night at Luther Memorial Building scored even a greater success than was attained the first evening. The hall was well filled with an appreciative audience and those present enjoyed the occasion immensely and demonstrated the fact by hearty applause. The entertainment was one exceedingly enjoyable and there is nothing to be wondered at that there was a popular demand for its repetition. The programme presented a happy variety of selections, and the accomplishment of the little folks in their parts struck every one in the audience with wonder. The more so is it cause for wonder that the participants were not only children of tender age, but they have not practised very long for the occasion. They were trained by Mr. Peschau, and while he is quite proud of them, he is himself entitled to great credit for what he has brought out of them.

The concert began at 8 o'clock and concluded about 10 p. m., the programme being as follows:
Piano solo, "Carnival of Venice," Minnie Glameyer.
Vocal solo, "Sehnsucht," Julia Hintze.
Piano duet, "Volkslied," Carl and Hanna Schwarz.
Vocal duet, "Fly Away Birding," Linda A. Peschau and Norma Foster.
Solo chorus, "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep," by all.
Vocal solo and chorus, "Like the Snow Flakes," Christine Hintze and all.
Vocal duet and chorus, "Listen to the Mocking Bird," Maggie Strauss and Maunie Schulken.
Vocal solo and chorus, "The Song of the Guitar," Maunie Schulken and all.
Vocal solo and chorus, "Merry, Laughing Girl," Maunie Schulken and all.
Vocal solo and chorus, "The Bold Fisherman," Cora Peschau, Louise Strauss and all.
Piano solo, "Autumn Leaves," Annie Doescher.
Vocal solo, "Golden Love," Linda A. Peschau.
Recitation, "The Bootblacks," Norma Foster.
A little speech, by Charles Schulken.
Chorus, "Shells of the Ocean."
"The Hunter's Home, Tra-la-la," Julia Hintz, Linda Peschau and chorus.
"Tap, Tap, Tap," chorus.
Solo, quartette and mixed chorus, "Cat Serenade."
"Tis O'er, Good Night," all.

Everything in the programme was well executed, but we must specially mention the piano solo of Miss Minnie Glameyer, the vocal solo of Miss Julia Hintze, the piano solo of Miss Annie Doescher, the vocal solo of Miss Linda Peschau, the vocal duet by Misses Linda Peschau and Norma Foster, and the little speech splendidly made by Master Charles Schulken. The "Song of the Guitar" by the chorus was very greatly enjoyed and received an encore. "The Bootblacks," a humorous recitation, was given by Miss Norma Foster in a very excellent way and was encored. The singing of Misses Julia Hintze and Linda Peschau was specially excellent and displayed in them voices that are of great promise. The fact is the entire entertainment was excellent in every respect and upon its conclusion those accomplished musicians, Major H. H. Foster and Misses Chasten and Schwarz, very warmly congratulated Mr. Peschau and highly complimented the little participants.

Miss Maggie Peschau, who is quite a fine musician in instrumental music presided at the piano. Miss Linda A. Peschau surprised many of her friends by her pure, clear, full, rich and sweet mezzo-soprano voice. Her voice has been much complimented by Miss Minnie Schwarz and other scholarly musicians and she bids fair to become one of the finest young singers in this city. Various parties have suggested that the concert, or one like it, should some time or other be given in the Opera House, which may be done.

Scribner's Magazine
For 1889.
The publishers of SCRIBNER'S MAGAZINE are making a special effort to make this year the most popular and interesting of the year. They are bringing out a new series of articles, many of which have been drawn to it during the last six months by the increased excellence of its contents (notably the Railway articles) and its second year has attracted a new and assured success. The illustrations show some new effects, and nothing is too good for the magazine. The illustrations are by several very striking papers, especially interesting by Ex-Postmaster Thomas L. James of the Railway Post Office.
MR. ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON'S novel "The Master of Ballantrae," through the greater part of the year. Begin in November.
A CORRESPONDENCE and other manuscript memoranda of J. F. Kennedy and a famous group of modern Frenchmen will furnish the substance of several of our articles.
The brief and papers written last year by Robert Louis Stevenson, will be equally interesting contributions by famous authors. Mr. Thomas Blyden will write the first of them for this number.
Many valuable LITERARY ARTICLES appear in a paper on Walter Scott's work. Illustrated from original MSS. "Shell of Old Books," by Mrs. James and many other articles equally valuable.
Articles on ART SUBJECTS will be arranged to appear by the artist Cook, E. H. Washfield, Austin Blyden and many others.
FISHING ARTICLES describing spots, best fishing grounds will appear. "Winnish, Bass and Tarpon are now arranged. The authors are well sportsmen.
ILLUSTRATED ARTICLES of great interest touching upon all manner of subjects, biographical, descriptive, etc., will appear not of the conventional commonplace kind.
Among the most interesting in the scientific papers for the year will be an able article by Prof. John Trowbridge on the most recent developments and PHOTOGRAPHY. Illustrated.
A class of articles which has proved of special interest will be continued by papers upon ELECTRICITY in its applications, by eminent authorities on mariners paper on DEEP MINING and interesting papers.
A SPECIAL EFFORT to cover last numbers, which include all the Railway news, as follows:
A year's subscription (1889) in the number for 1889.....$3.00
A year's subscription (1890) and the numbers for 1888, bound in cloth.....6.00
