THE DAILY REVIEW

VOL XIV WILMINGTON, N. C., TUESDAY, JANUARY 21, 1890. NO 32

PLEASE NOTICE.
 We will be glad to receive communications from our friends on any and all subjects general interest, but
 The name of the writer must always be attached to the Editor.
 Communications must be written on the one side of the paper.
 Personalities must be avoided.
 And it is especially and particularly understood that the Editor does not always endorse the views of correspondents unless so stated in the editorial columns.

Ohio's fat woman is dead. She lived in Pike county, and in health weighed 600 pounds. Her coffin, which was carried by sixteen men, measured three feet in depth, and nearly four in width.

Kate Fields is described by a Washington correspondent as a "tight, bright, wiry, slender lady of about medium height, with brown hair, bright eyes and a tongue which can talk two hours at a stretch and advance a new idea in every sentence."

The latest Boston device for sustaining the literary spirits up to a highly remunerative intellectual point is "Brain Salt." It is said to brighten and enliven the mind, and induce that flow of soul by means of which the literary worker provides his food and raiment.

A Washington letter to the Pittsburg Press says: "Col. Brice has five children, and most of them look like the mother. When Brice made his money out of the Vanderbilts he gave Mrs. Brice $500,000 with the admonition that she should keep it even if he lost every cent by speculation."

Pope Leo XIII. is reported to have recently informed his intimates that he has already chosen his future burial place, the tribune of the Lateran. His object is to leave his successor the expense of a costly monument, the erection of which rests by custom on the follower of a deceased Pope.

Ex-Postmaster-General James declares in a late issue of the Forum that the most important reforms in the postal service have all been instituted by men who had journalistic experience, the three most important reformers being Benjamin Franklin, Amos Kendall and Montgomery Blair.

Surgery has made immense strides of late years. Yesterday's Herald reports a wonderful operation performed on a girl about twelve years of age in Pittsburg, Pa. A tumor as large as a duck's egg was taken from the child's brain. The little patient is much relieved and is thought to be now sure of recovery.

Mr. C. P. Huntington advises young men to go to Africa. He says the opportunities for making a fortune in that country are superior to any other at the present. Mr. Huntington supplements this counsel, however, with the remark that it would be best for the young man to take along with him $10,000 or $20,000 to start with.

The fight in West Virginia is not yet over. The Democrats hold the winning hand but the Republicans have the money and the unblushing rascality. They will try to buy or intimidate some weak-kneed Democrat, but will fail. Fleming will be Governor. The investigating committee threw out 1,200 Republican votes in two counties alone. These were of negroes who had been colonized.

A life of indolent ease and sensuality; the use of highly seasoned animal food, and alcoholic drinks are the predisposing causes of Gout. When aware of its presence in the system lose no time in procuring Salvation Oil. It kills pain. Price 35 cents a bottle.

Nor. barque Deodata, Andersen, cleared to-day for Ganton with 3,570 barrels rosin, valued at $3,949.49, shipped by Mr. J. W. Bolles.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is a purely vegetable preparation, being free from injurious ingredients. It is peculiar in its curative power.

You can get all sizes in good and heavy Canton Flannel Drawers at 50 cents, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, No. 122 Market street.

Much work has recently been done to the interior of the Orton House. The interior decorations have been overhauled and repaired. The work was done by R. L. Hutchins and a ton of paint was used.

Very interesting revival meetings are being held every afternoon at 3 o'clock and every night, conducted by Rev. A. Shepard, revivalist, at the Central Baptist Church, corner of Seventh and Red Cross streets.

There is not very much of the dreaded influenza here as yet—only about enough to keep the doctors on the go. We hear of a few bad cases but the others are all light. It is not "la grippe" but only "la zoot," and we have had it several times previously.

Mr. George Darden has had a severe attack of influenza. He got out of the house to-day for the first time, met his physician down town, was given a prescription for a fresh bottle of medicine and ordered to go back home and stay there a few days longer, to avoid any possible danger of a "pneumatic" attack.

Coroner's Jury.
 At the annual congregational meeting of St. Andrew's Church, twenty-two additions were reported for the year 1889, and a total communing membership of two hundred and thirty. The Treasurer, Mr. Thomas F. Bagley, reported the total offerings of the Church at $5,276. This includes $465 paid to the Y. M. C. A. building fund. The weekly offerings exceeded those of the year previous by $250. The Church and the Sunday School (of which Maj. T. D. Love is now Superintendent), are in a flourishing condition.

The jury of inquest in the case of the death of W. T. Brown closed its labors to-day. The witnesses examined were Dr. Burbank, N. D. Casteen, Walter Way, James Canada, R. H. Moore and Ferney Legwin. The testimony was substantially the same as that before the Mayor yesterday. The jury found that W. T. Brown came to his death at the hands of Walter Yates and J. M. Woollard, on the 17th day of January, 1890, in the house of Emma Jackson.

This is a verdict of murder and Yates and Woollard were therefore committed for trial without bail. Messrs. Marsden Bellamy and John D. Bellamy, Jr., appear as counsel for Woollard and instantly sued out a writ of habeas corpus, to be heard before Judge Meares at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

Confidence Begot of Success.
 The confidence possessed by the manufacturers of Dr. Sarg's Catarrh Remedy in their ability to cure the worst cases of nasal catarrh, no matter of how long standing, is attested in a most substantial manner by their standing reward of $500, offered for many years past, for an incurable case of this loathsome and dangerous disease. The Remedy is sold by druggists, at only 50 cents. It is mild, soothing, cleansing, deodorizing, antiseptic and healing.

Dear Mr. French:
 Last Saturday's Raleigh News and Observer arrived here safely this morning. It has taken only three days to travel from Raleigh to Wilmington. Friday's and Saturday's Charlotte News has not yet arrived but we expect them here in a few days. The Goldboro Argus for Friday and Saturday got here last night but the Sunday issue is yet on the way. Saturday's and Sunday's Newbern Journal arrived here last night in company. These are a few of the idiosyncracies of the mail service of late.

Fezler & Wagner, druggists, Rock Island, Ill., write: "Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is the leading Cough medicine in our city. We sell more, in fact four times more, than of any other."
