THE DAILY REVIEW

VOL. XIV. WILMINGTON, N. C. THURSDAY, JANUARY 23, 1890. NO. 34.

Miss Mary Angela Dickens, granddaughter of the novelist, is the latest member of the family to join the ranks of writers. She wrote a Christmas story this year entitled
"A Social Success."

Edmund C. Stedman, the point, says that the gripe is a result of vapors through which our planet is passing on its way round its orbit.
He contends that the greater the elevation the worse the gripe.

Mr. Gladstone will return to London for the parliamentary season on the 29th. He is at present wholly engrossed in the selection and arrangement of the 18,000 volumes which he is to place in the public library at Hawarden.

Senator Evarts is noted for being a courteous gentleman. Even in the bustle of a big city crowd he never fails to lift his hat and bow if, by any chance, he runs into any one of the fair pedestrians who throng the thoroughfare.

William Arendt and Mrs. Susan Isley were married the other day in the Dickson county, Kan., poorhouse. The groom is 70 and the bride is 67 years old. It is comfortable to hear of a wedding occasionally to which no suspicion of mercenary motives attaches.

Monto Cristo Island, in the Mediterranean, rendered famous by the thrilling romance of the elder Dumas, has recently been purchased by a Florentine millionaire, the Marquis Carlo Guignononi, who intends to build a magnificent chateau in the finest part of the place.

We regret to hear of the death of Mr. Henry S. Nunn, the able and accomplished editor of the Newbern Journal. He died on Tuesday afternoon, after a lingering illness. The paper appeared yesterday in mourning for him. Mr. Nunn was born in 1844. He enlisted in the Confederate Army when only 17 years of age and saw active and arduous and honorable service. He was a true, honest, upright man in every sense of the word. Peace to his ashes.

The fact that fifty-five thousand persons were convicted of criminal offenses in the State of New York last year will not, says the Alexandria Gazette, strike a single Northern South-hating Republican as at all indicative of a predisposition to crime among the people of that State, nor will it induce a single Northern Republican Congressman to introduce a resolution in Congress for the appointment of a Congressional committee to inquire into the cause of the deplorable condition referred to, and to report a remedy therefor.

In the treatment of rheumatism, gout, neuralgia, tic douloureux, semi-crania, sciatica, &c., Salvation Oil should be applied to the parts affected, and thoroughly rubbed in, so as to reach the seat of the disease.
It kills pain. Price 25 cents a bottle.

Ger. barque Antares, Rahden, cleared to-day for Hull with 1,750 shipped by Messrs. Robinson & King.

Mr. Hewett's dancing school opened auspiciously last night at Germania Hall, where a gentlemen's class was formed. A ladies' class was opened at the same place this afternoon.

This morning was the coldest of the season. Ice formed plentifully in all exposed places, but as the atmosphere was very dry it is probable that the fruit and the young plants escaped injury.

At 7 o'clock this morning the thermometer registered 27.4 at this place.
This is 4.6 degrees below the freezing point. It was snowing right briskly at Weldon at 2 o'clock this afternoon and we may possibly have a little of it here to-night.

Mr. John F. Garrell has a few beautiful stall-fed Sampson county beef cattle, which will be on sale at his stalls in Front street market tomorrow and Saturday. There is no better meat in the world than this famous stall-fed Sampson beef.

At 12 o'clock to-morrow, at the Court House door, Mr. H. A. London, Commissioner, will sell the one-half interest of the late Mrs. Sally J.
Moore in the large brick building on North Front street, adjoining Toomer's alley and just south of the Purcell House.

The city authorities are laying some good hard material in the driveway on Dock street, east of Sixth. It is the tar waste from the C. F. & Y. V. premises at the foot of Mulberry street. It makes a good, hard healthy roadway and bids fair to last forever and a day.

Capt. Al. Ingram, and Messrs. J.
G. L. Gieschen and J. W. Duls left here this afternoon for Mr. Geo. H.
Bellamy's place in Brunswick county on a hunting expedition. They are well prepared for emergencies, and carried with them a large hamper of provisions, hunting accoutrements, and a full supply of ammunition, of various kinds.

Cruelty to Animals, at their adjourned meeting elected officers for the #### Confidence Begot of Success.

The confidence possessed by the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy in their ability to cure the worst cases of nasal catarrh, no matter of how long standing, is attested in a most substantial manner by their standing reward of $500, offered for many years past, for an incurable case of this loathsome and dangerous disease. The Remedy is sold by druggists, at only 50 cents.
It is mild, soothing, cleansing, deodorizing, antiseptic and healing.

Refreshing and Invigorating
