It has been an exceedingly warm day, notwithstanding the fact that the wind has been from the Northwest part of the time.

The case of Julia Hart vs. Godfrey Hart, for divorce, occupied the time of the Superior Court to-day. It was out on trial at our close.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Haid was here yesterday and preached two very fine sermons at St. Thomas' Church, one in the forenoon and the other at night.

There is complaint at the Sounds that some of the fishermen use nets with a smaller-mesh than is allowed by law, which is 1 1/2 inches. Somebody may get into trouble about it.

Do not pin your paper collar on the back of your under-shirt, when you can buy a good flannelette shirt at 25 cents, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, No. 122 Market street. †

The ground moss, yellow jessamine and trailing arbutus (by some called wax plant and by others May flower) are in bloom now in the woods near the city, fully two months in advance of the usual time.

Messrs. Moore & Bro. have a card in this issue. They have opened with a nice stock of groceries, tobacco, cigars, etc., on North Front street, near Mulberry, to which the attention of the public is invited.

Cutlery. Our stock of Standard Cutlery is very complete. We keep everything in this line that you can possibly desire, and our prices are the lowest. Drop in and look at our assortment. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. †

Mr. W. J. Crosswell, Superintendent of the South Atlantic division of the Southern Express Co., has removed his family to the city and they are now domiciled on South Third street, between Ann and Nun.

The gripe has invaded the Germania Band to such an extent that three of the committee for the masquerade ball are down with it.
 Hence the ball will not take place on Wednesday night, as intended, but has been postponed.

Capt. Jno. W. Plummer, for many years past a resident of Robeson county, has removed to the city and has opened a family grocery, confectionery and fruit store at No. 13 North Second street. He is a clever gentleman in every sense of the word and we hope he will find here the success he so richly merits.

Having been troubled with a throat affection for 10 years, and having been under the treatment of some of the best physicians, without experiencing any relief whatever, I concluded to try Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup —the first dose relieved and a twenty-five cent bottle cured me. C. T.
 Wambling, 331 Fayette street, Baltimore, Md.

Somewhat cooler weather is pronounced for to-morrow.

Large forest fires are raging in Brunswick county; the woods, as seen from the city, are full of smoke.

Mr. R. D. Dickson was to-day appointed a policeman to fill a vacancy caused by Mr. M. Chadwick, who resigned to take a place on a steamer.

The officers of the Wilmington Light Infantry have been presented with memorial medals of the late President Jefferson Davis, by Col.
 Jno. L. Cantwell, who represented the company at the funeral in New Orleans.

His Honor the Mayor and gentlemen of the Board of Aldermen: Please make some arrangements for roadways in the heavily sanded streets up town and oblige several thousand tax payers and constituents.

A party paid ten dollars for a horse at an auction sale. The horse was lame, bruised all over, had the scratches, and was terribly "galled." A bottle of Salvation Oil, costing 25 cents, was used, and in two weeks you would not have known the animal.
 It is now valued at two hundred dollars.

We invite attention to the advertisement of Mr. H. A. Tucker, proprietor of the marble yard on Front street, just North of Mulberry. He has turned out some beautiful work in his line of late and the taste which he displays, his moderate prices, and his promptitude in filling orders are causing a rapid increase in his business.

No Truth in It.
 The Charlotte News, which published the rumor that Mr. Sol. Haas would be appointed General Manager of the Richmond and Danville system, has received a telegram from Capt. W. H. Green, the General Superintendent, stating that there is no truth whatever in the rumor and that no change is contemplated.

The Fire This morning.
 The alarm of fire this morning at 5 o'clock, sent in from box 25, was caused by the burning of a one story frame dwelling on Seventh, between Bladen and Swann streets, owned and occupied by M. Watters, colored.
 The building was insured for $125, in the Georgia Home Insurance Co., of Columbus, represented here by Messrs. Northrop, Hodges & Taylor.

City Court.
 The following cases were disposed of by the Mayor to-day: John Roderick, cows running at large, fined $10.
 Bessie Standback, disorderly conduct, $20 or 30 days.
 Rilla Giles, disorderly conduct, $20 or 30 days.
 Alex. McIntire, disorderly conduct, $10 or 20 days.

Belford's Magazine.
 The February number of Belford's Magazine, now at hand, is full of interesting matter. The leading article is the second part and conclusion of the late Ex-President Davis' remarkable papers on "Andersonville and other War Prisons." Mr.
 Davis' proofs and conclusions are both indisputable and they show, most conclusively, just where lies the blame for the fearful mortality at Andersonville, resting it upon the shoulders of the Federal authorities at Washington City. "Out of the Night and the Other World" is a very pleasing story; "The New English Invasion;" "Chimeras Dire," "Little Buttons," "A Tardy Recognition," "The Auditorium at Chicago," and "The University of Michigan" are all good papers and readable. H. K. Thurber tells "Why I am a Protectionist" and the complete novel for the month, "By Might or Right," by Irene Farrar, is very good. There are several fine poems in the number and the editorial department, as is always the case in this excellent monthly, will attract universal attention. Published at New York and Chicago at $2.50 a year.

Doomed to die, and oh, so young.
 Is there nothing that can save This poor, hopeless sufferer From the dark and cruel grave?
 Comes an answer: "Yes, there is:
 'Favorite Prescription' try."
 It has saved the lives of thousands Who were given up to die."
 For all "female diseases," Dr.
 Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the standard remedy, and no woman should despair of recovery until she has given it a trial.
