From memoranda of the late Henry W. Grady it has been found that during the year 1889 he made loans to various people in amounts from $50 to $400, the whole aggregating more than $13,000. Most of this is collectable, and makes a substantial addition to the editor's estate.

Gov. Weternan of California is a Republican, but is not popular with his party. Says a Republican organ.
"He fondly imagines that he will be re-elected, but since the days of old Bigler California has never had so incompetent a Governor as Waterman, and he will discover his unpopularity when the next convention meets."

The Prince of Wales wears a No.
10 boot, while his dress pumps are of the finest German patent leather and No. 9 in size. The Princess Louise wears a No. 5 in a walking boot or a No. 4 1/2 in Oxford ties. In her wardrobe there are a couple of pairs of shoes to match every dress, and a lot of colored Russia leather, morocco and black shoes.

Mrs. John A. Logan has become distinctly a literary woman, and each day finds her in the editorial chair presiding over her Home Magazine. The cares of editorial work have certainly not left their traces on Mrs. Logan's face. She retains her perfect health and seems contented in her new work. Her hair is now snow white.

Zorilla, the most popular Spanish Republican, is living quietly in Paris. He lives in furnished lodgings, and never goes into society.
He is fairly well off but not wealthy.
He has been fifteen years in exile, but has never for a moment lost faith in the ultimate triumph of his cause. The worst thing said against him is that he constantly smokes cigarettes.

Dr. Lucien Howe says blindness has increased in the State of New York during the past five years thirteen times as fast as the population; and the State charities commissioners state that the excess in the increase of the insane in the State over the increase in its population for the last nine years has been more than 44 per cent. These figures are most startling, especially when it is considered that the modes of treating the eyes and brain are supposed to have been so much improved of late years.

An admirable arrangement looking to the quick and safe emptying of the house has just been adopted at the Tremont Theatre in Boston.
At any time, by simply touching a button in any one of the eight handy places in different parts of the theatre seventeen sets of folding doors, leading to as many exits open simultaneously, actuated by electrical apparatus. The expense of the improvements is said to have been considerable, but it is safe to say that the public will appreciate the advantage of being able to take their pleasure without any dread of fire or panic.

The Charlotte Chronicle devotes a column and a half of yesterday's issue to a resume of the outlook in the Congressional contest. It says that Col. Rowland will ask to be returned for another term and that some of Capt. Alexander's friends are pressing him forward for the nomination, while others think that he had best hold back and wait for Gov. Fowle's old shoes and that from thence to the Senate in Gen.
Ransom's place in 1895 is "as sure as eggs." A very pleasing outlook for the Alexandrians, but one not so patent to outsiders. In addition the Chronicle mentions the names of Col. H. C. Jones, F. B. McDowell, Frank I. Osborne and Maj. Dowd, Meeklenburg, Paul B. Menns, of Ca-barus, David Covington, of Monroe, and J. T. LeGrand, of Richmond. New Hanover it rules out of the contest, inasmuch as it claims that Col. Rowland is from this end of the district. But, dear brother, the convention hasn't met yet and many slates will be covered all over with hieroglyphics and then smashed all to thunder before the final outcome will be known.

"Twill save you lots of money And many a doctor's bill; Bronchitis, cold, or hoarseness, Bull's Cough Syrup will kill.

Gov. Campbell, of Ohio, says Mr.
Cleveland is the strongest man in the Democratic party, and that all of the little booms will wither and die before 1892.

Time hath its revenges. Another of Mrs. Surratt's murderers has been called to the bar of Divine Justice. This time it is Gen. John A. Foster, of the Union army during the late war. He was a lawyer and prosecuted Mrs. Surratt and saw the poor, innocent woman suffer a dreadful death on the gallows. A dreadful nemesis overtook him. For the last two years he has been a drunken ocast. He was found dead on Tuesday morning in New York, in the rear room of a little office occupied by a man who was formerly his orderly and wrapped in an old army blanket. It is a curious fact that nearly every one of Mrs.
Surratt's murderers has died either by suicide or in great destitution.

will go up to Goldsboro from this city on next Sunday morning, on the occasion of the dedication of St.

made up at Fayetteville. They left that city at 5 o'clock this morning and have traveled slowly, with many stops, making a careful inspection of everything as they proceed, preliminary, we suppose, to formally receiving the road from the builders, the North State Construction Co.

Its Excellent Qualities Commend to public approval the California liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs. It is pleasing to the eye, and to the taste and by gently acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, it cleanses the system effectually, thereby promoting the health and comfort of all who use it.

"Too Young to Die." We regret very much to learn of the death last night of Mr. Louis M. Liebman, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Liebman. The deceased was not yet 18 years of age and was a fine, promising young man, of admirable habits of character, the pride of his parents and admired and loved and esteemed by all who knew him. His death is a bitter blow.

Saw Mills on the C. F. & Y. V.

There are just 98 steam saw mills and planing mills and dry kilns on the line of the C. F. & Y. V. R. R., between Bennettsville and Mount Airy. To be exact, there are 85 steam saw mills and 13 planing mills and dry kilns. This is on the old parts of the road. There are others in operation on the new line between this city and Fayetteville.
There are five of these now, all put up since work on the road was begun, and others will be in operation at an early day. All of these mills saw pine lumber. The list as completed—which means that the mills
are not included in the count—is as follows:

STEAM SAW MILLS.
Bennettsville, 2; Hasty, 2; Stuarts, 1; Floral College, 3; Wakulla, 1; Red Springs, 12; Shandon, 4; Lumber Bridge, 4; Hope Mills, 1; Fayetteville, 2; Manchester, 1; Spout Springs, 1; Swann's Station, 3; Jonesboro, 1; Sanford, 1; Gulf, 1; Goldston, 4; Richmond, 3; Ore Hill, 4; Siler City, 1; Staley, 5; Liberty, 1; Millboro, 1; Greensboro, 2; Madison, 1; Stokes-dale, 3; Walnut Cove, 6; German-ton, 1; Rural Hall, 2; Pinnacle, 2; Pilot Mountain, 2; Ararat, 1; Mt.
Airy, 3.

PLANING MILLS AND DRY KILNS
Red Springs, 3; Fayetteville, 1;
Manchester, 1; Spout Springs, 1; Siler City, 1; Staley, 1; Greensboro, 3; Walnut Cove, 2.

A large amount of this lumber will undoubtedly be hauled to Wilmington and take water here, either for the foreign or coastwise trade, and this will be only one of the many benefits accruing to us from the completion of the road to this city.

Strong Men.
Women love strong men. A weak man may excite their sympathy and a woman's careful tenderness soothe and soften the anguish of a weak man's soul, but the laughing, joyous, warm, exuberant love of women dear, belongs to the men that are strong and noble and kind. Then why will a man continue weak, and mean and peevish?

An old gentleman writes: "B. B.
B. gives me new life and strength.
If there is anything that will make an old man young, it is B. B. B." Some men say, and women too, they never feel weak and mean except in the spring. Why then feel weak and mean and nervous and prostrated in the spring time when life and spirit awakens with thrilling buoyancy even the vegetable world? Must you allow sluggish blood, inactive organic functions, rusty joints and general weakness to make your life miserable simply because the long winter has restrained your natural activity? It need not be. If only you will use that pleasant and incomparable tonic blood purifier known as B. B. B., or Botanic Blood Balm your health in spring time will be all that you can wish. Try it this spring. Try it now.

P. A. Shepherd, Norfolk, Va., August 10, 1888, writes: "I depend on B. B. B. for the preservation of my health. I have had it in my family now nearly two years, and in all that time have not had to have a doctor."

Marriage at St. James.
Mr. Walter L. Holt, of Alamance county, was happily married last night, in St. James Church, to Miss Mary, daughter of Col. W. L. De-Rosset, of this city. The marriage rite was solemnized by Rev. Robert Strange, the Rector. The church, which was beautifully decorated and prepared for the occasion, was full long before the arrival of the hour for the ceremony, which was set for half-past 7 o'clock. There were twelve bridesmaids, and these marched in twos from the chancel down the main aisle and met the bride as she appeared at the front door and thence conducted her to the altar, as she leant on her father's arm.
The bride was met there by the groom and his brother, who acted as best man, and then the service began. As the nuptial blessing was pronounced the bridesmaids, formed in two lines, one on each side of the chancel, knelt at the same time as did the newly-wedded pair. Then the bridal party passed from the church. The universal sentiment seemed to be that it was one of the most beautiful weddings ever solemnized within the walls of the old church.

The attendants were as follows:
Mr. Ed. Holt, of Burlington, N. C.; and Miss Ruffin, of Hillsboro; Mr. J.
H. Holt, of Burlington, and Miss Kate DeRosset; Lieutenant James Hughes, U. S. A., and Miss Callie Reid French; Mr. F. L. Meares and Miss Bessie Graham, of Charlotte; Mr. Benehan Cameron and Miss Hanna Bolles; Mr. Frank Myers and Miss Mabel Curtis; Mr. Armand
Myers and Miss Louise DeRosset; Mr. L. H. Meares and Miss Mary Lily Kenan; Mr. Wm. Williamson, of Graham, and Miss Annie Blount DeRosset; Mr. Locke Erwin, of Graham, and Miss Lottie Myers; Mr.
C. B. Mallett and Miss Gabrielle DeRosset; Mr. Ed. Tennent and Miss Carrie Myers. The ribbon boys were Masters Swift Boatwright and Gaston Myers.

The bridal party drove from the church to the residence of Mrs. Kate DeR. Meares, on Fifth street, where a reception to the bride was given and where the rooms were thronged during the evening by those who called to congratulate the happy couple. The fair young bride has been esteemed as one of the most charming and lovely young ladies of the many whom our city is proud to claim and the regret is great that her home is not to be here. At 10 o'clock Mr. Holt and his bride left for Front street depot, where they embarked on the 10:15 train for an extended tour of the South and Southwest. On their return they will go direct to their home at Burlington.

They Pay $500, or Cure.
For many years the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, who are thoroughly responsible, financially, have offered in good faith, through nearly every newspaper in the land, a standing reward of $500 for a case of nasal catarrh, no matter how bad, or of how long standing, which they cannot cure.
The Remedy is sold by druggists at only 50 cents. It is mild, soothing, cleansing, deodorizing, antiseptic and healing.

Finday, O., has sixteen glass factories running.

Marriage at the First Presbyterian.

The was a large congregation in attendance last night at the First Presbyterian Church to witness the marriage of Mr. John Roddick, formerly of this city, but more recently of Fayetteville, to Miss Maggie M.
Sprunt, a lovely and accomplished young lady of this city. The sacred edifice was brilliantly illuminated with the electric chandeliers and the scene was a brightly beautiful one. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Peyton H. Hoge, D. D., pastor of the church; Miss Anna Sprunt was at the organ and rendered the exquisite wedding march from Wagner's Lohengrin as the bridal party advanced up the main aisle.
The accompanying attendants were Mr. Kirkland Huske and Miss Isabel Bryan and Misses Maggie Hall and Isabel Black, as flower girls.

The ushers were Messrs. W. H.
Howell and John D. Williams, the third.

Mr. and Mrs. Roddick left on the midnight train for a tour North and will proceed thence to their home at Fayetteville.

The New President.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, held yesterday at Baltimore, Mr. Warren G. Elliott was unanimously elected President of the road. It is expected that Mr.
Warren will remove with his family to this city about the first of March and take charge of the duties of his new position then. Maj. Creeey, of the Elizabeth City Economist, an old friend of Mr. Warren's father, has this to say in the last issue of his paper:

Some of our older citizens can remember a little fat, chubby boy who some thirty years ago shot marbles and crept "like snail unwill-ingly to school" on the streets of Elizabeth City. That boy was Warren Elliott, who removed from this town to Norfolk, Va., about twenty years ago. He has just been elected to the place of President of the Wilmington and Weldon R. R. with the snug salary of $10,000 and Betsy rejoices and sends greeting to her lucky boy. Blood will tell, and the blood of the Elliotts confirms the adage. Gilbert Elliott, the father of Warren, was a born lawyer and logician. He was a self made man and when a boy was taken into his law office, by Charles R. Kinny, the leading lawyer on the circuit at that time, who recognized the talent of the young boy and became his patron. Mr. Kinny was proud of his student when he came to the bar, and was often put to the top of his mettle to parry his professional blows. Gilbert Elliott fell early in the battle of life, but he lived long enough to give assurance of the great distinction that awaited him, and when he died he ranked among the great lawyers in North Carolina.
He had several brothers, all of whom were gifted men, and their children have been favorite sons of nature.
It has been and is a remarkable race of men, and it has been a characteristic of the race, that while they are not slow in development, they are slow of perfect maturity. They progress to the end and their latest fruits are their best. They came originally from the county of Camden and the father of Warren was born just over the ferry in Camden county. We extend to him, as his friend and friend of his father, our sincere congratulations upon the appointment. We also express our assurance that he will probably return again to the bosom of his old mother State.
