J. D. NUTT—Full Stock of everything

Lenten services were held to day in all of the Episcopal Churches and in St. Thomas' Roman Catholic Church.

"Why doesn't he take Hood's Saparilla?" is the general inquiry of friends when a person suffers from any disease of the blood.

When ready to build, paint or repair you will find it to your advantage to buy your material of the N.
Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Ger. barque Ferdinand, During, cleared to day for Stettin, with 3,409 bbls. rosin, valued at $4,850, shipped by Paterson, Downing & Co.

Every week from now we make up new and handsome styles of Flannelette Shirts at 25 cents at our Shirt Factory, 122 Market St.

"It pleases me so I shall use no other," is what the farmers said when asked about the Boy Clipper Plow, sold by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

We were pleased to receive a visit to day from Mr. F. W. Hilker, Manager of the Robert Portner Brewing Co. at Goldsboro, who is here on a brief business visit.

Paint your Buggy for 75 cents, "6 bits," with Detroit car. Paint, a varnish and paint combined. Guaranteed to give satisfaction. Sold by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Ger. barque Bertha, Kruse, cleared to day for Liverpool with 3,300 bbls. tar, 345 bbls. gum thus, 483 bbls rosin and 188 casks spirits, valued at $11,270, shipped by Messrs. Alex.
Sprunt & Son.

Rev. J. P. Pritchard, the aged father of Rev. Dr. Thomas H. Pritchard, of this city, and a venerable minister of the gospel, died at Crook-ett, Texas, on the 11th inst, very nearly 84 years of age.

The Sanford Express of last Saturday's date is here at last this Wednesday morning. Sanford is but a night's ride from Wilmington and if mailed on Friday (as in all probability it was) it ought to have reached us Saturday morning, four days ago.

At the meeting of the Wilmington Light Infantry, held last night, the method of entertaining the Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry, on their proposed visit here next Monday, was discussed and it was decided to take them right through to Wrightsville and treat them to a big oyster roast there, with "fixins" of course. A rousing welcome will of course be accorded them on their arrival here.

Quietly Doing Good.

Messrs. Fore & Foster, proprietors of the steam sash and blind factory in this city, do a great deal of good in a quiet way. On the third Saturday in every month the odds and ends from the factory, instead of being sold, are given to the poor.
This amounts to from 10 to 20 cords on each occasion. From 75 to 100 women and children are present at 1 o'clock on each of the Saturdays named, waiting the sound of the whistle, which signals the hour for the distribution. Mr. J. J. Burnett has made a spirited photograph of one of those scenes.

Bright's Disease.

This insidious ailment, if too long neglected, will undermine the strongest constitution and bring the victim to a premature grave. Heed the timely warning, and regain health at once by a use of the proper restorative, that great strengthener of the urinary and digestive organs, B.
B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm).
David Runkel, Gullman, Georgia, writes: "I used a hundred dollars worth of medicine for Bright's disease, but it did me no good. I then took B. B. B., which relieved me.
My appetite is restored and I urinate without pain."
J. A. Maddox, Atlanta, Ga., writes:
"I had great trouble in passing urine which was filled with sediments. My back and loins gave me much pain and I lost my appetite, strength and flesh. I became nervous and unable to sleep soundly.
Two bottles of B. B. B. gave me entire relief."
Thomas Williams, Soddy, Tenn., writes: "I was troubled with severe kidney complaint and confined to my bed. Six bottles of B. B. B. made a well man of me."

Forecasts.

For North Carolina, fair and colder weather. For Wilmington and vicinity, fair weather.

An Important Ruling.

An interesting and very important ruling has just been made by the department of Internal Revenue, bearing upon the question of the retailing of liquor by the drug stores.
The ruling is that drug stores that retail liquor are to take out a retail whiskey tax. The ruling sets forth that no druggist will be allowed to sell whiskey, even on a physician's prescription, without having taken out a retail license. They are allowed to compound whiskey as a medicine, but cannot sell the straight stuff under any circumstances without a license. This ruling has been published in a Louisville paper.

The Parade and Ball.

The 34th anniversary of Howard Relief Fire Engine Co. No. 1 was celebrated in good style to day. In full uniform and preceded by the Germania Cornet Band, and with the engine and hose reel beautifully decorated with evergreens and flowers, the company paraded through some of our principal streets, winding up at the engine house, when the ranks were broken, the engine and reel stalled and the company and their guests proceeded up stairs to Adrian Hall where lunch was spread and where a few toasts were proposed. To night there will be a grand ball at Adrian Hall and this will handsomely close the anniversary.

Charming Clerical Coincidence.

On last evening's train from the North were three Wilmington clergymen returning to their homes in this city, each of whom had been called hence to unite a happy couple in wedlock. The clergymen were Rev. F. W. E. Peschman, of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, who had been to Burgaw to unite in marriage Mr.
John H. Tienken and Miss Fannie Walker, daughter of Mr. Edward Walker, of Long Creek, Pender county; Rev. Robert Strange, of St.
James' Episcopal Church, who had been to New York to celebrate the marriage of his brother, Col. Thos.
W. Strange, to Miss Florence A.
Rogers, of California, and Rev.
Father Moore, of St. Thomas' Catholic Church, who had been to Warsaw, Duplin county, to unite a couple, the names of whom we have forgotten. This is certainly a charming clerical coincidence—three happy-hearted couples and three happy clergymen.

Violin Concert.

The violin concert by young lady violinists of this city, at Luther Memorial Building, on Friday night, the 21st inst., will be a notable event in the musical history of Wilmington, which should awaken a deep interest in all real lovers of the divine science. Violin playing is much cultivated by young ladies in the larger cities of the country and throughout all the musical centres of Europe, and many lady violinists are reckoned in the front rank of this "King of Instruments." To those who have had the exquisite pleasure of listening to Camilla Urso it is needless to speak of the great possibilities which lie within woman's grasp as an artist in the highest development of music, and we are glad that some of the young ladies of our city are taking these steps in musical culture as it will tend to lead others in the same direction. The concert will be inter-sprinkled with other vocal and instrumental music by the best amateur talent in the city, and the pieces selected will constitute a programme of rare excellence, to miss the hearing of which would be a real misfortune. The concert heretofore given at Luther Memorial Building have ever been successful and of a high order—never a failure, and this coming event will undoubtedly eclipse them all. The guiding spirit of the entertainment is Rev. F. W.
E. Peschman, to whom the people of Wilmington are deeply indebted for his efforts in advancing the knowledge and love of good music.

"Yes, you'll find people ready enough, to do the good Samaritan, without the oil and two-pence"— so, also, you find the whole American population ready to recommend Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup—but only really good men, ready to offer a quarter to buy a bottle."

Its Excellent Qualities

Commend to public approval the California liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs. It is pleasing to the eye, and to the taste and by gently acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, it cleanses the system effectually, thereby promoting the health and comfort of all who use it.

Mr. Pearson Sick Again.

The many friends and admirers here of Rev. R. G. Pearson, the evangelist, will regret to learn that he is again quite sick. He has been holding meetings in Baltimore and on Sunday night it was found necessary to suspend them. Mr. Pearson has gone home, sick with fever. He thinks that overwork is the cause of his illness. He had been making good headway in Baltimore and had already done a great deal of good there. As soon as his health is sufficiently restored, he will return to Baltimore and resume his work there.

Joint Meeting Last Night.

The meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and the Y. M. C. Association last night at the rooms of the Association was well attended.

After devotional exercises conducted by Rev. W. S. Creasy, the business of the meeting was taken up and reports were submitted by some of the committees. The Membership Committee presented forty-nine applications for membership, and all the applicants were received into the Association.

Delegates to the State Convention of the Y. M. C. A., which meets at Goldsboro, were then elected, as follows: D. G. Worth, R. W. Hicks, Roger Moore, W. M. Little, B. F.
Hall, P. B. Manning, H. C. McQueen, W. M. Cumming, C. C. Brown, W.
H. Howell, J. C. Stevenson, F. L.
Huggins, D. C. Whitted, B. F. King, DuB. Cutlar, E. S. Tennent, J. S.
Allen, A. J. Howell, Jr., J. R. Turrentine, Jr., J. M. Woodward.

Mr. Tennent announced that the promised address by Col. A. M.
Waddell had been postponed, on account of the death of Dr. W. G.
Thomas.

Wedding in Pender.

The home of Mr. Ed. D. Walker, one of the oldest residents of Long Creek Township, Pender county, was the scene of a joyous occasion yesterday, at 2 p. m., Miss Fannie Walker, the oldest daughter, and one of the handsomest ladies in Pender county, was united in marriage to Mr. John H. Tienken, formerly of this city but now of Atlanta, Ga. Rev. F. W. E. Peschman united the happy couple, using the beautiful Lutheran service on the occasion.
A large number of friends gathered from far and near. Mrs. Galloway, from our city, and Mrs. Loftin, of Kinston, were among the guests. A bountiful repast was served and a happy time enjoyed. The newly-wedded couple passed through our city last night on the way to their new home. A family reception was tendered them at the residence of Dr. F. C. Miller, corner Fourth and Nun streets, where the relatives and invited guests spent a most enjoyable evening and afterwards accompanied the couple to the train.
Pender and New Hanover counties bid them God-speed and hope they will grandly succeed among the Georgia "crackers" for the "tar heels" can succeed almost anywhere.

Resolutions.

Whereas, We are a free and enlightened people, and in duty bound to take the greatest care of the health of the community in general and of ourselves in particular. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That in all cases where we are afflicted with constipation, inactive or diseased liver, biliousness, derangement of the stomach, jaundice and kidney troubles—we will procure Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets and use the same immediately.

Death of Dr. Thomas.

At 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, just about the time our paper was put to press, the soul of that noble, courteous, cheerful, Christian gentleman, Dr. William George Thomas, passed the confines of earth and entered upon the fathomless sea of eternity. His death was not unexpected as he was the victim of a terribly treacherous disease which not often relaxes its hold upon its victim.

Dr. Thomas was born in Louisburg, in this State, and was in the 72nd year of his age. Early in life he removed to Tarboro, where he married, and in 1851 he came to Wilmington and cast in his lot with our people. He was a successful, skillful practitioner, and stood at the head of his profession, not only in this State but in the entire South. The innate nobleness and heroism of his character shone out in bright colors during the dreadful yellow fever epidemic in 1862 when he remained manfully at his post here until himself stricken with the disease. He was a man of magnificent physique and in general of remarkable robust health. He had served as President of the State Medical Society and for years past had been President of the New Hanover County Medical Society. He was one of the original projectors of the Wilmington Library Association and for years subsequent to the war was President of the Association. For nearly a quarter of a century he has been a member of the Vestry of St. James' Church. He leaves a widow and two sons to mourn his departure.

It is difficult to realize at the moment the loss to any community of such a man as Dr. Thomas. He was not only the eminent physician, the sincere Christian, the truly upright man, and the public spirited citizen, but he was the genial, courteous, accomplished gentleman, whose familiar features will be missed from the accustomed haunts, whose kindly smile will nevermore be seen upon earth and the friendly grasp of whose hand will be lost to all.
Few men upon this earth have deserved more of their fellows and few —we reverently say it—could afford to lay down the burden of life more cheerfully with the assured hope, the almost unimpeachable certainty, of the blissful reward that awaits in another world those who have so well, and so faithfully, borne the burden and the heat of life's little day.

Dr. Thomas' remains were to-day tenderly laid away to rest in Oak-dale's beautiful city of the dead, there to calmly await the resurrection morn. The funeral took place at the residence and a long line of mourners followed them to their last resting place. It was one of the largest funerals we have ever seen in Wilmington and this fact alone is an eloquent attestation to his worth and to the grief felt by all at the bereavement which has fallen upon us. During the hours of the funeral every drug store in the city was closed and all who could attended the obsequies. The active pall-bearers were Capt. W. R. Kennan, Capt. John T. Rankin, Mr.
R. N. Sweet, Capt. J. H. Daniel, Col.
W. C. Jones, and Mr. E. S. Martin.
The honorary pall-bearers were Dr.
A. J. DeRosset, Hon. Geo. Davis, and Mr. Donald MacRae.
The members of the Vestry of St.
James' and of the New Hanover County Medical Society attended as bodies.

As a remedy for accidents common to every day life, such as cuts, bruises, sprains, burns, scalds, frost-bites, and bites of poisonous insects, Salvation Oil has no equal in the market. It literally annihilates pain. Price twenty-five cents a bottle.

Refreshing and invigorating Delicious Soda Water as drawn from Mundy Brothers' magnificent new soda fountain at a temperature of 34°. Purest Fruit Syrup, Milk Shakes and Natural Mineral Water.
