Mr. J. T. Collins, of Burgaw, is in the city to-day.

Boys! we can sell you a Bracket Saw, with frame, for 10 cents. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Capt. McIntire offers for sale several pieces of valuable real estate. See ad. in this issue.

We are glad to learn that Mr. M. M. Katz continues to improve. He hopes to get out next week.

A change in the weather is imminent. We think it likely that it will be much colder here by Saturday.

A ride down to Wrightsville and a roast of Myrtle Grove oysters at Stokley's is the correct thing now.

The waters of the Cape Fear are yellow now with clay from the interior, brought down on the fresher.

The wind blew some big guns here this forenoon. The highest velocity attained was 24 miles to the hour.

We are sorry to hear that Capt. R. M. McIntire is laid up sick at the home, probably with an attack of the grip.

There is a dangerous hole, dug by dogs, in the plaza on Market street, opposite this office, which should be attended to.

Salvation Oil, the greatest cure on earth for pain, as an anodyne has no equal in the market. It is without doubt the best liniment. Price 25 cents a bottle.

When ready to build, paint or repair you will find it to your advantage to buy your material of the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

It is probable that more new buildings have gone up in this city during the past twelve months than in any previous three years.

Every week from now we make up new, and handsome styles of Flannelette Shirts at 25 cents at our Shirt Factory, 122 Market St.

"It pleases me so I shall use no other," is what the farmer said when asked about the Boy Clipper Plow, sold by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Messrs. Chas. F. Browne & Co. are to-day removing their stock of goods into their new quarters, the Wessell building, at the foot of Mulberry street.

This is the time to set out shade trees. But don't give up everything to the elm and the oak but try a few pecan trees and the shell-bark hickory.

The cold wave signal was ordered up here at 10:30 o'clock this morning. The temperature will fall to about 36 degrees by 8 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Br. barque Kamehameha, Chilton, cleared to-day for Fleetwood, with 4,112 bbls. rosin, valued at $6,000, shipped by Messrs. Paterson, Downing & Co.

The 400 bunches of bananas advertised for sale by Messrs. Cronly & Morris, in the REVIEW, were all bought by the enterprising fruiterer, Mr. A. S. Winstead.

Paint your Buggy for 75 cents, "6 bits," with Detroit carb. Paint, a varnish and paint combined. Guaranteed to give satisfaction. Sold by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

We thank a kind friend at Burgaw for a report of the marriage of Mr. John H. Tienken and Miss Fannie Walker, on Tuesday last, but it was anticipated in the report published by us yesterday afternoon.

The violin, the king of instruments, touched by fairy fingers! This is the programme for to-morrow night at Luther Memorial Building. It will be a rare treat to all lovers of good music and certainly none should miss it.

The woods near the city are putting on their spring garb now, and the jessamines are in full bloom while the ground moss, the most beautiful little flower that grows anywhere, and peculiar to this immediate section, is found almost everywhere.

Hon. Wharton J. Green, of Fayetteville, was in the city to-day.

New ballast sidewalks are being laid on the North side of Nun street, between Front and Third.

Some of the city force are engaged in relaying a portion of the block pavement at the intersection of Front and Orange streets.

We do not think that it will be cold enough to-morrow morning to hurt vegetation but it will require fires and overcoats for comfort.

The Winston Daily hears that the C. F. & Y. V. people will build through from Bennettsville to Charleston. We don't take much stock in this report.

Messrs. Cronly & Morris will sell at auction, on Tuesday next, at 12 o'clock, a seven-room dwelling on the North side of Castle street, between Third Fourth; lot 41x66 feet.

Just about this time a few native North Carolina beehives would sell well. There are many who are hankering for a taste once more of the old North Carolina wire grass meat.

Look out for counterfeits! See that you get the genuine Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup! Do not let the dealer sell you some "just as good" but insist upon getting the genuine with the Bull's Head trade mark on the wrapper.

Only a Few Sparks.

There was an alarm of fire last night, about 6:30 o'clock, turned in from box 35, corner of Eighth and Market streets. It was caused by sparks on the roof of Mr. D. McEachern's new house, on Seventh, between Dock and Orange streets, which came from a tinner's furnace which had been left there. The roof did not ignite.

Capt. Lord is Better.

A distressing report was circulated here to-day to the effect that Capt. George Lord, whose serious indisposition we have previously reported, died yesterday afternoon, but we are glad to be able to contradict it here. We heard directly from him at 4 o'clock this afternoon and at that time he was reported as much improved—better, it is said, than he had been in a week. We hope to see him abroad again at an early day.

The Ball Last Night.

The anniversary ball of Howard Relief Fire Engine Co. No. 1, given last night in Adrian Hall, was largely attended. The music, rendered by the Italian band, was very fine and the floor was full of dancers. At 12 o'clock supper was served and after that dancing was resumed and kept up with much spirit until the early hours. It was in every way a delightful affair and the committee have received many congratulations on the excellent result of their labors.

Of Interest to Shippers.

Here is an item of interest to shippers. The following will hereafter be appended to all bills of lading issued by the C. C. R. R.:

"It is agreed that after due notice to the consignee or owner of the arrival of the property described herein at the destination or point of delivery named in bill of lading, and a reasonable period allowed thereafter for its removal from warehouses and cars, storage charges, as usually applicable at such point of delivery, may be made and collected on the property remaining undelivered; and such demurrage charges made and collected on loaded cars as the delivering roads may have established."

Bright's Disease.

This insidious ailment, if too long neglected, will undermine the strongest constitution and bring the victim to a premature grave. Heed the timely warning, and regain health at once by a use of the proper restorative, that great strengthener of the urinary and digestive organs, B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm).

David Runkel, Cullman, Georgia, writes: "I used a hundred dollars worth of medicine for Bright's disease, but it did me no good. I then took B. B. B., which relieved me. My appetite is restored and I urinate without pain."

J. A. Maddox, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I had great trouble in passing urine which was filled with sediments. My back and loins gave me much pain and I lost my appetite, strength and flesh. I became nervous and unable to sleep soundly. Two bottles of B. B. B. gave me entire relief."

Thomas Williams, Soddy, Tenn., writes: "I was troubled with severe kidney complaint and confined to my bed. Six bottles of B. B. B. made a well man of me."

Forecasts.

For North Carolina, colder and fair weather and a cold wave. For Wilmington and vicinity, fair weather.

Joint Services.

The congregations of St. James', St. John's and St. Paul's Churches will unite in services at St. John's Church to-morrow, Friday night, at 8 o'clock. Speaker—Rev. C. L. Arnold.

Its Excellent Qualities.

Commend to public approval the California liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs. It is pleasing to the eye, and to the taste and by gently acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, it cleanses the system effectually, thereby promoting the health and comfort of all who use it.

Bonds Well Placed.

Messrs. Brown & Lownders, bankers, of Baltimore, have closed out the entire issue of $850,000 first mortgage 6 per cent. gold bonds, series C, of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad Company. The bonds were placed on sale six days ago. The price paid was par and accrued interest, the purchasers securing them for investment account. The principal is due June 1, 1916, and the interest is payable in New York in June and December. The bonds will be listed on the Baltimore Stock Exchange in a few days.

Good News for Coal Dealers.

It will be cold to-morrow morning and you can gamble on this prediction. At 8 o'clock this morning a storm centre was developing along the North Atlantic coast. At the same time a very high barometric pressure was advancing from the Northwest, accompanied by a cold wave. It is thought that by to-morrow morning the beautiful Summer-like weather we have enjoyed for so long will be replaced by something more in keeping with the season, and which will not be as welcome here as it would have been a month ago.

C. F. & Y. V. Officials.

Capt. J. W. Fry, General Superintendent of the C. F. & Y. V. R. R.; Capt. W. E. Kyle, General Freight and Passenger Agent; Mr. H. L. Fry, Chief Engineer; Mr. R. W. Bidgood, Auditor; Mr. John M. Rose, Secretary; Mr. I. W. Clark, Master Mechanic; Mr. John M. Wright, Supervisor of Track, and Mr. W. H. McFarlane, Treasurer of the North State Improvement Company, all arrived here yesterday afternoon in a private coach attached to the freight train on the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. They made a careful inspection of the road as they came down. They remained in the city to-day and will return to-morrow.

"Where Did You Get That Hat?"

It is too good to lose, and we will tell it. The other night, when the Germania Cornet Band serenaded Mr. and Mrs. F. W. E. Peschau, the gentleman, as soon as he heard them went out immediately to the gate to endeavor to get them to break their well known rule on serenading occasions and to enter the house. As he hurried out he took the first hat on the rack that came to hand, which proved to be that of his little boy. With this perched precariously on his head he went up to the band and begged them to enter. They declined but volunteered to play another piece. They then started off with that spirited piece, first played in North Carolina by the Marine Band, at Fayetteville, "Where Did You Get That Hat?"

Mr. Peschau at once caught the air and tearing the hat from his head threw it in the hall-way as far as he could. It was a little thing, but it was good and caused a hearty all-round laugh.

In Distress.

Capt. Dunbar Davis, of the Cape Fear Life Saving Station, came into Southport at 2:15 o'clock this afternoon with a boat's crew. He reports that the British Sch. Demozelle, of St. John's, N. B., from Macrao for New York, loaded with sugar, is off Frying Pan Shoals with her sails gone. The crew have refused to do duty. The steam tug Alex. Jones has gone out to her.

Vollers, John F. Ruffs, J. H. Thees, B. H. J. Ahrens, John T. Platt and E. T. Suden.

The Fayetteville Military.

Sergeant Pemberton, of the F. I. L. I., arrived here yesterday afternoon to make arrangements for the projected visit of his company to this city, in celebration of their anniversary. The company will leave Fayetteville on Monday next, at 8 o'clock, on a special excursion train chartered by them, and will arrive here about 11:30. They will be met at the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley wharf by the Wilmington Light Infantry and all will go to the Sound immediately, where the target practice will be held.

An oyster roast will be given to the Fayetteville boys by the Wilmington Light Infantry while at the Sound, and as soon as the shooting is over all will return to Wilmington, where the Independent Company will spend a short while, leaving for Fayetteville about 6 o'clock in the afternoon.

It is expected that there will be about 35 men in the ranks and that a large number of ladies and gentlemen will accompany them on their visit to this city.

Dyspepsia's victims are numbered by thousands. So are those who have been restored to health by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

ST. JAMES' PARISH, WILMINGTON, N. C. Feb. 20, 1890.

WILLIAM GEORGE THOMAS, Doctor of Medicine, born in Louisa, N. C., March 22, 1818, entered into the rest of Paradise at Wilmington, N. C., February 18, 1890.

As a physician, accomplished, successful, and eminent in all the branches of his profession.

As a citizen, noted for his wise and intelligent interest in all measures designed to promote the progress, or contribute to the security and good order of the city of his adoption.

As a Churchman, faithful and firm in principle; kind, charitable and tolerant to those who differed from him in opinion.

As a Christian, earnest and devout, humble in his own estimation of himself, and trusting with child-like faith in the merits of the Saviour, in whom he believed with his whole heart.

Genial, kind, and charitable in all the relations of life, he was honored, respected and beloved, as few men of our community have been, and as none has more richly deserved to be.

He rests from the labors of a long, active, and useful life, mourned by all who have been privileged to be associated with him, or who have known of the admirable qualities which adorned his character.

We, the Rector and Vestry of St. James' Parish, of which he has been an honored and valued member for 24 years, with tender and affectionate regard for his memory, and with a sad sense of the individual and social bereavement which we are suffering by his death, direct that this Minute be entered upon a separate page of our records; that copies be sent for publication in the city daily papers, The Church Year, of Jacksonville, Fla., and in the New York Churchman, and that one with the signatures of all the Vestrymen of this Parish shall be respectfully transmitted to the family of the deceased, with the assurance of our affectionate sympathy in their sorrow, and of our prayers that they may be blessed with comfort and peace from our Heavenly Father, who has seen fit to visit them with so heavy an affliction.

(Star and Messenger copy.)
