The fourth annual dinner of the New York Southern Society will be held at the Lenox Lyceum, Madison Avenue and 59th Street, to-morrow, Washington's birthday, at 6 p. m. The boxes will be occupied by women and John C. Calhoun will preside. The prominent speakers will be Ex-President Cleveland, Secretary Windom, W. Bourke Cockran, John Temple Graves, of Georgia, and Alexander P. Humphrey, of Louisville, Ex-Judge of the Chancery Court.

Boston Herald: The latest decision of Speaker Reed is to the effect that when the House of Representatives has ordered a count for itself, and its own tellers have reported on the subject, the Speaker may set aside this count and substitute one of his own for it. The House meekly submits, of course. If there were a backwoodsman from Maine, as there was once from Texas, at Washington, to write about the comparative importance of public men, he would probably send word home that "Reed is a bigger man than old Blaine," or old Harrison, either, indeed, or old anybody else.

"Wood and coal! wood and coal!" shouted the dealer driving down the street. A small boy in the distance answers: "Never mind your wood, you can cure your cold with a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup."

Schooner Demozelle.
The Signal Service observer at Southport telegraphed last evening to the observer here, that the British schooner Demozelle—reported yesterday as in distress off Fryling-pan shoals—arrived at Southport quarantine at 6 p. m. Pilots from her report that the greater part of her sails were blown away, a piece at a time, in heavy gales thus rendering her unmanageable. She is not damaged otherwise. The deny the report that her crew refused to do duty; but state that the men worked on condition that the vessel put into the first port possible. The captain's son has been ill for some sixteen days; said to be of rheumatism, caused by exposure.
The tug Alexander Jones towed the schooner into Southport.

Bright's Disease.
This insidious ailment, if too long neglected, will undermine the strongest constitution and bring the victim to a premature grave. Heed the timely warning, and regain health at once by a use of the proper restorative, that great strengthener of the urinary and digestive organs, B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm).
David Runkel, Cullman, Georgia, writes: "I used a hundred dollars worth of medicine for Bright's disease, but it did me no good. I then took B. B. B., which relieved me. My appetite is restored and I urinate without pain."
J. A. Maddox, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I had great trouble in passing urine which was filled with sediments. My back and loins gave me much pain and I lost my appetite, strength and flesh. I became nervous and unable to sleep soundly. Two bottles of B. B. B. gave me entire relief."
Thomas Williams, Saddy, Tenn., writes: "I was troubled with severe kidney complaint and confined to my bed. Six bottles of B. B. B. made a well man of me."

Christian Association Meeting.
The Christian Association of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church will meet at 4:30 p. m. to-morrow, in Luther Memorial Building. A full attendance is earnestly desired as matters of importance are to be considered.

St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church.
The services in St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, corner Market and Sixth streets, Rev. E. W. E. Peschau, pastor, to-morrow (Sunday) will be in German at 11 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m. in English. All are welcome at the services.
Pushing Towards the Line.
The Fayetteville Observer says: Two coaches, well filled with convicts, passed through the city Monday, en route to Mt. Airy, whither they go to work on the line between that point and the Virginia State line. This gap of 8 miles completed, and the entire line of the C. F. & Y. V. will be finished. The contract has been awarded and stipulates that the same be completed on or before September 1st, 1890.

The Moore's Creek Monument.
The battle of Moore's Creek was fought on the 27th day of February, 1776, more than four months previous to the signing of the Declaration of Independence. But it was fought on Southern soil and has therefore received but scant notice from Northern historians. It was a very important battle and a bloody one, for the British. But one man was killed on our side, a man by the name of Grady, from Duplin county, but the enemy lost very heavily, in killed, wounded and captured. Gen. McDonald hoped to effect a junction here with Lord Clinton. His defeat turned the tide of the contest elsewhere.
The battle field is about 18 miles from Wilmington and distant only about 300 yards from the bridge on the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. crossing Moore's Creek. There is a monument there now, raised by patriotic hands in the years just previous to the late war, but the grounds are neglected and sadly in need of attention. Congress was not asked for a dollar of money to erect the monument but it is thought by many to be only right and proper that some public recognition of it should be made by the appropriation of a sum of money sufficient to enclose and ornament the grounds. With this object in view Hon. C. W. McClammy, Representative from our neighboring district, the Third, has introduced the following bill into the House:
WHEREAS, A battle was fought and a most signal and decisive victory achieved by the rebel patriot North Carolina forces over the loyal Tories and British on the 27th day of February, 1776, which was most important in its results, not only to the colony of North Carolina, but to the patriot cause of the whole country, and
WHEREAS, It is desirable to commemorate that important event and perpetuate the memory of the gallant men who served their country on that day, Therefore be it
Resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, that the sum of three thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated to aid in enclosing and beautifying the monument erected on the battle ground of Moore's Creek, to be expended under the direction of the Secretary of War.

A Daisy With the Balls.
There is a stranger in the city now who is exciting the wonder and admiration of the boys. He was in the Purell House Cafe last night where some young men were playing pool, when he stepped up to the table and asserted that he could beat any man in the house at that game and that he would play with neither his feet or his hands, and without a cue. A game was made up for him and he played—with his mouth! He would bend over the table, take the ball between his lips and play and pocket about every time. Strange as it may seem, he made in this way also some fine pocket cushions. Of course, he attracts a great deal of attention whenever he gets anywhere in the neighborhood of a pool table.

Ingomar on Monday Night.
The sale of reserved seats for the performance of Ingomar, at the Opera House, on Monday night, by the Adele Frost troupe, began this morning, at Mr. Yates'. Ingomar is, as all should know, one of the most charming melodramas of the age. It is old, but ever new and ever good. Miss Frost is said to be very strong as Parthenia and we hope that she will draw a good house on her first appearance here. There will follow during the week a number of other fine pieces. The prices are low and good houses should result in every instance.
THE CHEAPEST SALE ON RECORD.
Children's Knee Pants at 25 Cents, Worth $1.00.
I. Shrier, who is always ahead of all other competitors in selling goods lower, will sell the balance of this week 500 pair boys' knee pants, ages from 5 to 14 years, for 29 cents, worth $1.00. Fine linen unlaundered shirt for 35 cents, worth 85 cents. Gloria silk gold-headed umbrellas at $1.15, worth $2.50. Remember that prices are strictly cash. It would be advisable to call early before these goods are sold. I. Shrier, cor. Front and Princess streets. Sign of the Golden Arm.
The Violin Concert.
There was a goodly attendance at Luther Memorial Building last night to listen to the music of the first violin concert ever given by young lady amateurs in this city, and all present were delightfully entertained. The violinists were Miss Alice Thorburn and Miss Mae Southerland. We are sure that we voice the sentiment of every person present when we say that the playing of both these young ladies was a revelation and surprise. There was no effort to make a display further than to give the music as it was written, and with the proper expression, and in this they were eminently successful. They gave us sweet musical tones instead of rough and grating sounds—music instead of noise, and their efforts reflected much credit both upon pupils and teacher, Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, who is by far the best violinist in the city. There were three violin solos and four violin duets given by the young ladies and all were played accurately, gracefully, skillfully and with taste and feeling, as was evidenced by the vociferous eulogies which followed every piece.
The opening piece was a piano duet by Mr. A. Adrian, Jr., and Miss E. C. Adrian, who may be safely reckoned as among the best amateur pianists in the city. "A Bunch of Violets," vocal solo, was sung by Miss Linda Peschau, of whom we have heretofore had occasion to speak as a rising young vocalist of much promise. Her efforts last night both in solo and in the duet with Miss Norma Foster, fully maintained her reputation as a true songstress with a purely musical, flexible voice of large compass and power. Miss Annie Stolter, another of the vocalists, sang charmingly. She has a rich, sweet voice, flexible and powerful, while the alto of her sister, Miss Kate Stolter, was true, sweet and pure, harmonizing and blending well with the other voices. The vocal quartette by the Misses Stolter and Messrs. Schulken and Rehder was well given and was a musical treat. Messrs. Schloss and Rehder gave two cornet duets with the skill and taste of professionals. The entertainment closed with "The Conquered Banner," music by Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, in which all took part, making a vocal chorus of seven voices and an orchestra consisting of two violins, two cornets and piano. It was given admirably. The accompanists were Miss E. C. Adrian and Miss Maggie Peschau and both were good. The latter, although very young to take such a responsible position, acquitted herself with much credit. The entertainment in its entirety was a success and one of which our people should be proud and ought to awaken in the hearts of our citizens a determination to fan into an active flame the latent musical fires that are smouldering in our midst. We rejoice that there are two young ladies in the city who have the will, ability and energy to work and master the violin and trust that others may be thus encouraged to follow their laudable example.

Forecast.
For North Carolina, slightly warmer and fair weather. For Wilmington and vicinity, fair weather.
The cutter Colfax, just in from a cruise, reports the loss of schooner Moby A. Allen, of Bath, Me., from New York for Charleston, near Hatteras, on Thursday morning. Crew all safe. The vessel will prove a total loss and the wreckers are stripping her.
