The five elevators of the Eiffel Tower made a profit of $1,200,000 during the Exposition. M. Eiffel now lives in a $400,000 house, for merely the property of Baron Hober.

Savannah, Ga., has a Citizens' Sanitary Association, which aids the municipal authorities in matters relating to public health, and maintains a system of inspection and surveillance independent of the public officials.

If the truth is told John J. O'Connor, of St. Louis, has had a most remarkable experience. It is said that he was buried alive, and in a trance, was dug up by body snatchers and sold to physicians and only revived when the surgeon's knife cut into his abdomen and the blood began to flow.

The Raleigh News and Observer comes to us in a new dress, looking as fresh and pretty as a lass of sixteen summers. It is a good paper, true, steady and staunch, and has struck some most effective blows in the past in the cause of good government. Long may it continue its career of usefulness to its party and its people.

Peto Brothers, the English builders, are trying an experiment in profit sharing with their workmen.
 They have agreed to divide one-quarter of the net profits of a certain contract on condition that each man, to be entitled to a share, shall have earned at least $5, and especially shall not have engaged in any strike for higher wages or shorter hours during the performance of the contract.

The National Democrat has interviewed a number of Representatives in regard to the subsidies and other schemes which the majority have in hand for getting rid of the surplus.
 Among those who expressed themselves on the subject is Hon. Chas.
 W. McClammy, from our neighboring district, the old Third. We clip this from the Democrat:

Major McClammy, of North Carolina, said to the reporter that the steamship subsidy bill would be passed because the Administration has indorsed the scheme, but it would require a Republican caucus to bring out the full strength of the majority in support of the bill. "The Republicans," said the Major, "make all kinds of promises to the corporations and trust combines in order to raise money for Dudley's 'Blocks of Five' and now they want to deliver the goods by rushing through the House legislation in favor of trusts, corporations and other monopolies.
 There is no class of legislation that I know of more vicious in its tendencies than that of granting subsidies to corporations. It's undemocratic and against the spirit of a republican form of Government. I will fight the steamship subsidy bill to the best of my ability, but then, when you take into consideration that the rules of the House give arbitrary powers to the Speaker, you will readily perceive that the Republicans are in a position to pass any measure or measures they may see fit to advance. It seems to me that instead of the surplus left in the Treasury by Cleveland's Administration a deficit will be starting the people in the face ere the end of this Congress unless the Republicans change their policy, and change it mighty quick."

Major McClammy is a dyed-in-the-wool Democrat and his constituents swear by him.
 "Neither rhyme nor reason can express how much I value a cure I've found for my weak ankle," she said. "What can it be?" "Fancy a woman never having heard of Salvation Oil at twenty-five cents a bottle.

Mr. Cud Given, Manager of "Mc-Carthy's Mishap," which will appear at the Opera House in this city on next Monday night, is in the city and favored us with a visit this morning.

The Days Named.
 The committee on celebrating the completion of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad met at noon to-day at the Produce Exchange and decided to have it on the 26th and 27th inst. The merchants along the line of the road will all be invited to come down here and see us, and arrangements for entertaining them handsomely will be made. A great many are expected here on that occasion.

Around the World.
 We are glad to chronicle the great success which attended the stereo-optic entertainment given at the Opera House last night. For the first time since the war have we known of a full auditorium at a lecture and Capt. Bixby is certainly to be congratulated upon the wonderful success which has attended his efforts. The universal sentiment was one of delight and it is actually pleasant to know, after all, that there is really enough literary taste in Wilmington to form a large audience.

Capt. Bixby announced that there will be another entertainment of a similar nature given on next Tuesday night and he also took advantage of the opportunity to make acknowledgment of courtesies received from Capt. Pennypacker and from the newspapers.

A Good Day's Work.
 Weakness of itself is not a disease.
 It is, however, a most distressful symptom. Alas! how many wearily drag themselves about, every effort giving them distress, existing without any of the pleasurable sensations of robust health. Are you in this condition? Why? There is no excuse for feeling mean and miserable. Remove the cause of your distress, which undoubtedly is a state of blood impurity and a disordered system. How? Why by doing as others have done.
 G. W. Chandler, Red Fork, Ark., writes: "I was so weak that it was only with great effort that I could do anything. I used several bottles of Botanic Blood Balm, and can now do a good day's work." Able to do a good day's work! Is there not something sweet and refreshing in that expression? Strength to vigorously do this or that. Strength that is only overcome by natural fatigue. Strength that when expended, is by rest and nature fully renewed. Such will be your reward if you give B. B. a trial.
 H. B. Randolph, Branswick, Ga., writes: "I was under the care of nine different doctors, but not one did me the good that Botanic Blood Balm has done me."

Commendable.
 All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the California Fig Syrup Company. It acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.

Death at Myrtle Grove.
 We are sorry to hear of the death of Mr. John T. Biddle, an old and highly esteemed resident of Myrtle Grove Sound. He died at his residence yesterday afternoon of pneumonia, following an attack of the grippe. He was 57 years of age and leaves a wife and several children to mourn their great loss.

The Policeman's Dog.
 Shorty, "the policeman's dog," as he is called, killed 52 rats during the month of February. At least this is the known record. There are probably others who fell victims to Shorty's sharp teeth and strong jaws but which have not been reported by him, for reasons best known to himself. Shorty, by the way, is a famous character. He belongs to no one in particular and will follow no one but a policeman.
 He attaches himself first to one and then to another. He is a short, squat animal, black in color and his fore feet stand out in almost directly opposite directions—looking both ways for Sundays—or for rats—as it were.

McCarthy's Mishaps
 The engagement of the Ferguson and Mack Company of comedians at the Opera House on Monday evening next promises to be one of more than passing interest to our laughter-loving public. "McCarthy's Mishaps," a farce of the most amusing quality, will be given.
 It abounds in funny situations and the bright effervescent wit of the Celts.

There are also numerous pleasing specialties introduced and a series of bright, taking, musical selections that add a charm and finish to the performance not often found in the farcical world.

The company is an unusually brilliant one and numbers those whose names have from long association become recognized factors in the laughing world.

A Venerable Confederate.
 A friend at Burgaw writes us of a privilege he enjoyed yesterday in dining with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Orr, of the Moore's Creek section of Pender county, at a birthday festival. The meal was partaken of in the same house erected by Mr. Orr 50 years ago. The old gentleman is now 84 years old and is a remarkable man. Old as he is his sight is yet excellent and he has never used eyeglasses; he can make four turpentine barrels a day, can dip and fill two barrels of turpentine in one day and can easily walk fifteen miles.
 He was a gallant Confederate soldier, having enlisted in 1862 in Co.
 B, 1st N. C. Battalion of Artillery, Capt. C. D. Ellis, commanding. He was then 56 years of age and he served throughout the war.

W. S. F. E. Co. No. 1.
 The annual election of officers of Wilmington Steam Fire Engine Company No. 1 was held last night at "Atlantic" hall, and the following were chosen:

President—W. P. Oldham.
 Vice President—Jno. L. Dudley.
 Secretary and Treasurer—W. C.
 Craft.
 Foreman—W. C. VonGlabn.
 First Assistant—M. T. Davis.
 Second Assistant—H. W. Collins.
 Chief Engineer—E. G. Parmele.
 First Assistant—R. F. Warren.
 Second Assistant—Jos. F. Craig.
 Mr. C. A. McCraw was re-appointed custodian of uniforms, and Mr.
 B. R. Russell fireman of engine.

After the election a large number of the members repaired to the office of Mr. Martin T. Davis, where a collation was spread, given by the newly-elected officers.

The Cutest Little Things.
 "Cute!" he echoed. "Well, I don't know as the adjective would have occurred to me in just that connection. But if you mean that they do their work thoroughly, yet make no fuss about it; cause no pain or weakness; and, in short, are everything that a pill ought to be, and nothing that it ought not, then I agree that Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets are about the cutest little things going!"

City Court.
 Before the Mayor to-day Laura Blalock, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $10 or 20 days.
 Robert Waddell, disorderly conduct, $5 or 10 days.
 John Clayton, disorderly conduct, $20 or 30 days.
 John Whitehead, disorderly conduct, $20 or 30 days.
 Gary Carey, disorderly conduct, $20 or 30 days.
 William Which, disorderly conduct, judgment suspended.

A Deserved Promotion.
 Mr. Spencer LeGrand, of this city, has been appointed Assistant Auditor of the Norfolk & Carolina R. R. and left here this afternoon, accompanied by Mr. W. A. Rinch, the General Auditor, on a trip to Norfolk, where arrangements will be made for opening an office at an early day. Mr. LeGrand's headquarters will be in Norfolk, to which city he will remove with his family.
 His promotion is the result of long and faithful and intelligent service in the office of the General Auditor of the Atlantic Coast Line.

Death of Capt. George Lord.
 We regret very much to learn of the death of Capt. George Lord, which sad event occurred at his residence in this city, at about 1 o'clock this morning. He had been sick for several months, suffering from a severe attack of the jaundice and some weeks ago was well enough to appear abroad, but he suffered a relapse with a fatal result.

Capt. Lord was from Portland, Me., and first came to this city about thirteen years ago. He has resided here continuously for the past five years, during which time he has filled contracts with the government for work on the Cape Fear.
 He was a noble, honorable, chival-rous, generous gentleman and made many warm friends here who have mourned exceedingly to learn of his death.

Postal Routes on the C. F. & Y. V.
 A dispatch from Washington says:
 "The Postoffice Department has established railroad postal service as follows: Mount Airy, N. C., and Bennettsville, S. C., railroad postoffice clerks change run so as to end at Wilmington, N. C. Service between Fayetteville, N. C., and Ben-nettville railroad postoffice increase in distance 24.36 miles, making the whole distance 249.42 miles—to take effect March 3, 1890. At Fayetteville, N. C., and Bennettsville, S. C., railroad postoffice service has been established on the line of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway, between Fayetteville, N. C., and Ben-nettville, S. C., a distance of 57.20 miles. Service on this line was formerly performed by Mount Airy and Bennettsville railroad postoffice, which has been changed to end at Wilmington, N. C., to take effect March 3rd.
