Dom Pedro is said to be actually in need of money. He still maintains a cumbersome and useless set of retainers about his person.

The Democrats put in some good work last Tuesday in municipal elections in New York as well as in Iowa. The tide is evidently turning at last.

Will Chicago get ready in time to hold the big fair in '92? is a question now being agitated by the New York papers. The subscriptions to date amount to only about four and a half millions and much of this, it is claimed, is worthless.

A Wilkesbarre, Pa., contractor got in some peculiar and neat revenge on a man for whom he had built a house. The party refused to pay for it and on investigation the contractor found that it was built on land which did belong to him. So he quietly went to work and bought an adjoining lot and on last Saturday night, with twenty workmen, he went to work and jacked the house up and moved it so quietly that the inmates did not wake until next morning, when they found that the house had been moved twenty feet while they slept.

To see is to believe. This is about the sum and substance of Vice-President Morton's experience thus far in the South. Here is what he said, just before leaving Charleston, on Sunday last:

"I have noticed with great satisfaction the courage and enterprise which have been exhibited by the people of the Southern States and the amazing rapidity with which their fallen fortunes have been retrieved since peace was restored to our common country. That achievement is without a parallel in the history of the world. And again, the development in agriculture and in the manufacturing and industrial interests during the past quarter of a century will stand as a monument to the enterprise of the people of this section.

"Your great crop, cotton, has increased to more than seven million bales. The number of cotton mills in the South ten years ago was 160, with 14,000 looms. To-day there are 14,000 mills and 215,000 looms. The mileage of railways in the South, which ten years ago was less than twenty thousand, is now more than forty thousand. I might go on to extend these comparative figures to other industries, but those I have used fairly indicate the marvellous development of the industrial interests of this section of the country.

"That great development is a source of great gratification to all the other sections of the country, because the progress of the South is a material factor in the general welfare of the Union."

One bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup cured me of a bad cough and I can recommend this valuable article to my friends. C. L. WILLISTON, 81 Maiden Lane, New York City.

Mr. E. W. Kerr, of Sampson county, was here last evening on a brief visit.

Boys! we can sell you a Bracket Saw, with frame, for 10 cents. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

A few dressed geese were in market to-day, and held at $2 a pair, which is pretty steep.

There has been a slight rise of water in Black River but only about enough to make steamboating easy and pleasant.

"Why doesn't he take Hood's Sarsaparilla?" is the general inquiry of friends when a person suffers from any disease of the blood.

The city has been billed for "McCarthy's Mishaps," and the pictures are very tempting to those who love fun, and a plenty of it.

Mr. Arthur Arrington, Chief Secretary of the Southern Inter-State Immigration Bureau, will address a meeting of citizens at the City Hall this evening.

The waters of the Cape Fear are very muddy but steamboatmen tell us that it comes from the surface of the hills in the interior and that there is not much of a fresher in the river.

Capt. George Lord's remains left here on the last midnight train for interment at his old home at Wyndham, Me. Funeral services were conducted at the residence, last evening, by Rev. W. S. Creasy.

A Young Whale.
An enormous fish, a black drum, weighing 75 pounds, was caught yesterday on Middle Sound by Mr. Obe Corbett and brought to this market. He got $1.50 for it and it was purchased by Mr. Wm. Bonitz, of the Bonitz Hotel, on Market street.

A Fine Showing.
The annual statement of the condition of the Wilmington Savings and Trust Company is published in this issue. It makes an excellent showing. There are 1,404 depositors with $39,533.04 to their credit. The loans outstanding amount to $67,190. The capital stock of the bank is $25,000.

Commendable.
All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the California Fig Syrup Company. It acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.

Stockholders Meeting
The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Wilmington Savings and Trust Co. was held at the Company's office in this city yesterday afternoon.

Dr. A. J. DeRosset was called to the chair and Mr. W. P. Toomer was requested to act as Secretary.

It was ascertained that 307 shares were represented in person and by proxy.

On motion it was resolved that the time for payment of interest on deposits be fixed quarterly, instead of annually, as heretofore, viz. in March, June, September and December.

The old Board of Directors was re-elected.

All About Beef.
There is a large demand here now for native North Carolina beef which it is impossible for the dealers to meet, as but little comes in. Cattle raisers have been deterred heretofore from bringing their beeves here because of the fact that Kansas City meat has demoralized the market for native meats. But the Kansas beef has been advanced considerably in price during the past few days and it is not now so seriously affecting the market for native meat. The latter commands 3 to 3½ cents a pound now on the hoof and we are assured that a good article of native beef will readily bring these prices. Our country friends will therefore see that this is an excellent time to market their cattle and we hope that they will bring it in at once and get the benefit of these good prices and give us all something good to eat.

Refreshing and Invigorating
Delicious Soda Water as drawn from Munds Brothers' magnificent new soda fountain at a temperature of 32°. Purest Fruit Syrup, Milk Shakes and Natural Mineral Water.

Forecasts.
For North Carolina, rain and colder weather.

Little Lord Fauntleroy (Suit) Can be Seen at I. Shrier's.

J. Shrier, who is always ahead in introducing new novelties, will sell this week the Lord Fauntleroy and Alfonso (King of Spain) suit. Also a full line of children's Kilt Suits at the lowest price for cash only. I. Shrier, corner Front and Princess streets.

Japanese Plums.
There are a number of beautiful Japanese plum trees here and for the first time in our recollection they have borne fruit. In Mr. Jno. F. Garrell's garden, corner of Third and Walnut streets, there was a very fine specimen and the tree was filled with fruit last week, which was rapidly opening. On Saturday some of it was picked and ate but on Sunday and Monday nights came the freeze and the fruit has all been killed.

Death of Mrs. Fitch.
We regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Sarah Fitch, which occurred yesterday in Bristol, Tenn. Mrs. Fitch was the third daughter of the late Capt. Chas. D. Ellis, and was a native of this city. She married Rev. J. J. Fitch, a Baptist clergyman and teacher, many years ago, and removed from this city. The remains are expected here to night and will be interred in the family enclosure at Oakdale to-morrow. It is impossible as yet to fix a definite hour for the funeral, but it will be announced in the morning papers.

City Court.
The following cases were disposed of by the Mayor to-day:

Jesse Lewis, who is supposed to be insane, was ordered held until a committee can enquire as to his condition.

Joseph Hill, offense not recorded, was ordered held for safe keeping.

James Nash, charged with larceny, was sent on for trial before the Criminal Court and was committed, in default of bond of $100.

Julian Bailey, disorderly conduct, $20 or 30 days.

Richard Thomas, the colored individual who was arraigned for shooting at his wife, was committed for trial at the Criminal Court in default of a justified bond in the sum of $200 for his appearance.

Taking Stock of the Crops.
We hear conflicting reports as to the damage really done by the recent cold weather in this section, but the general opinion seems to be that it has been overestimated. The greatest injury seems to have been to the pea crop and where the plants had begun to bloom the damages have been the greatest. Late peas do not seem to have been injured so much. Strawberries have suffered but not to such an extent as was feared; where the plants were not covered by straw the bloom have all been killed. This means, simply, that the crop will be retarded and not that it has been destroyed. Fruit, for all that we can hear, seems to have escaped almost entirely. The peaches have certainly not been injured to any considerable extent and many claim that even pears have not been hurt. There may be, however, some cold weather ahead which will more seriously affect the crops than anything we have yet had.

A Good Day's Work.
Weakness of itself is not a disease. It is, however, a most distressful symptom. Alas! how many wearily drag themselves about, every effort giving them distress, existing without any of the pleasurable sensations of robust health. Are you in this condition? Why? There is no excuse for feeling mean and miserable. Remove the cause of your distress, which undoubtedly is a state of blood impurity and a disordered system. How? Why by doing as others have done.

G. W. Chandler, Red Fork, Ark., writes: "I was so weak that it was only with great effort that I could do anything. I used several bottles of Botanic Blood Balm, and can now do a good day's work."

"Able to do a good day's work!" Is there not something sweet and refreshing in that expression? Strength that is only overcome by natural fatigue. Strength that when expended, is by rest and nature fully renewed. Such will be your reward if you give B. B. a trial.

H. B. Randolph, Brunswick, Ga., writes: "I was under the care of nine different doctors, but not one did me the good that Botanic Blood Balm has done me."

"Why sit doubled up like an old man, my boy! What's rheumatism! Take the good the gods provide thee, and send twenty-five cents around the corner for a bottle of Salvation Oil and you'll ride your Bicycle to-morrow."

A Matinee Trial Trip.
As will be seen by notice published elsewhere "Around the World in Eighty Minutes" will be repeated at a matinee on Saturday afternoon for the benefit of the ladies and the little folks. It is a splendid treat for school children, instructive as well as entertaining, and there will probably be a large number of those present at the matinee. The prices have been reduced one-half.

A New Clyde Steamer for Th's Port.
We spoke yesterday of two new steamships now being built by Messrs. W. P. Clyde & Co. for traffic in Southern waters and hoped that one of these was destined for this port. Our hope has had a quick fulfilment for we now understand that such is indeed the case. One of them is already intended for the Wilmington trade. She will be a fine large steamer, with superior passenger accommodations and it is expected that she will be ready about the first of August. She has not yet been christened but as all of the boats built in later days by Messrs. Clyde & Co. have Indian names, such will be given to this boat.

We understand that it is the expectation of the management of this line to put on a double-weekly service here next Fall, early in the season, with first class passenger accommodations; that is to say, there will be two steamers each week each way. There are now three boats running and the Yemassee, a fine large steamship, with elegant passenger accommodations, and an old acquaintance here, by the way, is to be put on the line on the first of May.

Interesting Lecture.
Dr. W. H. Maynard, formerly of New York, but now a missionary to the Cabyle people in the north part of Africa, gave an interesting lecture at the Brooklyn Baptist Church last night on that singular race and his experience with them in the twelve months that he was with them. The church was full and all were deeply interested and much entertained as well as instructed by what the speaker had to say. The lecture was delivered in an easy, conversational manner, with no attempt at oratory or flights of rhetoric, but was a description of the people, their habits, customs, dress, marriage rites, food, &c., which are all of the most primitive kind, and would hardly be relished by the over-faustidious of our land.

The Cabyle people, he described as of light complexion, very friendly and peaceful in disposition, and have a large share of intelligence. As a class they are honest and perfectly trustworthy. Drunkenness is a vice almost unknown among them, nor do they have any knowledge of the manufacture of any intoxicating beverage—blessed ignorance. Marriage is a matter of bargain and sale, in which the bride has no voice, but is merely the article sold. The people are Mohammedans but those with whom the speaker came in contact listened patiently to the teachings of Christianity, and his residence among them had been beneficial in its results.

Dr. Maynard is home on a short vacation, but will soon return to the Cabyle people, in whom he is deeply interested and among whom he is evidently accomplishing much good for the cause of the Christian religion. He is a young man, full of energy in the work he has undertaken and buoyant with hope for good results.

The Ladies' Favorite.
The newest fashion in ladies' hats will doubtless cause a flutter of pleasurable excitement among the fair sex. Ladies are always susceptible to the changes of a fashion plate; and the more startling the departure, the more earnest the gossip over the new mode. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a positive cure for the ills which afflict females and make their lives miserable. This sovereign panacea can be relied on in cases of displacements and all functional derangements. It builds up the poor, haggard and dragged-out victim, and gives her renewed hope and a fresh lease of life. It is the only medicine for woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money refunded. Read printed guarantee on bottle wrapper.
