THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. XIV. WILMINGTON, N. C. THURSDAY, MARCH 13, 1890. NO. 76.

Mr. Gladstone has but one bodily infirmity at 80 years of age—he is slightly deaf.

There is a crusade against the British admiralty board and a demand for its abolishment.

The spread of the English language is indicated by the fact that it was used in the framing of a recent treaty between Russia and China.

By the death of Count Andrassy, Lord Salisbury and Prince Bismarck are left the only two great statesmen who took part in the Berlin Congress.

The question of allowing chickens to run at large is the issue in the municipal election at Norwich, Kan., and there are already two tickets in the field.

Dr. Brown Sequard is still engaged on his youthful elixir at Paris, and persists in believing that his experiment will at last be successfully established.

Mrs. Cleveland was asked by a school girl friend if her husband intended to run again for President. She diplomatically said that Mr. Cleveland was not in politics.

Jay Gould pays $2,500 a year for his pew in Dr. Hall's church. Although fairly regular at the morning service, he never appears in the evening. Russell Sage, on the contrary, is in his slip at both services.

The latest novelty introduced by Parisian modistes is large blue butterfly, not imitation, but the real full size tropical butterfly, with its natural metallic gloss, such as are chiefly or only found in Mexico and Brazil.

Beerbohm Tree, the London actor, gave a dinner to a number of friends recently at which, instead of nose-gays, false noses were furnished to the guests, which they were requested to wear during the banquet.

Philadelphia Record: The advantages to the country in the reelection of Mr. Allison, rather than some lesser man, as Republican Senator from Iowa, lies in the fact that he knows better than to be a Protectionist.

Dr. George Murray Humphreys, in his work of old age, collected facts concerning the lives of no less than seventy-four centenarians. Of course, old Parr comes in for a paragraph, but he was only 152, and two others are named as having reached 160.

A native movement to break up certain Hindoo customs has been started in Bombay. By it no sons are permitted to marry under 16, and no daughters under 10. No man is to marry after 50, or marry a second wife during the life time of the first.

The Queen of Sweden delights in foremeat balls, fried in sweet olive oil and served with poached eggs, and always the national dish of raw salmon, preserved in the ground and smoked to perfection, as the great feature. French wines figure on the royal table.

The home and office furniture owned by Abraham Lincoln has been purchased by a firm in Chicago and is now on exhibition there. The only office desk he owned is there. It is a plain table surmounted by an old-fashioned book-case, with the first law books Lincoln read.

Charleston News and Courier: For years the negroes did vote any ticket put up by the Republican party, in preference to the best that could be offered by their white fellow-citizens of the South, and many still do so, but not all. And why not all? Because the logic of events is beginning to have its effect even on their darkened minds; because they have felt the beneficent effects of Democratic State governments, or, in other words, of the rule of their States by the white people.

Don't!—If a dealer offers you a bottle of Salvation Oil without labels, or wrappers, or in a mutilated or defunct package, don't touch it—don't buy it at any price, you can rest assured that there is something wrong—it may be a dangerous and worthless counterfeit. Insist upon getting a perfect, unbroken, genuine package.

Young George Hugo, a grandson of the French poet, has been distinguishing himself by trading on his inheritance and giving notes for $48,000 in return for $16,000 in cash.

Cleveland Plain Dealer: It matters not what makeshift the Republicans adopt now to prolong their hold on power, they cannot long delay the dissolution of their power.

Louisville Courier Journal: The Senate will probably discover, if it discovers anything, that some of the old ladies in that body themselves divulge the executive session secrets.

Mrs. Phoebe Cook Hicks, who died in Marshall, Mo., a few days ago, was a passenger on Robert Fulton's first steamboat when it made its trial trip down the Hudson. She was then a little girl of 7 years.

There is a story, probably authentic, that Dr. Willard Parker was paid $100,000 for the successful removal of an excrescence from the face and neck of the son of one of the wealthiest families in the vicinity of New York.

Captain Wm. M. Rettig, formerly of the American steamer City of Washington, has been presented by the Queen Regent of Spain with a large gold medal, as a testimonial of his bravery in rescuing the crew of a Spanish brig in 1888.

The ladies of Bermuda have started a rifle club, of which the Governor's wife is President. They have a range of their own, where they practice at 100 yards with 200 calibre weapons, and are said to make remarkably good scores.

The drummers all say that their business is picking up. It is generally understood that drummers are great at picking up, but we are sure they can't pick up a cold which they could not cure with Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

LOCAL NEWS.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS,
 W. M. CUMMING—Mattresses
 TIMOTHY DONLAN—Attention, Hibernians

The moon enters on its last quarter to-night.

Shad still sell for 50 cents for buck and $1 for roe shad.

Get your fishing-tackle ready, boys; you will soon need it.

It is not any cooler to day than it was yesterday, nor have we had any rain.

Boys! we can sell you a Bracket Saw, with frame, for 10 cents. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Wild geese have been seen flying North. The old folks say this means that there will be no more cold weather.

When ready to build, paint or repair you will find it to your advantage to buy your material of the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

"It pleases me so I shall use no other," is what the farmers said when asked about the Boy Clipper Plow, sold by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

"Our Old Chief" is the name of our new and improved White Wamsutta Shirt. Wait for it; it will have it ready in a few days. Wilmington Shirt Factory, 122 Market St.

Paint your Buggy for 75 cents, "6 bits," with Detroit carg. Paint, a varnish and paint combined. Guaranteed to give satisfaction. Sold by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Rev. Mr. Swindell, Presiding Elder, Wilmington District, M. E. C. S., will preach at the Methodist Mission, corner Princess and Eighth streets, this evening at 8 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Mr. Spencer LeGrand, Assistant Auditor of the Norfolk & Carolina R. R., left here on the last midnight train for Norfolk, where he will open the office for business. His family will remain here for some time, probably until the Fall.

FOUND!—(Not my lost copy of "Little Lord Fauntleroy.") but that health is promoted as well as comfort insured by the use of a good mattress. I renovate old Mattresses (moss, cotton, hair and other) and make them as good as new, and also manufacture new Mattresses to order, cheap for cash. W. M. CUMMING, 17 Princess street.

Turner's almanac promises cold weather as late as the latter part of April.

Day breaks now about half-past 5 o'clock and it is not dark until after 7 in the evening.

The turnpike is a very popular drive these fine afternoons with the owners of fast horses.

Good North Carolina meat is scarce. The best hams sell from store at 14 to 15 cents.

The usual prayer meeting service of the First Baptist Church will be held this (Thursday) evening at 8 o'clock.

Wanted.—A good appetite. You can have it easy enough by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. It tones the digestion and cures sick headache.

The Seacoast R. R. authorities are building a sidetrack at Wrightsville for the accommodation of the truckers in that section.

The congregations of St. James', St. John's and St. Paul's churches will all worship together to-morrow night in St. John's.

The proper caper now with the girls is spinning tops. Next thing you know they will be climbing the trees and robbing the bird nests.

Messrs. Junius Davis and John D. Bellamy, Jr., who have been in Raleigh in attendance on the Supreme Court, have returned to the city.

Bishop Haid discoursed last evening to a large congregation on "Marriage and Divorce." He will speak this evening on "The Real Presence and Communion."

Our highly esteemed friend, Mr. Daniel Robinson, of the upper Black River section, is in the city and paid us a very pleasant visit this forenoon.

Mr. Z. V. Whitehead, of the Fayetteville Observer, was in the city yesterday and this forenoon. He left on the steamer at 2 o'clock on his return to Fayetteville.

Why was it that the Onslow R. R. people found it necessary to construct a sidetrack across the turnpike? It seems to us that it could just as easily have been placed on either side.

Sehr J. G. Morse, Hineckley, cleared yesterday afternoon for St. George, Grenada, with 91,800 feet lumber and 125,000 shingles, valued at $2,046, vessel by George Harriss, Son & Co., cargo by Mr. E. Kidder's Son.

Commendable.

All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the California Fig Syrup Company. It acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.

Nearly Exhausted.

The work of dredging in the Cape Fear river will be stopped about the first of May. This is not because it has been completed but because of the fact that the amount appropriated for that purpose will be exhausted then. The new river and harbor bill has not yet become a law and until it does pass and the apportionments are made the dredging in the river will not be resumed. Work on the bar, however, will still go on.

City Court.

The following cases were disposed of by the Mayor to day:
 Steve Anderson, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $20 or 30 days.

Thos. F. Bell, disorderly, case removed on affidavit to Justice Cowan's court.

Thos. F. Bell, a colored boy, was arraigned for reckless driving yesterday afternoon and was fined $20 or 30 days. The boy was driving down Princess street yesterday afternoon and ran over a lady who was crossing at the time at Second street. The lady was not seriously hurt, and the boy seeing the mischief his careless driving had caused, drove rapidly off. He was afterwards arrested and was before the Mayor to day.

Refreshing and invigorating Delicious Soda Water as drawn from Munds Brothers' magnificent new soda fountain at a temperature of 34°. Purest Fruit Syrup, Milk Shakes and Natural Mineral Water.

Forecasts.
 For North Carolina, light rains and lower temperature.

Little Lord Fauntleroy (Suit) Can be Seen at I. Shrier's.
 I. Shrier, who is always ahead in introducing new novelties, will sell this week the Lord Fauntleroy and Alfonso (King of Spain) suit. Also a full line of children's Kilt Suits at the lowest price for cash only. I. Shrier, corner Front and Princess streets.

The San Antonio.
 British barque San Antonio, which went ashore on the middle shoals, at the mouth of the Cape Fear river, some time since, was bought by parties in this city. Capt. Edgar Williams, of the steam tug Marie, has put a large steam pump on her to get the water out and thinks if he has good weather, that he will be able to bring her up to the city next week. She is said to be one of the staunchest built vessels that has ever come to this port.

State Convention, Y. M. C. A.
 The annual State Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association convened at Goldsboro this afternoon. There are 20 delegates in all from this city. Some left here on the 11:20 a. m. train to day, others will go up to-night and still others to-morrow. The proceedings promise to be of great interest. Following are the names of those who went up this morning: Rev. Peyton H. Hoge, D. D., Messrs. D. G. Worth, R. W. Hicks, H. C. McQueen, C. C. Brown, B. F. King, W. M. Cumming, W. H. Howell, G. M. Busey, J. M. Woodard, J. G. Wilkinson and John R. Turrentine, Jr.

Advance in Real Estate.

There has been a decided advance in real estate here, even during the past few months. It is safe to say that in many instances this advance has been 25 per cent. since last Fall. We heard to-day of an instance where a gentleman has recently purchased a half full lot, paying $1,750 therefor and who has since been offered $2,000 for the property. We believe, if he wanted to hold it for speculation, that he could get $2,500 for it next Fall. This property is the vacant half of a full lot, on which stands a comfortable residence, all of which sold a few years ago for $1,250. It is located just about three-fourths of a mile from Market Dock.

There has been no boom in real estate here but there has been a steady and a healthy advance for the past twelve months. But little has been bought for speculation. By far the largest part has been purchased by those who build on the sites, either for residences for themselves or for rent to others.

"Don't Give Up the Ship!"
 Don't surrender, although the fight be long and bitter, and results thus far but dismal failures. Old Bad Blood may yet be conquered and disease driven from the citadel of life. You have not used the proper remedy, or long ago you would have felt a change. You have tried this and that, a hundred bottles of that sarsaparilla, and feel you might as well have used so much rain water for all the good effect they had. Why have you not tried B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) made in Atlanta, Ga.? Because it isn't advertised so conspicuously as other remedies? Well, that's a poor reason. The greatest humbug can afford the largest advertisements. As for B. B. B. try it, and if six bottles don't do you more good than all the other blood medicine you have ever taken, call it a humbug, a name that has never yet been applied to it by any one.

Walter Bridges, Athens, Tenn., writes: "For six years I had been afflicted with running sores and an enlargement of the bone in my leg. I tried everything I heard of without any permanent benefit until Botanic Blood Balm was recommended to me. After using six bottles the sores healed, and I am now in better health than I have ever been. I send this testimonial unsolicited, because I want others to be benefited."

Attention, Hibernians!

THE MEMBERS OF THE HIBERNIAN Benevolent Society are ordered to assemble at their Hall on Monday, March 17th, at 9 o'clock a. m., with white gloves and the new badges, to celebrate their 24th anniversary, the natal day of Saint Patrick, the patron saint of Ireland, a day the annual return of which, however they may otherwise differ, is hailed with joy by all true Irishmen and their descendants.
 The procession will be formed in front of the Hall promptly at 10.10 o'clock and march to Saint Thomas' Church. The Right Reverend Leo Haid, of St. Mary's College, Gaston county, and Bishop of North Carolina, has kindly consented to visit Wilmington and honor us by delivering an address during divine service.
 A cordial invitation to attend is extended to our friends, and ushers will be present to seat all who may favor us by their presence. The Grand Reunion Ball will take place on Easter Monday night, full notice of which will be given hereafter.
