Good boating water in the Cape Fear now.

Ice formed plentifully yesterday morning and there was some this morning.

It was "keenly cold" here yesterday and the wind brought down upon us a regular blizzard from the Northwest.

Those who visit the stereopticon entertainment at the Opera House to-night will find the house comfortably warmed.

"I caught a cold somewhere," she remarked. "Probably it was in your head!" he suggested, chuckling over his wit. "If so I respectfully prescribe Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Here it is."

When ready to build, paint or repair you will find it to your advantage to buy your material of the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

The lecture on London to night at the Opera House will contain 48 fine views of the most interesting features of the city.

"It pleases me so I shall use no other," is what the farmer said when asked about the Boy Clipper Plow, sold by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Capt. R. H. Tomlinson, of the Cape Fear, has removed his family to this city. We trust that his stay here will be long, pleasant and profitable.

"Our Old Chief" is the name of our new and improved White Wamsutter Shirt. Wait for it: it will have it ready in a few days. Wilmington Shirt Factory, 122 Market St.

Paint your Buggy for 75 cents, "6 bits," with Detroit car. Paint, a varnish and paint combined. Guaranteed to give satisfaction. Sold by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

A Pinkerton detective says that he has located Walter Bingham at Antwerp and is willing to go after him provided the State will agree to pay expenses if he is the right party.

Ger. barque H. A. Walker, Moller, cleared to day for Stettin, with 3,430 barrels rosin, valued at $4,950, shipped by Messrs. Paterson, Downing & Co.

Commendable.
All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the California Fig Syrup Company. It acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.

Little Lord Fauntleroy (Suit) Can be Seen at I. Shrier's.
I. Shrier, who is always ahead in introducing new novelties, will sell this week the Lord Fauntleroy and Alfonso (King of Spain) suit. Also a full line of children's Kilt Suits at the lowest price for cash only. I. Shrier, corner Front and Princess streets.

The R. R. Depot at Burgaw.
The increased and increasing population and business at Burgaw has necessitated an enlargement of the depot and warehouse of the W. & W. R. R. at that place. Workmen are now busy in this needed enlargement and increase of accommodation and comfort for rail road travelers.

Criminal Court
The March term of the Criminal Court for New Hanover county convened to-day, with Judge Meares on the bench. The following is the grand jury for the term:
Geo. R. French, foreman; J. H. Strauss, W. H. King, W. B. Beery, C. Twining, G. W. Frederiek, D. D. George, J. J. Atwood, M. G. Chadwick, J. G. Craig, J. D. Sellers, Jas. Bland.

Wiggins Prophesies Some More.
Prof. E. Stone Wiggins serenely bobs up again and announces the programme of a big storm that is to sweep the Atlantic dry of shipping. It is to start on the European side and is booked there for to-day, to-morrow and Wednesday and on the American coast for next Friday and Saturday. He says that it will be a big thing—no sardine of a storm, in fact—and that it will be followed by earthquakes on the Northern Pacific and in Europe.

Mr. Robert E. Wood.

On last Saturday night Mr. Robert E. Wood, one of the oldest and most highly venerated of our citizens, passed quietly from life unto death. He had been sick for only a few weeks but his death was not unlooked for.

Mr. Wood was a native of Nantucket, Mass., and was born in 1815. He was a descendant of one of the oldest and best known of New England families. He first came to Wilmington in 1833, when he was a lad of 19 years. His uncle, the late Mr. P. W. Fanning, at that time published a newspaper called the People's Press and Mr. Wood assisted him in this. He soon after left Wilmington and went to St. Louis but returned here in the year 1838 and embarked in the building business with his elder brother, the late Mr. John C. Wood. These gentlemen erected many of the handsomest brick edifices in the city. St. James' Church was about the first. This was erected in the year 1839-40. Among other buildings put up by this firm may be mentioned the entire block on the North side of Market street, from Col. Hedrick's store to the corner of Second street; the building at Exchange corner and others to the West of it; Granite Row, on South Front street; the Anderson House, now a part of the Orton House; the Custom House, the Postoffice, the City Hall and Opera House, the Front Street M. E. Church, which was destroyed by fire four years ago, the C. C. R. R. office building, and many others.

Mr. Wood was the father of seven children, six of whom survive. They are: Mr. Robert B. Wood, Mr. Alfred V. Wood, Mrs. Jno. J. Conoley, of Brunswick, Ga.; and Dr. Thos. F. Wood, Mrs. N. B. Vincent and Mrs. R. B. Houston, of this city. Some years previous to the war Mr. Wood and his wife and eldest daughter, since deceased, became members of St. Paul's Episcopal Church and he died in full communion with that Church, having ever since been a faithful and consistent member of that communion.

Mr. Wood's life was to a large extent contemporaneous with that of Wilmington itself. He came here a mere lad and found an old fashioned town of about 3,500 inhabitants, with but few brick residences and no public buildings. He has seen many brick houses take the place of those of wood; he has seen a little town spring into a city of 25,000 inhabitants and of large commercial importance and he has seen beautiful church edifices and fine public buildings erected in many parts of the city.

In private life Mr. Wood was the genial, courteous, affable gentleman, with ever a pleasant smile, a kind word and a gentle grasp of the hand for those seeking to climb upward but whose feet had not yet found a secure footing on the ladder. He was honorable, thoroughly noble and high-minded in everything and in these things he has left a precious legacy to his children. At the last, his life's work done—and well done—he fell quietly on sleep, as does a child tried with play, and woke yesterday in a land far removed from this where there is no trial, care or trouble, or shadow of trouble, and where the soul, freed from its earthly trammels, shall find rest in the promise that: "They shall hunger no more; neither thirst any more. * * * For the Lamb, which is in the midst of the throne, shall feed them and shall lead them unto living fountains of water; and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes."

The Cause of Pain.
An ache or pain is not of itself a disease, it is but a symptom, and warns the sufferer that there is something the matter with his physical organization. Weak kidneys, bad blood, and nervousness are frequently the source or cause of the many mysterious aching sensations that afflict the body. You can remove the cause of such distress by using B. B. B. Botanic Blood Balm.
C. H. Roberts, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "My kidneys were disordered and gave me excruciating pain. A single bottle of B. B. B. helped me wonderfully."
Wm. N. Nelson, McDonough, Ga., writes: "B. B. B. has benefited my daughter very much. She was afflicted with severe nervousness. I think it the best family medicine."
W. R. Ellis, Brunswick, Va., writes: "I have tried B. B. B. and find it a great thing for the blood. It also cured me of rheumatic pains."

Boys! we can sell you a Bracket Saw, with frame, for 10 cents. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Pender County Court.

A subscriber to the REVIEW at Burgaw sends us a full report of the proceedings of the Spring Term of the Superior Court for Pender county which was in session there last week and which closed its labors on Friday last. He prefaces his report with some very complimentary allusions to the REVIEW and the JOURNAL and the hearty endorsement they have both met with in Pender county, for which we thank him most heartily but which our well known modesty forces us to omit. The report is as follows:

The March term of Pender Superior Court adjourned late last Friday evening after a laborious session. That model jurist and high-toned gentleman, Judge Graves, presided. Our people are most favorably impressed with his abilities and high qualifications for the bench. That sterling man and faithful Solicitor of this Judicial District, Hon. O. H. Allen, attended to his official duties with proverbial devotion and satisfaction to lovers of law and order. He is a rising member of the legal profession and a true gentleman in all respects.

Crime seems to be on the decrease in Pender. As an evidence the jail has been pretty clear of prisoners for nearly a year, and the county only sends one to the penitentiary at this term. That was a colored boy for obstructing the railroad track of the W. & W. R. R. His term is six months. There were fewer true bills found by the grand jury than usual. This jury found the condition and management of the poor house to be good but complained of the sanitary condition, in some respects, of the county jail. No doubt the Sheriff and Superintendent of Health will apply the proper improvement and reform. It was a good grand jury, with Mr. R. W. Rivenbark as its excellent foreman.

The following were among the most important criminal cases disposed of: State vs. D. J. McMillan, false pretense, in illegally obtaining a deed, the property of J. B. Newkirk; argued by Mr. Marsden Bellamy and the Solicitor for the State, and Messrs. Bruce Williams, E. W. Kerr and J. D. Kerr for the defense. Mr. A. H. McMillan was also one of the defendants in this case. It occupied an entire day. The jury rendered a verdict of acquittal, which elicited considerable applause in the court house.

State vs. John Costin, colored, for shooting Angus Williams, colored, convicted, fined $25 and costs, and a peace bond of $200.

There was a decided accumulation of business on the civil docket. The following noted cases were tried and disposed of: Arnold Teachy vs. Patrick Boney and others, ejectment case of eight years standing. An array of able counsel on each side; decision in favor of defendants. Another important ejectment case, of eight years' duration, with able counsel on each side, was that of Hale vs. Brown. This case took nearly an entire day as did the other ejectment case. Verdict in favor of defendant. About one-half of the cases on the civil docket remain to be tried.

Large crowds were generally in attendance at Burgaw during the Superior Courts of Pender. This week is no exception. It is pleasing to note an air and look of determination among the farmers and all classes in Pender not to succumb to the hard times and great scarcity of money. They have gone to work this year in earnest. If economy and energy will avail they are bent on overcoming the poverty, scarcity of provisions and other depressing circumstances incident to the farming classes and laborers of our State. A good crop year will be potential in enabling them to throw off the heavy burdens upon all our people. Add to this a change in our tariff laws, especially radical changes in our national banking system, and laws relative to the value and coinage of silver, and a brighter and better day will follow for us all.

For North Carolina, fair weather and warmer on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. For Wilmington and vicinity, fair weather.

St. Patrick's Day.

The Hibernian Benevolent Society paraded to day in honor of St. Patrick, the patron saint of Ireland, as well as in celebration of the 24th anniversary of their Society. Mr. Timothy Donlan, Marshal of the Day, was in charge of the procession. They turned out in large numbers, more than we have ever seen in line before. They appeared for the first time in badges, only the marshal being in regalia. They marched to St. Thomas' Church where a beautiful and eloquent address was delivered by Rt. Rev. Bishop Haid. They then returned to Hibernian Hall, on Third street, over which a new Irish flag had been hoisted, and where several short addresses were delivered by the President, Mr. M. O'Brien, Col. John L. Cantwell, Mr. John Dyer and others.

An election of officers was held, resulting as follows, all being re-elections:

President—M. O'Brien.
Vice President—J. H. Sweeney.
Secretary—Wm. Flanagan.
Asst. Secretary—Wm. Sheehan.
Treasurer—L. Brown.

This afternoon a reception to the members of the Society was given by the President, Mr. M. O'Brien, at his residence, on North Front street, from 3 to 7 o'clock.

The following is the experience of a Baltimore butcher: "I have suffered with bad headaches for years and have tried many remedies without obtaining relief. I was advised to give Salvation Oil a trial and it has entirely cured me."
