A $20 A Day Man!

A VOICE from Ohio. Here is a portrait of Mr. Corrington, of Salem, Ohio. He writes "Was at work on a farm for $20 a month; I now have an agency for E. C. Allen & Co.'s allcures and publications and often make $20 a day." (Signed) W. H. CORRINGTON.

William Kinney, Harrisburg, Pa., writes: "I have never known anything to sell like your allcures. Yesterday I took orders enough to pay me over $25." W. J. Lippmore, Bangor, Me., writes: "I take an order for your allcures almost every house I visit. My profit is often as much as $20 for a single day's work." Others are doing quite as well. We have not space to give you letters from them in full. Every one who takes hold of this grand business pays up grand profits.

Shall we start YOU in this business, reader? Write to us and learn all about it for yourself. We are starting many; we will start you if you don't delay, and another gets ahead of you in your part of the country. If you take hold you will be able to pick up gold dust right along. Read—On account of a forced manufacturer's sale 125,000 ten dollar Photograph Albums are to be sold to the people for $2 each. Bound in Royal Crimson, Silk Velvet Finish, Charmingly decorated insides. Handsomest album in the world. Largest Size. Greatest bargain ever offered. Sold on sight. Liberal terms. Big money for agents. Any one can become a successful agent. Sells itself on sight—no talking necessary. Wherever shown, every one wants to purchase. Agents take thousands of orders with rapidity never before known. Great profits await every worker. Agents are making fortunes. Ladies make as much as men. Young people can do as well as any one. ☞ Full information and terms Free, to those who write for same, with particulars and terms for our Family Bibles, Books and Periodicals. After you know all, should you conclude to go no further, why no harm is done.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

THURSDAY, MARCH 20, 1890.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N.C., as second-class matter.

The anthracite coal mines are idle because bituminous coal is cheaper. All the combinations, consolidations, capitalization and reorganization in the world will not alter this inexorable fact. The plant, the capital and the labor of the anthracite mines were arranged ten and fifteen years ago in ignorance of the size of bituminous supplies, and in the belief that anthracite could keep pace with their production. It has not. Bituminous coal steadily drives out anthracite, which does not keep pace with the growth of the country, and the result is that no rest or peace will come in the anthracite regions until the inevitable scaling-down takes place.

The West coast of Africa is getting to be as attractive a place for commercial adventures as America was two centuries ago, and the manners and methods of the newcomers are much the same as that of the French, English, Swedish and Dutch settlers of this country. Each nation acquires possession of as much available territory as possible, conciliates or drives out the natives, and then prepares for a struggle with its Christian neighbors. There, as here, Great Britain demands, and is likely to get the lion's share, and, it must be confessed, she deserves it, for her people have sustained the greater part of the expense and danger that have attended early explorations, and have made a settlement possible.

FEDERAL INTERFERENCE.

We do not believe that the Republicans will dare press to a conclusion their scheme for Federal supervisors of election. So far as the South is concerned they would not hesitate one moment, but there are other things and sections to consider. The same law which applies in the South must also apply to Northern and Eastern and Western States, and there the people will not submit to it. If it can be arranged so that the law may be enforced only in the Southern States the bill will certainly become a law. But just there lies the difficulty. There are some Republican newspapers up North that do not wear a muzzle and they are not slow, even now, to protest against the iniquity of the measure. As the Charleston News and Courier says, it is not possible to predict the result of the proposed legislation, although the dangerous tendency of all Federal interference with the local affairs of the States as such cannot be concealed. The New York World says that the supreme objection the Lodge bill is that it is "another step in the dangerous direction of centralization at Washington." The Philadelphia Times thinks that "the probabilities at present are against its passage," but hopes that the "discussion of the new force bill will go "ahead," for "the better it is understood the more strongly it will be condemned." The unmuzzled Republican press of the country are united in their opposition to Federal interference with the affairs of the State, while the independent newspapers denounce the Lodge scheme as prejudicial to the cause of good government and destructive of popular liberty.

"The special lesson of all such attempts at partisan legislation to the people of the South," says the News and Courier "is that the South, a quarter of a century after the war, has not been wholly restored to the Union, and that the only salvation for the South is to stand solidly together. So long as the Republican party is in power at Washington, the Southern States will be treated as conquered provinces. So long as the Hoars and Chandlers and Ingallses and Reeds and Lodges direct the course of Federal legislation, national feeling in the South will be a plant of slow and uncertain growth.

Epoch.

The transition from long, lingering and painful sickness to robust health marks an epoch in the life of the individual. Such a remarkable event is treasured in the memory and the agency whereby the good health has been attained is gratefully blessed. Hence it is that so much is heard in praise of Electric Bitters. So many feel they owe their restoration to health to the use of the Great Alterative and Tonic. If you are troubled with any disease of Kidneys, Liver or Stomach of long or short standing you will surely find relief by the use of Electric Bitters. Sold at 50c. and $1 per bottle at Robt. R. Bellamy's wholesale and retail drug store.

What It Costs

Must be carefully considered by the great majority of people, in buying even necessities of life. Hood's Sarsaparilla commends itself with special force to the great middle classes, because it combines positive economy with great medicinal power. It is the only medicine of which can truly be said "100 Doses One Dollar," and a bottle taken according to directions will average to last a month.

The Diversions of a Pipl-mat in Turkey,

By Hon. Samuel S. ("Sunset") Cox, late U. S. Minister to Turkey.

A magnificent volume of over 600 pages, beautifully and profusely illustrated.

MR. COX'S LATEST AND BEST EFFORT.

FACTS AND FUN, HISTORY AND HUMOR.

The work sparkles with the brightest wit. It contains numerous amusing stories, but it also gives a clear, concise, and interesting account of the Ottoman Empire, from its foundation to the present day.

This book will have a large sale, and live agents should secure territory at once.

Only thoroughly reliable agents, who will work their territory "for all it is worth," are wanted. Experienced agents preferred, but others who will promise earnest work will be accepted.
