"A new factory will soon be built by Dr. Gating of machine-gun fame." That is a new material out of which to erect a building.

It is said that whenever Mr. Gladstone catches a cold he goes to bed.
We go there without waiting to catch a cold.

It is stated that "the Duchess of Marlborough will sail alone on the Teutonic on the 19th." But why not take along a crew to work the ship?

William D. Howells, the novelist, is said to shrink from having his portrait published, but howells is his phiz to be handed down to posterity?

Joseph Biggar, the Irish Home Ruler, left the bulk of his estate to his son Joseph and now Joe is as biggar man as his daddy was, bigger, maybe.

Henry George will not run again for Mayor of New York until ballot reform is established. In other words, he will never run again, not if he lives to be as old as the ancient Methuseleh.

A Philadelphia newspaper has just put in a press that is capable of running off 144,000 copies in an hour.
We think, if we had this press, that we might get our entire addition out in about 65 minutes.

Senator Quay's son, Richard, is said to be slated for the nomination for the Legislature from Beaver county next Fall. If he should be beaten, as we hope he luey be, then we'll have some Quayl on toast.

Benjamin F. Butler is said to be able to quote the Bible more freely and more accurately than any other man in public life. Yes, we have heard about it before. Several times we have seen an allusion to the devil quoting Scripture.

It is said that Webster's Dictionary contains less than one half the number of words used by Senator Blair in his speech on the educational bill, and this is a good reason why the dictionary should be read in preference to his speech.

And so the Blair bill has been defeated in the Senate, as has been the foregone conclusion for some time past. Senator Vance favored the bill and Senator Ransom opposed it. They were paired. Previously, both Senators voted for it.

Money seems to be a drug in New York. The box sheet for the sale of tickets for single performances during the Patti-Tamagno engagement was opened at the Metropolitan Opera House on Wednesday morning and the sales amounted to $15,- 000 during the day. Best single seats $7; best boxes, to seat six, $60.

W. S. Rawles, of Peru, has a silver spoon which was among the plunder taken from a British gunboat by a party of American soldiers, among whom was his grandfather, in 1881, and the spoon has been in the possession of his family ever since. One spoon! Pshaw! Ben Butler will turn up the remnants of his nose in disdain.

It is said that out of all the Senators and Congressmen and big guns generally who spoke for Harrison in 1888 but one, William E. Mason, talked without pay. When that man dies—and die he will soon if he doesn't change his politics, for he is too good for the Republican party—he should have a monument more enduring than brass and higher than the Eiffel tower.

The Norfolk Virginian says that in the selection of his staff Governor McKinney will appoint gentlemen of his own age and his own sort, and old acquaintances, and who even when on duty would eschew uniforms and dress as civilians. This is a capital idea and we would be glad to see it followed up in North Carolina. There has been too much fuss and feathers and brass about the business and somehow Confederate soldiers have never been shown much preference when these empty honors were distributed.

It formerly seemed a sort of sarcasm to say: "It's better to laugh than to sigh"—especially when a fellow had a vexing, teasing cough —but now that all the druggists sell Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup anybody can laugh and get fat.

Chauncey M. Depew is said to travel 500 miles on an average every week. Besides this, is an annual trip to Europe. He always travels with a pocket full of passes and takes his chauncys of dead-heading at the hotels.

The Wisconsin Supreme Court has declared that the reading of the Bible in the public schools is unconstitutional. The next thing we may expect to hear is that it is ruled out of court and that witnesses are to be sworn on one of Bob Ingersolls' old hats.

The young German Emperor has adopted some very stringent and very sensible resolutions in regard to dueling. He has not prohibited it altogether but no duel is in future to take place until there has been a thorough inquiry into all the circumstances by two colonels, who are to allow an encounter only if the provocation was a public assault, to which an apology has been refused, or when an insult has been offered to a lady who is a relation or the betrothed of the challenger. Under no circumstances, however, is a duel to be permitted when the quarrel has arisen out of a brawl in a club room, coffee house, or any similar place, when one of the parties has already been "out" three times, or where one of the parties is a married man with children.

"Why doesn't he take Hood's Sarsaparilla?" is the general inquiry of friends when a person suffers from any disease of the blood.

asked about the Boy Clipper Plow, sold by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

The box sheet for the entertainment on Monday night next,
"Up the Rhine", is now open at Mr.
Yates', where seats may be secured.

The headquarters of the Burgaw & Onslow Railroad seem to have been removed to the moon, where the project probably first originated.

Danish barque Rialto, Jorgensen, cleared to day for Middleboro-on-Tees, England, with 3,586 barrels rosin, valued at $4,700, shipped by Messrs. Alex. Sprant & Son.

We had a fine shower of rain here yesterday afternoon, accompanied by thunder and lightning, but it seems to have been merely local, as there was none of it as far North as Burgaw.

The new W. & W. railroad warehouse at Burgaw is rapidly approaching completion. It is a frame structure, built on the site of the old one, and will prove a handsome, commodious and imposing building.

Boys! we can sell you a Bracket Saw, with frame, for 10 cents. N.
Jacobi Hdw. Co.

A sociable will be given to-night at the residence of Mr. William Larkins, corner Sixth and Dock streets, for the benefit of the First Baptist Church. Refreshments will be served and some fine vocal and instrumental music may be expected. The admission is only 10 cents.

Commendable.
All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the California Fig Syrup Company. It acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.

Criminal Court
The court has been occupied all day in the Brown murder trial. The examination of witnesses was concluded last evening and argument by counsel was had to day. Col.
Moore spoke first, for the State, and he was followed by the defendant's counsel, Messrs. A. J. Marshall, Marsden Bellamy and John D. Bellamy, Jr., in the order named. Col.
Moore spoke in reply and was still speaking at 4 o'clock. The verdict will probably be rendered to night, and the general opinion is that it will be an acquittal.

Some Beautiful Work.

John G. Wagner, Esq., of Masonboro Sound, brought to the city a day or two ago fifteen deer and fawn hides, which had been dressed by him for Mr. Samuel Bear, Sr.
The work is beautifully done and an expert in the business anywhere in the North, with all the appliances of the day to work with can't beat it.
The hair is all retained, in its natural colors, and the dressed side is as soft and pliant as silk. Mr. Bear has deer and other skins dressed as fast as he can obtain them, and e finds a ready market for them. They are used as lap robes for vehicles and baby carriages, and for rugs.

A Correction.

In our notice, a day or two since, regarding Miss Annie Stolter, we gave the impression that the amiable lady and accomplished vocalist had been engaged permanently to sing with the First Baptist Choir, which placed her in rather a false position.
She has been engaged to sing with that choir at the concert on Tuesday night, but she is not engaged to sing regularly with them. We make this correction in justice to all concerned. It was a misunderstanding of the idea our informant intended to convey, conceived the more readily, perhaps, from our high estimate of Miss Stolter's abilities as a young vocalist of great promise.

The Southport Band.

The full name of the band organized at Southport is "The Cape Fear Silver Cornet Band." A full list of the officers, of the members and of the pieces, is as follows, as we find it in the Southport Leader:

S. S. Drew—Manager and Leader.
Ed. H. Cranmer, Jr.—Secretary.
Asa Doshier—Treasurer.

The members of the band are as follows: Jesse Weeks and Robert Davis, E. flat horns; Asa Doshier and S. S. Drew, B. flat cornets; Clarence Holden and John Cranmer, E. flat alto horns; R. L. Piver, B. flat tenor horn; E. H. Cranmer, Jr., B. flat baritone horn; T. B. Carr, E. flat bass horn; John Holden, small drum; Robert Weeks, bass drum.

The band will meet every Tuesday and Thursday for practice.

The Cause of Pain.

An ache or pain is not of itself a disease, it is but a symptom, and warns the sufferer that there is something the matter with his physical organization. Weak kidneys, bad blood, and nervousness are frequently the source or cause of the many mysterious aching sensations that afflict the body. You can remove the cause of such distress by using B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm).
C. H. Roberts, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "My kidneys were disordered and gave me excruciating pain. A single bottle of B. B. B. helped me wonderfully."

Wm. N. Nelson, McDonough, Ga., writes: "B. B. B. has benefited my daughter very much. She was afflicted with severe nervousness. I think it the best family medicine." W. R. Ellis, Brunswick, Ga., writes:
"I have tried B. B. B. and find it a great thing for the blood. It also cured me of rheumatic pains."

C. F. C. & C. C.

Southport has organized the "Cape Fear Controlling and Contracting Company." The first stockholders' meeting was held on last Monday evening. The officers elected are:

President and General Manager—
M. Fargusson.

Vice President—W. H. Pyke.
Secretary and Treasurer—Chas.
H. Smith.

Directors—Chas. H. Smith, J. J.
Adkins, W. H. Pyke, Wm. Weeks,
J. A. Pullan, J. T. Pinner and M.
Fargusson.

Carolina Yacht Club.

The annual meeting of the Carolina Yacht Club was held last night, at which officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows:

Commodore—Wm. Latimer.
Fleet Captain—Norwood Giles.
Flag Captain—Geo. D. Parsley.
Governing Board—H. M. Bowden, C. W. Worth, J. McR. Cowan.

Parser—F. A. Lord.
Measurer—D. MacRae, Jr.
Marshal—H. McL. Green.

Much interest was manifested by those who were present. The club is now in a flourishing condition, many new names having been added. The next regatta season promises to be an unusually brilliant one.

Prospects About Burgaw.

Mr. J. T. Collins, of Burgaw, was in the city to day and from him we learn that the prospects of the truckers in his section have improved but little of late. Peas and potatoes and other truck, which looked so promising previous to the recent cold weather, were killed out.
Strawberries, although covered with straw, were very badly hurt.
Some of the plants were killed.
There may be some berries a little later on but it is feared that the product will be limited and the fruit may not be of the best. However, everybody has pulled off his coat and gone to work again with redoubled energy and the farmers are putting in some of their best licks now.

Fort Caswell.

Some one has written to the Southport Leader urging that some effort be made to have Fort Caswell repaired and put on a war footing and suggests that a delegation be sent to Washington City with this end in view. It is something that ought by all means to be done and it will probably be done some of these days—by the first foreign party that comes to blows with Uncle Sam.

Fort Caswell is now a mass of ruins. It was at one time one of the most formidable and imposing works in the country. It was built, we think, in 1828 and at a cost of $800,- 000. It consists of two strong lines of earth works, enclosing a large citadel where formerly a garrison could be sheltered. The inner line of works covers casemates, pierced for small arms. A moat, now filled up, surrounds the walls and entrance is by drawbridge, through massive oaken gates. The works, if restored, would of course be modernized to meet the requirements for defense against the new and powerful projectiles of the day. One peculiar feature about the long casemates is that they are whispering galleries where in case of attack orders could be delivered to the defenders in a whisper and perfectly heard by all.

Fort Sumter was bombarded on the 14th day of April, 1861, and on the 16th Fort Caswell was occupied by State troops, under orders from Gov. John W. Ellis. Three companies took possession under command of Col. John L. Cantwell, then commanding the 39th Regiment, N.
C. Militia. These companies were the Wilmington Light Infantry, Capt. W. L. DeRosset; the German Volunteers, Capt. C. Cornelson; and the Wilmington Rifle Guards, Capt. O. P. Meares. Fort Johnson, at Southport, was occupied the same day by the Cape Fear Light Artillery, Capt. John J. Hedrick. Fort Caswell was held during the war, by the Confederates and was never attacked. On the night of January 15th, 1865, the night on which Fort Fisher fell, the garrison was withdrawn, the citadel was blown up and Fort Caswell was abandoned. It has remained in this condition ever since.

"Jack shall pipe and Gill shall dance" just as long out in the open

American citizen don't fear neuralgia with Salvation Oil to the front.
