The Postmaster General said to look worried and weary and Wan.

The new Duke of Aosta is a tall, handsome young man, with a fortune of $3,000,000. We never yet saw a young man with three millions who was not handsome.

The Ohio Democrats seem to be very much in love with the gerrymander idea, and one of their members in the Legislature now proposes to choose the State's Presidential electors by Congressional districts.

The Queen Dowager of Portugal, an Italian Princess, who married at the age of 15, was very extravagant in her ideas. It is reported that on one occasion she brought home from Paris 1,000 pairs of shoes. An extravagant gal is that Portugal.

To an interviewer who visited him recently, Mr. Gladstone made the astonishing statement that if the first line of any page in Homer was given to him as a cue, he could repeat the entire page, word for word, in the original Greek. We know a number who can do the same thing—but they must have the book before them.

The readiness with which the bill for the transfer of the revenue marine to the Navy Department passed the House of Representatives indicates that this measure will speedily become a law. The readiness with which the Republican majority in the House transfer anything from a legitimate to an illegitimate source reminds one of the operations of a gang of pickpockets.

If indications at the home of President Harrison count for anything, the present Administration is surely going to pieces on the pension rock, as well as against that of tariff legislation. General Harrison has totally failed to satisfy the soldier element of Indiana, since his inauguration, but recently the discontent has become more marked than ever in that State, and also throughout the country.

A bill has been introduced into the legislature of Ohio to provide for separate schools for colored children Ohio, you're a flyer, and a lyre, and your sire, abolition erier, with wild desire, got on fire, and climbed up higher, and fell in the mire, and looked at the spire, and thought how shyer, is a Southern squire, in a Kentucky shire, who smokes his briar, until it can't get drier, un, less colored by a dyer, is of mixed schools than are you. Oh my, Ohio! Oh, fie, Ohio!

"And I am eighty years old today," the old man said. "What do you consider the cause of your longevity?" asks a curious friend. "Well, health and good habits up to seventy, since then Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup."

Mr. James F. Post, Jr., Secretary and Treasurer of the W. & W. R. L. Co., gives notice that 3 per cent. interest on the certificates of indebtedness of that road will be paid at his office on April 1st.

The annual statement of the United States Branch of the British and Foreign Marine Insurance Co. is published elsewhere in this issue to day. It is an excellent showing. Mr. M. S. Willard, of this city, is the general agent.

Mr. B. F. Swann has an advertisement in this paper of chipped beef for sale. He is an expert in cutting it, getting it out in nice, thin slices. The proper way to cook this beef, by the way, is to fry it in butter until it is perfectly crisp and then serve hot. Get some of Mr. Swann's beef and try it. See his ad, in this issue.

Miss Louise Goodwin, after an absence of several months at the North, has returned to the city and is again with Miss Annie Thompson at the millinery house on North Front street. She has been in the New York market for weeks past selecting new and pretty things in the millinery and fancy goods line for the Spring and Summer trade.

Something New.
Mr. W. M. Cumming, at No. 17 Princess street, exhibits something new in the way of patent elastic felt mattresses. He has the agency here for the manufacture of these goods. The material is very soft and springy and makes a delightful mattress and cushion. It is claimed that it will outlast any other material, except hair. The prices, too, are very reasonable.

The Hibernian Sociable.
Easter Monday night, April 7th, has been selected as the date for the annual ball and sociable of the Hibernian Benevolent Society. Col. John L. Cantwell and Messrs. M. O'Brien, Thos. Quinlivan, William Sheehan, W. J. Tracy, Wm. Bates, John W. Reilly and S. A. Greelish are the gentlemen who have been selected as the committee of arrangements for the occasion, and they are already making preparations for the event. It promises to be the most brilliant and notable occasion of the kind in the annals of the Society.

An Evil Complained Of.
A city correspondent writes us to enter a protest against the dangerous piles of wood on the wharf, in various directions. Some of those piles go up occasionally as high as 16 feet and if they should topple over and fall on some one loss of life and limb would probably result. He thinks, too, that they are dangerous in case of fire, more so than frame buildings, which would not be allowed in the same localities. There is much force and justice in what the writer urges, but people must have the wood and it must be stored somewhere. If it is an evil it might be difficult to find a remedy for it.

"One breaks the glass and cuts his fingers; But they whom Truth and Wisdom lead, Can gather honey from a weed."

Those who are wise, and who love the truth, will believe what we say when we tell them that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has done more to relieve the sufferings of women than all other medicines now known to science. It cures all irregularities, internal inflammation and ulcerations displacements and kindred troubles. It is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years.

Refreshing and Invigorating
Delicious Soda Water as drawn from Munds Brothers' magnificent new soda fountain at a temperature of 34°. Purest Fruit Syrup, Milk Shakes and Natural Mineral Water.

Forecasts.
For North Carolina, light rain and warmer weather. For Wilmington and vicinity, light rains.

Commendable.
All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the California Fig Syrup Company. It acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.

The Sacred Concert.
A large number of tickets to the Sacred Concert at the First Baptist Church to-night have already been sold and there is no doubt of the presence of a large, appreciative and cultured audience. The programme has been highly commended by many of musical tastes and a rare musical feast is sure to result.

Little Lord Fauntleroy (Suit) Can be Seen at I. Shrier's.
I. Shrier, who is always ahead in introducing new novelties, will sell this week the Lord Fauntleroy and Alfonso (King of Spain) suits. Also a full line of children's Kilt Suits at the lowest price for cash only. I. Shrier, corner Front and Princess streets.

Up the Rhine.
The stereopticon exhibition "Up the Rhine" was attended by a fine audience last night and one which was truly delighted with the entertainment. A little vocal music was introduced at one point and this added decidedly to the interest of the occasion. The next lecture and exhibition will be on "Scenes in Paris" and it will be given on Monday night, April 7th.

Another New Enterprise.
Mr. W. L. DeRosset, Jr., leaves here to-night for New York, where he goes to perfect his knowledge of the process of photo and zinc etchings. He will be absent about a month. Mr. DeRosset proposes to establish here, in connection with his job printing office, a large engraving establishment. With this end in view he has already secured the services of a competent artist, Mr. Joung Jager, who has worked on Harper's Weekly and in government offices. He has enlarged his quarters by securing the adjoining building and now has 1,800 square feet of flooring. On his return the necessary material will be put in and the business fully inaugurated. He will keep a man on the road continuously and reasonably expects to draw patronage from every Southern State. He will be prepared to fill any kind of order in his line at short notice. We wish him an abundant success.

Kind Words of Cheer.
When a proprietor knows he has a grand and good remedy for the many ills that flesh and blood are heir to, it pleases him exceedingly to receive such evidences of appreciation as follows:
W. F. Miles, Milesville, N. C., writes: "I have used Botanic Blood Balm and find it to be all that it is recommended to be."
D. C. Blanton, Thomasville, Ga., writes: "I have used Botanic Blood Balm in my family as a tonic and blood purifier with highest satisfactory results."
F. O. Hoffman, editor Times, Rocky Mount, Va., writes: "I am pleased to say that Botanic Blood Balm is the best appetizer and tonic for delicate people I ever saw. It acted like a charm in my case."
F. H. Hickey, 1208 Main street, Lynchburg, Va., writes: "I was broke out all over with sores, and my hair was falling out. After using a few bottles of Botanic Blood Balm my hair quit falling out and all the sores got well."
Julia E. Johnson, Stafford's P. O., S. C., writes: "I had suffered 13 years with eczema and was at times confined to my bed. The itching was terrible. My son-in-law got me one half dozen bottles of Botanic Blood Balm, which entirely cured me, and I ask you to publish this for the benefit of others suffering in like manner."
August A. Klages, 810 St. Charles street, Baltimore, Md., writes: "From my youth I suffered from a poisonous taint in my blood. My face and body was continually affected with eruptions and sores. I am now 42 years of age and had been treated both in Germany and America, but no remedy overcame the trouble until I used Botanic Blood Balm. I have used about twenty bottles, and now my skin is clear, smooth and healthy, and I consider the poison permanently driven from my blood. I endorse it as the best blood remedy."
