

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. XIV.

WILMINGTON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, MARCH 26, 1890.

NO 87.

The Farmers' Alliance is letting the administration know that it is time to toe the Tariff Reform mark—corn or no corn.

Winston claims to have a regular wild west boom, and there is no Buffalo Bill in it, although a great deal of building is going on there.

It is said that "Raleigh is to have a red-hot Republican paper this Summer." Let the Democratic press in the State give it the cold shoulder and cool it off.

Four Richmond boys who left home for the Far West to fight the wild Indians have been heard from. They were ten miles from home and very, very, very hungry.

Senator Stanford has got the Presidential bee in his bonnet and it is stinging him like fun. He will Stanford at the convention and backward after it is over.

The Jewish population of Palestine has increased 70,000 annually in the last five years. In 1741 Palestine contained but 8,000 Jews; in 1883, 20,000; end of 1888, 70,000.

The French Ministerial Crisis has attracted but little attention in Europe—anywhere else for that matter. It is simply one of those periodic eruptions on the body politic that is bound to take place at stated intervals.

It is alleged that a census taker was detected a few nights since in Lenoir county in the act of stealing a goat. This is a mistake. He was merely taking a couple of horns, with goat attachments. He had not quite lost his census.

We have inadvertently neglected to state the fact that Senator Ransom was incorrectly reported in the vote on the Blair bill. He was paired with Senator Casey, of North Dakota, and if he had been present would have voted for the bill.

Old Cump Sherman has bought his own monument and paid for it and directed that it be clapped on over him as soon as he is "in the cold, cold ground." A picture of the burning of Columbia should be cut on it in bas relief. It would be very suggestive.

A Western syndicate has just concluded the purchase of 30,000 acres of land in Dade county, Georgia, the purchase netting the former owners of the land $420,000. The lands abound in coal and iron ore, and they will be developed to their fullest capacity.

An old negress in Dallas, Texas, who claims to be one hundred and forty-five, gives a very clear and consistent history of her life. Although very feeble she still keeps up her love for a pipe of tobacco and the probability is that if she could be induced to give up that pipe she might yet live to a ripe old age.

The La Plata Gazette announces that on April 1 an electric mail service will be set in operation between Buenos Ayres and Montevideo. The two cities, which are about 180 miles apart, have just been connected by a double line of wires. The tiny mail boxes, containing messages on thin paper, will be slipped along these wires with lightning rapidity.

The new tariff bill not only does not reduce the present high war taxes on any of the necessities of life, excepting sugar and tobacco, but it increases the present needlessly oppressive taxes throughout the general list of common necessities consumed by the masses of the people. And that is just exactly what is expected of any bill the Republicans may frame.

The New Orleans Times-Democrat expresses disappointment at the showing of the census of that city lately completed by the Board of Assessors. The count makes the population of the city 236,938, against 216,360 in 1880. The Times-Democrat thinks the work has been indifferently performed, and that the coming work of the Federal enumerators will show a much larger increase in the Crescent City.

I have used Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in my family for 8 years past and it has proven such an inestimable boon that I unhesitatingly affirm that I would not be without it under any circumstances. E. C. DEAN, Eng. Fire Dept., Petersburg, Va.

In Derry, N. H., flannel is distributed to the poor under a legacy left for the purpose, and it is said to shrink dreadfully, even before it is distributed.

The newest freak of Paris fashion is a looking-glass stand for the menu, so that the ladies can see how they look at the table. There is generally one for every two ladies; menu, as it were.

We hear of an inveterate gum-chewer in this city who is under treatment for an ulcerated jaw. The example is unheeded, however. It is a free country and all can do as they please.

That accomplished gentleman, Henry Blount, will deliver the address at the commencement of the Lumber Bridge High School. There will be some fine poetic points in that Blount address.

For bracing up the nerves, purifying the blood and curing sick headache and dyspepsia, there is nothing equal to Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Shad sold for 25 and 45 cents a pair this morning.

There was a nice shower of rain here last night about 10.30 o'clock. Turner's almanac promises wind and rain for the latter part of this week.

Boys! we can sell you a Bracket Saw, with frame, for 10 cents. N. Jacobi Hdwr. Co.

We are glad to see Mr. A. F. Lucas on the streets again after several weeks of severe sickness.

Wouldn't it be a good idea to enclose the grass plot on Market street and plant a few shrubs there?

When ready to build, paint or repair you will find it to your advantage to buy your material of the N. Jacobi Hdwr. Co.

"It pleases me so I shall use no other," is what the farmers said when asked about the Boy Clipper Plow, sold by the N. Jacobi Hdwr. Co.

Our young friend, Mr. G. C. Hewlett, leaves to night for Baltimore where he will make his home in the future. We wish him much success.

Ask for "Our Old Chief." This new and improved Wamsutta Shirt is now ready and for sale at our Shirt Factory only, at 75c. 122 Market St., J. Elsbaech, prop.

We really cannot see why it should take three whole days for the Goldboro Argus to travel 84 miles, yet it is the fact. Sunday's issue was received last night.

Paint your Buggy for 75 cents, "6 bits," with Detroit car. Paint, a varnish and paint combined. Guaranteed to give satisfaction. Sold by the N. Jacobi Hdwr. Co.

The first shrimps of the season were in market yesterday. We measured one that was fully six inches in length. They were caught by Mr. J. W. Rogers, on Wrightville Sound. He had but one quart and he got 20 cents for that.

Mr. I. H. Weill, at No. 114 Market street, (under this office) is constantly in receipt of new styles of Spring headgear for men, youths and children. He has an elegant stock and his goods are of the newest and latest designs. See ad.

The steamer Louise leaves here this afternoon for Jacksonville. She was bought by the Onslow R. R. Co., some time ago, for work on the river. Capt. Geo. M. Crapon will be in command and Mr. J. J. Bell is the engineer.

Hon. C. W. McClanmy's resolution, in the House, appropriating the sum of $3,000 to enclose and beautify the monument at the Moore's Creek battle ground, has been favorably reported on by the committee to whom it was referred.

The Charlotte News came to us yesterday in a new dress, in regular Spring garniture, in fact, looking brighter and snicker and prettier than ever before. It is a handsome, thriving, popular, newsy journal, and is meeting with great success. May its shadow never grow less.

This has been a beautiful, balmy Spring day, with the wind from the West.

Ger. barque Vandenberg, Rehberg, cleared to day for Swansea, England, with 3,895 barrels rosin, valued at $5,396, shipped by Messrs. Paterson, Downing & Co.

The members of the Wilmington Steam Fire Engine Co. appear on parade this afternoon, with their engine, in celebration of the 21st anniversary of the company.

Ges. barque Rudolphine Buchard, Dade, cleared to-day for Liverpool with 2,889 barrels rosin and 61 barrels gum thus, valued at $5,000, shipped by Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son.

"For there was never yet a Philosopher, that could endure the toothache patiently." Perhaps not—but there's little wit in enduring it at all, when one bottle of Salvation Oil will cure it.

Daniel Armstrong, the strawbail postmaster at Rocky Point, who got away with about $600 of Uncle Sam's money, has been arrested and jailed and will be tried at Newbern in June.

Nor. barque Leviathan, Pedersen, cleared to-day for Liverpool with 2,142 barrels rosin, 1,000 barrels tar and 300 barrels gum thus, valued at $5,850, shipped by Messrs. Paterson, Downing & Co.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Brooklyn Baptist Church will hold a festival at the City Hall tomorrow evening, on which occasion ice cream, oysters and other refreshments will be dispensed.

Messrs. W. J. Kirkham & Co. have been appointed agents here for the Wheeler & Wilson sewing machine, and they received this morning a fine line of these machines, which they offer for sale. See ad.

Mr. J. P. Shelley, a Wilmingtonian who went South some years ago, has returned to the city and will represent here the Southwestern Building and Loan Association of New Orleans. Mr. Shelley is the general agent for this State.

The Library Rooms.

Improvement is still the order of the day in the rooms of the Wilmington Library Association. There are now two librarians, both ladies. Miss A. L. Sargent, of Boston, arrived here recently to assist Mrs. DeRosset in her duties there. The books have all been gone over and rearranged in their proper departments and a new catalogue is shortly to be compiled. The rooms are now very attractive. The city papers, as well as others, are kept on file and all of the prominent magazines of the country are to be found on the tables. The rooms are open all day and every evening except Sunday.

Kind Words of Cheer.

When a proprietor knows he has a grand and good remedy for the many ills that flesh and blood are heir to, it pleases him exceedingly to receive such evidences of appreciation as follows:

W. F. Miles, Milesville, N. C., writes: "I have used Botanic Blood Balm and find it to be all that it is recommended to be."

D. C. Blanton, Thomasville, Ga., writes: "I have used Botanic Blood Balm in my family as a tonic and blood purifier with highest satisfaction results."

F. O. Hoffman, editor Times, Rocky Mount, Va., writes: "I am pleased to say that Botanic Blood Balm is the best appetizer and tonic for delicate people I ever saw. It acted like a charm in my case."

F. H. Hickey, 1208 Main street, Lynchburg, Va., writes: "I was broke out all over with sores, and my hair was falling out. After using a few bottles of Botanic Blood Balm my hair quit falling out and all the sores got well."

Julia E. Johnson, Stafford's P. O., S. C., writes: "I had suffered 13 years with eczema and was at times confined to my bed. The itching was terrible. My son-in-law got me one-half dozen bottles of Botanic Blood Balm, which entirely cured me, and I ask you to publish this for the benefit of others suffering in like manner."

August A. Klages, 816 St. Charles street, Baltimore, Md., writes: "From my youth I suffered from a poisonous taint in my blood. My face and body was continually affected with eruptions and sores. I am now 42 years of age and had been treated both in Germany and America, but no remedy overcame the trouble until I used Botanic Blood Balm. I have used about twenty bottles, and now my skin is clear, smooth and healthy, and I consider the poison permanently driven from my blood. I endorse it as the best blood purifier I have used."

Forecast.
For North Carolina, fair weather and stationary temperature to day and cooler and fair on Thursday. For Wilmington and vicinity, fair weather.

Katie Putnam.

The box sheet for the Katie Putnam entertainment to night at the Opera House is a mere rag, it has been cut up so badly. This is of course very gratifying as it indicates the large and enthusiastic reception which will be accorded to her tonight. She was always a favorite here and we are sure that she will win fresh laurels to night.

Supreme Court.

Opinions were handed down in this Court on Monday last in the following cases:

State vs. Jacobs, from Robeson; no error.
McLean vs. Smith, from Robeson; error.
Alfred vs. Burns, from Moore; no error.
State vs. Pool, from Moore; error; judgment arrested.
Freeman vs. Person, from Moore; affirmed.
Koonce vs. Commissioners, from Jones; new trial granted.

The Concert Last Night.

The First Baptist Church was crowded last night by those who were drawn there to hear the Sacred Concert advertised for that occasion. With the exception of a few benches directly in front, which were not desirable seats as being too directly under the new choir loft, every seat was occupied. Even in the gallery the benches were all full and some were standing. The seating capacity of the church is estimated at 1,200 and in that case there must have been not far from one thousand persons present last night. The pulpit and rostrum were handsomely and profusely decorated with flowers.

The concert was opened by the rendition, by Miss Annie Chasten, on the new organ of Mendelssohn's "March from Midsummer Night's Dream—the famous wedding march. It was most exquisitely rendered, in faultless touch and time and taste. Abbott's "Hear Our Prayer," a trio, by Messrs. Smith, Welsh and Grant, was faultlessly rendered.

A quartette—the "Baptist Quartette"—composed of Miss Annie Stoller, soprano; Mrs. F. A. Muse, contralto; Mr. S. H. Burtt, tenor, and Mr. H. K. Holden, bass, rendered delightfully Meyerbeer's "My Soul Doth Live in Thee." Guilmant's "March Religieuse," was then given delightfully by Mr. E. P. Boatwright. And just here we will remark that the playing by the several organists was all very good.

Geibel's "Inspiration and Hearer of Prayer," by Messrs. Welsh and French, was very fine.

The next piece was Rodney's "Calvary," rendered by Mrs. A. D. Jenkins, and it was one of the gems of the evening. Later on the same lady sang "Blumenthal's Message" and surely was never a message more sweetly told. Mrs. Jenkins' voice seemed at its best last night. It was strong and resonant and at the same time as soft and pliant as a child's.

Messrs. Smith, French, Welsh and Holden sang Havens' "Shine Softly" without any instrumental accompaniment whatever. It was well done and greatly appreciated by the audience.

Lloyd's "Christ Risen" was sung by Miss Schwarz and was one of the most beautiful features of the entire programme. It could not have been rendered more acceptably.

The cornet and flute obligatos, by Messrs. Jas. E. Wilson and W. A. Martin, was very fine, most exquisitely rendered in fact, and Mr. Gilmore's rendition on the organ was also excellent.

Probably the best feature of the evening was the last. It was Mozart's "Gloria from Twelfth Mass." Everybody knows that this is one of the grandest things ever known in music. It was magnificently rendered last night. The sopranos were Miss Minnie Schwarz, Mrs. M. F. Manning and Miss Annie Stoller; the altos, Miss Lizzie Waddell, Miss Belle Wood, Mrs. F. A. Muse; the tenors, Messrs. Brooke French, J. D. Smith and S. H. Burtt, and the bases, Messrs. G. P. Welsh, John Grant and H. K. Holden. The accompanist was Miss Annie Chasten.

PLEASE NOTICE.

We will be glad to receive communications from our friends on any and all subjects of general interest, but the name of the writer must always be furnished to the Editor. Communications must be written on one side of the paper. Personalities must be avoided. And it is especially and particularly understood that the Editor does not always endorse the views of correspondents unless so in the editorial columns.

By the Sad Sea Waves.

Mr. B. B. Humphrey has leased some valuable privileges on Wrightsville Beach, near the pavilion, and has erected there a large building, which will serve the combined purposes of a hotel, bar, restaurant and billiard room. The building is 88x125 feet, with 100 square feet of piazza room and 14 sleeping apartments. Mr. Humphrey will open there about the first of April.

City Court.

The following cases were disposed of by the Mayor to-day:

Lacey J. Coleman, disorderly conduct, guilty, judgment suspended on payment of costs.
Amy Anderson, disorderly conduct, guilty, judgment suspended on payment of costs.
Charles Owens, disorderly, $30 or 30 days.
Robert Williams, disorderly, $10 or 20 days.

Col. Waddell's Book.

The Raleigh Chronicle says that Hon. A. M. Waddell's new book is nearing completion, and almost ready to come from the press. The title of the book is "A Colonial Officer and His Times." The main figure is Col. Hugh Waddell, who figured so gallantly and conspicuously in North Carolina history in Colonial times. The book contains 250 pages, and will prove a very valuable addition to North Carolina literature, and to the general history of the country.

The Postal Telegraph Co.

It is stated that at a special meeting last Wednesday, the Postal Telegraph and Cable Company voted to increase the capital stock $5,000,000 to $10,000,000. The increase is for the purpose of acquiring certain properties which the company has been operating, but which have been owned by John W. Mackay. Among them is the Bankers and Merchants' Telegraph Company, which was sold about three years ago. A portion of the increase will be applied to the extension of the lines into the West.
