to the city last night after a visit of about three weeks to New York, where he has been for the purpose of perfecting his knowledge of the engraving process.

It is acknowledged by every one cess streets, does the largest clothing business in Wilmington, and every one that buys there saves at least from 15 to 25 percent on the dollar.

ladies as well as gentlemen are invited.

It is hoped that the cold weather is all over with now. The wind got around to the South this morning and hence we have had a balmy and pleasant Spring day with plenty of sunshine to help vegetation up out of the ground.

p. m. Sunday school at 3 p. m. The Large crowds have attended the special services at the First Baptist Church during the past week. Rev.

W. B. Oliver, the able and scholarly young pastor of the Baptist Church of Fayetteville, is doing the preaching and preaches very acceptably.

A Pleasing Sense

Of health and strength renewed and of ease and comfort follows the use of Syrup of Figs, as it acts in harmony with nature to effectually cleanse the system when costive or bilious. For sale in 50c and $1.00 bottles by all leading druggists.

St. Paul's Evan. Lutheran Church.

The services in St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, corner Market and Sixth streets, Rev. F.
W. E. Peschau, pastor, to-morrow (Sunday) will be in German at 11 a.
m. and at 8 p. m. in English. All are welcome at the services.

We Give It Up.

A city correspondent noting the estimates made for the city expenses for the new year, which together with interest upon the bonded debt exceeds the income of the city, asks why we pay so much more for electric lights here than in Fayetteville, where fewer lights are used.
We cannot answer the question but there is one remark that we can make and that is that the electric lights here are far superior to those in Fayetteville.

To Leave Us.

We are sorry to learn that Capt.
Grant, the old soldier and courteous gentleman who has for some years past been in charge of the National Cemetery here, is to be ordered to another post of duty. His place is to be supplied by Mr. H. C. Lacy, for some years past keeper of the cemetery at Poplar Grove, Dinwiddie county, Va. Capt. Grant has made a great many warm friends here and we, in common with many others, will be sorry to see him leave us.

A Green Old Age.

Mrs. Seney Alderman, mother of Mrs. S. S. Burr, and grandmother of Mr. S. H. Burr, was 95 years old to-day and the event was duly celebrated by the family. Her general health is still good for one so advanced an age, although she was somewhat unwell to-day. Mrs. Alderman has been twice married, the first time when she was 15 years of age, and the maternal grandmother of the editor of this paper was one of her bridesmaids on that occasion.

All are Invited.

The Seaman's Friend Society of this port have made arrangements with Rev. J. A. Smith, evangelist, to engage in their work for the moral and religious elevation of seamen visiting this port. Mr. Smith is a good speaker and conversant with this work, having been engaged in it in England and also in this country. He will hold his first service to-morrow afternoon in the Seaman's Bethel, at 4 o'clock, and people of all religious creed or convictions and all who feel any interest in this class of our fellow citizens are cordially invited to be present. He would like to see the Bethel filled with ladies as well as gentlemen.

The Lame Walk.

Pitiful indeed is the condition of those who are confined to their beds or chairs unable to walk. How grateful all such must feel when they recover from their helplessness. B. B.
B. (Botanic Blood Balm) has made more than one lame person happy.

Mrs. Emma Griffiths, Union, Tenn., writes: "My little boy had scrofula so bad his knees were drawn up and his knees stiff, and he could not walk. He derived no benefit from medicines until I tried B. B. B. After using it a short time only, he can walk and has no pain. I shall continue its use."

Murtle M. Tanner, Boonville, Ind., writes: "I had blood poison from birth. Knots on my limbs were as large as hen's eggs. Doctors said I would be a cripple, but B. B. B. has cured me sound and well. I shall ever praise the day the men who invented Blood Balm were born."

resolutions be sent to each one
